Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Welcome to the 2019 North Georgia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. I have been praying for you and for our church daily as we gather for this 153rd session of the Annual Conference.

Our conference theme this year is “One With Each Other,” as we continue to live into our prayer from our communion liturgy that we may be “one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world.”

This week we will endeavor to go deeper into being “one with each other” as we are led by the Rev. Dr. Gary Mason, the Director of Rethinking Conflict, a faith-based organization with a mission for peace making. Dr Mason is a Methodist clergyperson based in Belfast, Northern Ireland who works internationally with opposing political and faith groups to bring about peace and reconciliation. Our inspiring preachers for the worship services include David Naglee, Alice Rogers and Michael McQueen. On Tuesday evening, following adjournment of the afternoon session, Conference members are invited to enjoy a barbeque dinner and hands-on mission activity hosted by our related agencies. Throughout the week we will sing, eat, conference and pray together.

We will collect a special offering during our service of remembrance to benefit the Pastoral Care Program of Wesley Woods. At Thursday’s ordination service we will collect an offering for the Ministerial Education Fund that supports the education of future clergy. Our United Methodist connection shines as churches across North Georgia come together to help fund valuable ministry.

You’ll notice that we will utilize our time this Annual Conference in different ways than years past. We ask that you read the reports in this Annual Conference Handbook. This is your record and information on our shared mission and ministry.

Please join me in preparing for our time together by praying for one another. We are beloved companions on the journey and it is a blessing to work beside you as we share Christ’s love with the world.

Grace and peace to you,
Dear Members of the 2019 Annual Conference,

On behalf of the Athens-Elberton District and host committee, welcome back to Athens! The Conference theme this year is “One With Each Other.” Our time together begins with Lay Candidate Forum and Clergy Executive Session at 10 a.m., Tuesday, June 11, and ends Friday, June 14. Information about the conference is in this handbook. Please take time to read it. The information and a registration link are available on the conference website, www.ngumc.org. For those attending annual conference for the first time, orientation to Athens and the Classic Center will be held at 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, June 11. Please check posted schedules for updated location of meals and events.

Remember, each member to the 2019 Annual Conference is responsible for his or her own lodging arrangements. A list of area hotels is on the conference website, www.ngumc.org. Lower rates come by mentioning that you are a part of the North Georgia UM Annual Conference. If you need housing assistance, contact the Athens Convention and Visitors Bureau at 706-357-4434. If you made reservations last year, confirm them and verify the nights of stay. PLEASE cancel any reservations you do not plan on using.

Use your Parking Permit in the handbook for complimentary parking at three sites: The Classic Center, the county parking deck across from the Classic Center, and the UGA North Campus deck (with shuttle services provided). Additional handicapped parking is available at covered meters. Regular street parking meter fees extend 8:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m. and are strictly enforced with stiff fines.

Athens is filled with a variety of restaurants within walking distance of the Classic Center. As in past years, breakfast and lunch vendors will be available at the Classic Center. Certain meal events require online reservations that must be made by June 4. Those tickets will be distributed in the Lower Level of Foundry Building adjacent to Registration. There is no Red Cross Blood Drive this year.

Again, welcome. May God’s will prevail as we attend to making disciples for the transformation of the world.

Brian Clark, District Superintendent
Leon Jourolmon and Dianne Morrison, Lay Co-Chairs
Etta Reid, District Lay Leader
Johnny Fowler, Host Committee Chair Emeritus
The 2019 North Georgia Annual Conference will center on the prayer found in our United Methodist communion liturgy that we may be “One With Christ, One With Each Other, and One In Ministry To All The World.” Last year, Annual Conference focused on being one with Christ through practice of spiritual disciplines. This year we will focus on being “One With Each Other.”

Our time together will begin and end with Holy Communion and a reminder that the table of Holy Communion is Christ's table and open to anyone who seeks to respond to Christ's love.

Because of this intentional focus on oneness in Christ and the communion table, our logo features the bread and cup. The overlay of diverse faces is meant to represent the diversity of people who make up the congregations and communities of the North Georgia Conference.

