Rev. Dana Everhart Atlanta-Emory District Superintendent

Keynote Speaker | Rev. Dana Everhart

A native of Brandon, Florida, Dana felt God's call into Ordained Ministry when he was in Junior High School. Dana attended Florida Southern College where he majored in Religious Education. While at Southern he served as president of the Wesley Foundation and Inter-Faith Council. Graduating in 1981 with the BA in Religious Education he entered Candler School of Theology and completed his degree there in 1984. While at Candler Dana served the Salem UMC in Covington, GA which became his home church.

Dana is married to the former Sally McGill of South Carolina and they are the parents of three children: Matthew who is the band director at Elbert County High School in Elberton, GA.; Jacob who has joined the work force, serving in Atlanta; and Katie who is a student at the University of North Georgia in Dahlonega.

“...and let endurance have its full effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking in nothing.” ~James 1:4