Side by side, we will learn together from renowned theologians and people of faith. We will serve together with joy on Tuesday afternoon. We will sing together, eat together, and pray together. Most importantly, at Annual Conference 2019 we will recognize that we do not journey alone, but that with God’s help we may be “one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world.”
Gary Mason, the 2019 Conference theme speaker, will teach on Peacebuilding. He is a Methodist minister and directs a conflict transformation organization based in Belfast called "Rethinking Conflict." Prior to this he spent 27 years as a Methodist clergy person in parish ministry in Belfast and has played an integral role in the Northern Irish peace process. He played a key role in establishing the $30 million Skainos project which is a world class urban center developed in a post-conflict society as a model of co-existence and shared space; it is acknowledged as the largest faith-based redevelopment project in Western Europe.

Mason is a close advisor to Protestant ex-combatants on the civilianization efforts of paramilitaries. He was instrumental in facilitating negotiations with paramilitaries and government officials, and in 2007 his contribution was formally recognized by the Queen. In 2009, Mason’s church was the stage from which Loyalist paramilitaries announced their weapons decommissioning. Mason has lectured in political and academic forums throughout Europe, South Africa, the Middle East and the United States on lessons from the Irish peace process. He has been interviewed on CNN, BBC, ITV and various radio programs.

He holds a PhD in Psychology from the University of Ulster, completed his theological studies at Queens University, and holds a Bachelor’s in Business Studies from the University of Ulster. Gary also holds an honorary doctorate from Florida Southern College for his role in peace building in Ireland.

Gary is a Senior Research Fellow at the Kennedy Institute for Conflict Intervention at Maynooth University in Ireland. He is an Adjunct Professor at the Candler School of theology at Emory University in Atlanta lecturing on reconciliation, peace building, the history of the Northern Ireland conflict, racism, sectarianism and conflict transformation. Gary is a faculty advisor and partner to the Negotiation Strategies Institute, a Harvard University program on negotiation.

Visuals in Worship: One with Each Other

The visuals team endeavors to transform our places of business and worship into Sacred Spaces in which we have a sense of meeting God. This year’s visuals emphasize that no matter the place, when two or three gather in Christ’s name, God is present. We are “one with each other” whether gathering in a church with stained glass windows, in the quiet hush of a wooded arbor, or in the ballrooms, theatre and hallways of the Classic Center.

The Grand Hall Stage
The stage banners and presenter’s backdrop are designed as stained-glass depictions of the Holy Communion meal. The various broken pieces of colored glass remind us that the light of Christ shines through the broken pieces of our lives. No single banner shows a complete picture; yet together they form a united image of the elements of Holy Communion.

The Grand Hall Floor
Once again, the altar is placed in the center of the Grand Hall. This is a reminder of the transforming Grace in our midst as we serve one another and share in the meal. It is our prayer that the Holy Spirit will use these times of conferencing, conversation, and communion to make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world.

The altar table was provided by Jack Amick, who works for the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), and is used at Grace United Methodist Church – Atlanta, AMRY. The round table reminds that we all come as equals and have equal access to the Lord’s Table.

The crosses used on the altar table remind us that we need one another’s perspectives in order to see more fully. One of the crosses was provided by Clifton United Methodist Church, ADOX. From one angle the lines form a cross. From another perspective, the shape is a fish, with the words “whoever believes in him will have eternal life” (John 3:15).

Hyo Kim made two of the crosses used on the altar table. Each cross is made with both pine and oak wood, both native to North Georgia. In addition to the cross or cross and flame shape, they have a second perspective, that of two persons embracing. They remind us to embrace one another despite our differences. As we grow “one with Christ,” we also grow “one with each other.”

Service of Remembrance
During the Service of Remembrance, laurel wreaths will be on the altar in memory of each departed saint. With these wreaths, we celebrate the lives of those who have run with perseverance the race set before us and have looked to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith (Hebrews 12:1-2). At the end of the service, the laurel wreaths are taken to the Atrium. Families are invited to retrieve their loved one’s wreath as a gift of remembrance.

Service of Licensing, Commissioning, and Ordination
The reds, oranges, and yellows of the banners and paraments remind of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. We celebrate the presence of that same Holy Spirit today, poured out on these who are licensed, commissioned and ordained.
The newest banner, a cross and flame, was created using t-shirts of those being ordained this year. The Quadrilateral shapes remind of our theological task; triangle shapes remind us of the Trinitarian understanding of God. Some of the t-shirts are used to form the cross; we pray that all of their lives will be cross-shaped. Other t-shirts are used for the flames; we pray that all of those being ordained will carry with them the same Spirit that appeared as tongues of fire upon the Disciples at Pentecost.

The baptismal font on the stage reminds us that in our baptism we are all called into lives of service and love. Other elements on the altar represent the particular calls of those being ordained: the Bible, a reminder of the call to proclaim God’s word; the towel and pitcher, the call to serve and encourage ministries of compassion and justice; the chalice and paten, the call to administer the sacraments and order the life of the congregation. We are thankful to Julie Moor, who created the Deacon and Elder stoles.

Passing of the Mantle and Honoring of Retirees

At the passing of the mantle, we pause to recognize the passing of authority from the retiring clergy to those who are newly ordained. The circular shape of the large clock symbolizes the continuation of ministry in every age.

During the time honoring retiring clergy, their ministry and service will be honored and recognized with a pin, certificate, and gift symbolizing growth. We pray that God will bless their ministries, and that this next stage of life is one of flourishing and growth.

Stairwell Windows

The cross and flame image in the stairwell windows located outside the Grand Hall are made from items representing the twelve districts of the North Georgia United Methodist Conference. For example, golf tees represent the Augusta District. Butterflies, like those of Callaway Gardens, represent the LaGrange District. Coca-Cola bottle caps represent the Atlanta-Emory District.

We pray that as we engage the senses in worship we will be drawn closer to God’s saving grace.

Deanne Lynch and Cyndi McDonald (co-chairs), 2019 Visual Team

Sankofa Hush Arbor: Morning Holy Communion, Holy Conversation, and Prayer

Located in the Empire Room of the Foundry Building, the Sankofa Hush Arbor is a collaborative effort of the North Georgia Black Methodists for Church Renewal, the Annual Conference Visuals Team, and volunteers and friends from: Mt. Pleasant UMC, Social Circle, ADOX; General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM); Atlanta Community Food Bank; NGUMC Prayer Force; and Covington First UMC, ADOX. We are thankful for John Rhodes of Harmony Grove United Methodist Church, Lilburn, AMRY, for providing the labyrinth and materials that encourage contemplative directed prayer.
Sankofa Hush Arbor Description

Sankofa Hush Arbors were secret places hidden in the thick wooded areas where those persons in slavery created a sacred place to worship free from whites, who offered westernized Christianity that demanded slaves to obey their masters. In Sankofa Hush Arbors enslaved persons could worship as their authentic selves, learn to read, and make plans for escape. They found freedom and release from the dehumanizing physical and mental cruelty of slave life through worship and fellowship. They also found spiritual and emotional renewal to make it through another day and maintain their humanity. So important were these services that many who attended would worship all night only to return to the fields at sunrise. Sankofa Hush Arbors were temporary hidden places to worship. Their location changed to prevent capture, severe punishment or death for those who attended. The call to worship was a coded message between enslaved persons telling of an upcoming service. Those who went ahead to set up the Sankofa Hush Arbor would leave clues for others to follow.

The trees, bushes and grass used in both rooms of the Sankofa Hush Arbor mimic the thick deep woods. Quilts were used to create a tabernacle in the Hush Arbor and when soaked in water provided soundproofing to prevent discovery of their location. Large wash pots or water pots were also used for soundproofing. Lanterns were used to find their way to the location in the dark.

The Holy Communion table includes the symbol of Sankofa, a Sankofa bird or heart. This Adinkra symbol from Ghana means “go back and get it.” We must not forget but learn from history.

The 134 quart-sized mason jars are filled with soil from historically and traditionally black churches in North Georgia. They are intended to remind us of the display in the Equal Justice Initiative Museum. At least two black Methodists from North Georgia have relatives whose names are included among those persons lynched in Georgia. Look for the 134 jars as you walk the labyrinth and determine to walk with our brothers and sisters of these 134 churches.

The 88 blue glass bottles on an iron rack represent the African understanding of glass bottles and iron as capturing and warding off evil spirits. Unfortunately, we have seen a rise in the number of hate groups and the willingness of people to speak and act in discriminatory ways. The number 88 is a code number used by white supremacy groups for HH or Hitler Salute; the 88 bottles on the iron drying rack serve as a sign of protection from evil and raise awareness of its negative effects on our communities. We encourage those attending Annual Conference to condemn any spirit of hatred. Rather, we join together in demonstrating a spirit of love and unity.

The burlap used throughout the rooms represents the rough clothing given to those in slavery and the loving kindness shown by older children who would wear the new roughest garments to soften them for the younger children.

The Tree of Life tapestry in the Holy Communion area represents collective work and responsibility. We need one another. Working together as the body of Christ gives life. Renew your spirit at the listening stations, with the spirituals that began in the Hush Arbors.
Prayer Stations

The interactive prayer stations surrounding the labyrinth arise from the three-year theme of the North Georgia Annual Conference: “One with.”

- In Station 1, we are reminded that we are “One with Christ” and claimed by Christ in the sacrament of Holy Baptism.
- In Station 2, we are reminded that we are “One with Each Other” as we celebrate our foundational history as a denomination. We are invited to give God thanks for the many people in our lives who have been part of our story.
- Station 3 also celebrates that we are “One with Each Other” in our struggles in life – in our brokenness and in our relationships with each other, as this station focuses on the present-day struggles of humans in relationship with each other. We are reminded to invite Christ to be the Great Healer in all of our relationships as people and as a denomination.
- In Station 4, we celebrate that we are “One in Ministry to All the World” as we look toward the future, celebrating the places where we as a collective body are in ministry together throughout the world, and looking toward the future as we continue to reach out with the Gospel of Christ in ministry together “to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” into a global home that looks more like the Kingdom of God.

2019 Annual Conference Offering
Pastoral Care Program of Wesley Woods

Bishop Sue Haupert-Johnson has named the Pastoral Care Program of Wesley Woods as the recipient of the 2019 North Georgia Annual Conference Special Offering.

Your giving to the conference-wide offering will make it possible for more than 1800 older adults across the Wesley Woods communities to continue their faith journey with the support of a team of loving, compassionate chaplains.

“At Wesley Woods, we believe an individual’s faith journey is life-long. Our Wesley Woods chaplains serve as pastors in residence, helping our beloved seniors navigate the loss and grief that often accompany our later years,” says Terry Barcroft, President and CEO.

Our United Methodist connection is at its best as churches across North Georgia come together to help fund valuable ministry. We exemplify this year’s conference theme “One With Each Other” when we give to this special offering.

While many churches will choose the first Sunday in June to receive the offering, any Sunday before Annual Conference is fine. A representative of each congregation will be given an opportunity to present a check during the Service of Remembrance on Wednesday, June 12, 2019, in the Grand Hall of the Classic Center in Athens.

Your generous giving ensures that a senior in one of the Wesley Woods communities who may be separated from his or her church home will have the attentive ear and encouragement of a supportive pastor in the community.

Serving With Each Other: BBQ and Mission Project With Related Agencies
North Georgia Annual Conference related agencies are coming together to host an afternoon of fun, service, and barbecue! The dinner and event will immediately follow the close of the Tuesday, June 11, afternoon session of Annual Conference. All members are needed and encouraged to attend.

Purchase meal tickets at $10 at online registration for the delicious BBQ Dinner. Meal tickets will not be available in Athens.

“Serving With Each Other,” will highlight our work together through our agencies and emphasize our conference theme, "One With Each Other." It will take place in the Athena Ballrooms of the Classic Center.

The event will include a service project organized by Action Ministries and hosted by Aldersgate Homes, Georgia United Methodist Foundation, Housing and Homeless Council, Murphy Harpst Children’s Center, Wellroot Family Services (United Methodist Children’s Home) and Wesley Woods. Members will assemble simple outreach kits and have an opportunity to spend time with leaders, board members, and champions of our agencies who carry out vital ministries in our Conference. It will be a time to make a connection beyond the display table.

The simple outreach kits we assemble will be distributed to those in need by staff and volunteers of Action Ministries, Aldersgate Homes, Georgia United Methodist Foundation, Housing and Homeless Council, Murphy Harpst Children’s Center, Wellroot (United Methodist Children’s Home) and Wesley Woods.

The conference-wide ministries of our related agencies help facilitate the oneness we pray for and express through our theme. We know that through hands-on service you will make deeper connections and make new friends with others in the North Georgia Annual Conference and with our agency partners.

Annual Conference Offering for 2019 – Pastoral Care Program at Wesley Woods. Read more about this important special offering opportunity in this handbook. A representative from each congregation will be given an opportunity to present a check during the Service of Remembrance on Wednesday, June 12, at 2 p.m., in the Grand Hall.

Monitoring at Annual Conference
The North Georgia Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW), guided by the denominational commission, will provide monitoring during each session of the Annual Conference to collect data related to the gender and age range of those who provide leadership and speak from the floor of the conference. We are called to reflect God’s diversity and encourage opportunities for all God’s people to come to the table. Is the participation at annual conference reflective of our conference membership? Do these percentages reflect the numbers of different stakeholders in our pews and in our communities?

Monitoring will take place during this annual conference in order to help us see, understand and improve our inclusivity and recognition of diversity. With greater awareness and participation comes more faithful realization of our mandate to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Name Badge Lanyards
The North Georgia Annual Conference thanks Wesley Woods for providing the name badge holders/lanyards. The conference also thanks the registration volunteers for distributing the name badges. Please recycle the name badges.

The Hush Arbor: Rooms for Prayer, Holy Communion and Conversation
The Empire Room, located in the Foundry, is open 7 a.m.-5 p.m. beginning Tuesday, June 11, and closes Friday, June 14, at noon. One side of the partitioned room is one of quiet prayer, with interactive stations and a labyrinth. Following morning Holy Communion, the other side is open for quiet conversation and conferencing.

The imagery in both areas reflects our history in which persons in slavery gathered in secrecy in thick wooded areas. These were places of worship, fellowship, and hope. Prayer stations encourage reflection on the past, as well as a future in which we overcome divisions and become one in ministry to all the world. Whether the Hush Arbor rooms are used for silent meditation or holy conversation, we hope that they will provide spiritual renewal.

The Hush Arbor is a collaborative effort of the North Georgia Black Methodists for Church Renewal, the Annual Conference Visuals Team, volunteers and friends from: Mt. Pleasant UMC--Social Circle, General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM), Atlanta Community Food Bank, NGUMC Prayer Force and Covington First UMC. We are thankful for John Rhodes of Harmony Grove United Methodist Church, Lilburn, for providing the labyrinth and materials that encourage contemplative directed prayer.

5K Walk/Run for the Youth Service Fund.
The 13th Annual North Georgia Conference 5K Walk/Run in historic downtown Athens will benefit youth mission and service opportunities in the churches of our conference through the Youth Service Fund. What is the Youth Service Fund? For decades, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries has raised funds to help support unique ideas that place emphasis on ministry with and for young people in local churches and their communities. Our goal is to increase awareness of this program and to encourage innovation as we move into a new decade of ministry with youth.

The race begins at 6:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 12, on Washington Street near the Classic Center and follows a route through downtown Athens and along the river, ending behind the Classic Center’s Foundry Building. Classic Race Services, a company with 26 years’ experience in managing races of various sizes is coordinating this year’s 5K Run.

Please help support our youth in this effort by joining us for the run or by making a donation so that this ministry may continue for decades to come. Online registration will be

Responsibility of the Clergy Members of the Annual Conference

Each clergy member has the responsibility to:

1) Attend pre-conference orientation session held in his/her district.
2) Attend all sessions of the annual conference and leave only under emergency conditions and with the knowledge of his/her district superintendent. Attendance is not optional. “Any such person unable to attend shall report by letter to the conference secretary, setting forth the reason for the absence.” (2016 Book of Discipline, ¶ 602.8.)
3) Become familiar with the organizational structure and existing programs of the annual conference, parliamentary procedure and the conference standing rules as printed in the 2018 Conference Handbook and discuss with his/her lay member(s).
4) Read pre-conference reports and become familiar with specific programs and items that might be presented during the sessions. Prior to annual conference, consult with his/her lay member(s) so that he/she might understand the various reports and their implication for the life of the Church. Keep in mind that the lay member(s) as well is/are obligated to express views and vote as each feels is best.
5) Participate fully at the annual conference and help in policy-making decisions.
6) Form his/her own opinions on issues and vote his/her convictions.
7) Serve as interpreter of the annual conference actions along with the lay member. (2016 Book of Discipline ¶ 251.2).

Responsibility of the Lay Members of the Annual Conference

It is an honor to be elected as a lay member to the North Georgia Conference. This is an assignment of great responsibility. By virtue of this office, he/she is also a member of her/hers church’s council (¶ 252.5.g), finance committee (¶ 258.4), and the pastor-parish relations committee (¶ 258.2.a) (2016 Book of Discipline).

Each member has the responsibility to:

1) Attend pre-conference orientation session held in his/her district.
2) Attend all sessions of the annual conference. When he/she must be absent from the conference every effort should be made to see that the alternate lay member is able to be present.
3) Become familiar with the organizational structure and existing programs of the annual conference, parliamentary procedure and the conference standing rules as printed in the 2018 Conference Handbook.
4) Read pre-conference reports in the conference handbook provided at the district pre-conference session and become familiar with specific programs and items that might be presented during the sessions. Consult with the pastor and church lay leader. While the lay member is obligated only to use his/her own best thinking in the conference, the dialogue with others ahead of time should prove helpful in clarifying issues.
5) Participate fully in the work of the annual conference policy-making decisions.
6) Form his/her own opinions on issues and vote his/her convictions.
7) Prepare a report for his/her local church. This report may be presented at a Sunday morning worship service and/or a more detailed report at a meeting of the administrative board/council. In either case it should be done as soon after annual conference as feasible, and “not later than three months after the close of the conference” (¶ 251.2, 2016 Book of Discipline). Consult with his/her pastor before conference about scheduling and time limit. The conference handbook, the North Georgia Conference web page, www.ngumc.org, handouts received at annual conference and personal notes on the sessions can be used as a basis for the report. Mention major issues raised and any action and how they might affect the local church. Refer to conference preachers and share highlights from worship services. Discuss the positive aspects of the conference and try not to dwell on trivia.

It is recommended that the annual conference’s tradition of quadrennial rotation between laity and clergy be followed.

II. Delegation nominating committee
There shall be a nominating committee of the North Georgia Conference delegation to general and jurisdictional conferences comprised of the first three elected lay and the first three elected clergy delegates. This nominating committee shall meet within one month of the annual conference which elected the delegation. This meeting shall be called by the chair of the delegation who shall act as chair of the nominating committee.

This committee shall:

After opportunity for additional nominations from the floor, a substitute shall be nominated by the entire delegation.

3) Present to the delegation the committee’s recommendation for one lay and one clergy from the delegation to serve as members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy for the upcoming quadrennium.

4) Recommend to the delegation a substitute committee member for the jurisdictional committee on episcopacy when a duly elected committee member resigns or for any reason cannot continue to serve (See ¶ 524, The 2016 Book of Discipline).

III. Selection of episcopal nominee:
At such time as the delegation may determine, the delegation may select from its membership its episcopal nominee to be put forward at the next annual conference for election as the North Georgia annual conference nominee for the episcopacy.

The following process shall be used by the delegation in selecting a candidate for the episcopacy:

1) Opportunity shall be given for delegates to make nominations from the floor and/or to speak in behalf of persons nominated. All clergy members of the delegation shall be eligible for nomination without regard to order of election to the delegation.

2) Two seconding speeches for each person nominated shall be allowed.

3) After nominations, seconding speeches, and discussion, written ballots shall be taken until one person nominated receives 60 percent of the delegation vote.

4) Upon election of the delegation’s candidate for the episcopacy, opportunity shall be offered for unanimous endorsement by the delegation.
5) The delegation shall develop and implement plans and strategies for accomplishing the election to the episcopacy of the candidate chosen by the delegation.
It is the intent of the conference that through the implementation of these guidelines, the laity shall have an equal voice in the selection of the candidate for the episcopacy, the process shall be fair to all concerned and the process will be comprehensible and consistent.

Clergy Elections Procedures

The North Georgia Annual Conference clergy have responsibility to help shape the future of the United Methodist Church when electing delegates and to prepare the annual conference’s delegation for General and Jurisdictional Conferences. During the 2017 Clergy Session, a Clergy Elections Procedures Committee was selected and given approval to develop a self-nominating process for clergy elections.

The Clergy Elections Procedure Committee has responsibility for identifying the most appropriate ways for the annual conference to participate in the spiritual journey to General and Jurisdictional Conferences by creating and implementing strategy that includes at least the following items:

a. Encourage clergy of the annual conference to attend General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

b. Encourage clergy to volunteer as pages and monitors for General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

c. Educate on the time and financial requirements for General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The financial and time requirements expected of those who serve is vast. The time requirements include the dates for General and Jurisdictional Conferences and the regularly scheduled meetings of the delegation in advance of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. Time commitments also involve reading, studying and interpreting proposed legislation.

d. Encourage the annual conference to pray for the delegates.

e. Remain neutral throughout the process. No opinion shall be expressed about any candidate at any point during the process.

We, the Clergy Elections Procedures Committee, prayerfully approached this task over the course of the year and respectfully present the following clergy self-nominating process for approval by the Clergy Executive Session of the North Georgia Annual Conference.

Self-Nominating Process

All eligible clergy interested in serving as a delegate may follow the self-nominating procedures outlined below:

Anyone who desires to self-nominate may express their interest by accessing the nomination form on the North Georgia conference website, www.ngumc.org. The nomination form will be made available on February 1 preceding the annual conference session of delegate elections. The nomination form will remain open until March 4 at 11:59
In order to ensure that the deadline for submission is honored, there will be a date and time stamp for each final submission received.

Prior to March 4, each person who self-nominates will have the ability to revise his/her submission as often as desired. However, each person must officially submit their file prior to the deadline to ensure that the desired final version is received. If the individual does not officially submit the profile prior to the deadline, the submission will be considered incomplete and ineligible. In order to include the nominee’s biographical information and photograph in the conference handbook, the nomination form on the conference website will not be available after March 4 at 11:59 p.m. preceding the annual conference session of delegate elections.

If an individual decides to withdraw his/her submission after the March 4 deadline, then the individual will have to submit a written request for the profile to be removed. Contact information and the deadline will be included on all communication, including the self-nomination form and the website.

The nomination form will request the following information: name; address; local church; order; district; race/ethnicity; confirmation about the ability to attend the required meetings prior to and during conference; and age bracket. The current clergy photo on file for each nominee will be used for the submission.

Nominees will be asked to answer, in 250 words or less, one of the following questions: “Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and jurisdictional conferences?” or “What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?”

The name, photograph, order, age bracket, gender, home city and statements of each self-nominee will be printed in alphabetical order in the Conference Handbook of the session of annual conference in which delegate elections occur.

All clergy in full connection are eligible for election and shall be listed on the ballot. (“The clergy delegates to General Conference and to jurisdictional or central conference shall be elected from the clergy members in full connection.” 2016 Book of Discipline ¶35). Although members of the Clergy Election Procedures Committee are not eligible to self-nominate, they are eligible for election. This self-nominating process does not preclude other clergy from being nominated and elected. Therefore, the self-nominating section will be followed by an alphabetical list of all clergy in full connection with an assigned number.

An alphabetical listing of those who self-nominate will also be placed on the conference website along with the aforementioned details for each individual.

After the next election, the Clergy Election Procedures Committee will monitor and evaluate the process in order to recommend any necessary changes to the clergy executive session for consideration and approval.

Lay Election Procedures

Lay persons desiring nomination and election as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences will follow the process outlined below, which is in keeping with the guidelines established by the Lay Election Task Force authorized by the 2007 North Georgia Annual Conference.

- Any person who has been a member of The United Methodist Church for at least two years preceding their election, has been an active participant in The United Methodist Church for at least four years preceding their election and is a member within the North Georgia Annual Conference at the time of the General and jurisdictional conferences is eligible for nomination. Book of Discipline, Part I, Division Two, Section VI (¶36).

- A nomination form will be posted on the North Georgia Annual Conference website on January 1 preceding the annual conference session of delegate elections. The nomination form will close on January 31 at 11:59 PM. The nomination form will request a picture, biographical sketch and 300 words to be used as the candidate sees fit, but not necessarily for stating the nominee’s position on issues.

- At a location and time established by the Lay Election Procedure Committee, there shall be a Candidate Forum sponsored by the Conference Board of Laity. Official nominees who have completed the nomination form and meet the requirements established will be invited to participate in this forum. An equal time allotment, established by the Lay Election Procedure Committee, shall be granted to each official nominee to speak to those gathered.

- A second Candidate Forum will be conducted during the Annual Conference Lay Orientation Session. Official candidates who have completed the nomination form and meet the requirements established will be invited to participate in this forum. An equal time allotment, established by the Lay Election Procedure Committee, shall be granted to each official candidate to speak to those gathered.

- Before the morning sessions of Annual Conference, beginning on days following the first laity election ballot, the Lay Election Procedure Committee will distribute a Laity Election Summary Report. This summary shall report the election results through the last ballot read by the Bishop on the previous day by listing the candidates and the number of votes received in the order of the last ballot reported. No other lists of results shall be distributed to the laity during the election process after the first ballot.

*AMENDED DATE: On January 22, 2019, the Lay Election Committee announced that, after consultation, the decision had been made to extend the registration period until midnight March 4, 2019 for those seeking to be a candidate for General Conference 2020. Those who had already submitted an application would be able to resubmit up to the deadline stated above.

Election Process

- Prior to the opening of each ballot, the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, will lead the conference in a time of silent meditation and prayer.
• Members of the annual conference will vote on electronic devices.
• When the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, announces the results of election ballots, the names and ballot numbers of persons receiving votes will be projected on the screens in preparation for the next ballot.
• If anyone receives 10 write-in votes during a ballot they will automatically be assigned a number and included on the next ballot.
• To expedite the election process, ballot results will be reported as follows:
  all names receiving 25 or more votes will be read.
• The order of election of delegates will be General Conference, Jurisdictional Conference, and Reserve Delegates for Jurisdictional Conference.
• Those elected delegates to Jurisdictional Conference will serve as reserves for General Conference.

Africa University thrives in ministry because of the steadfast support of the local congregations of The United Methodist Church. The students, faculty, administrators, trustees and alumni are grateful to the leaders and members of the North Georgia Conference for prioritizing Africa University with the contribution of 95.59 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2018. The university community values every gift and is humbled by the sacrifices that are being made as the North Georgia Conference strives to establish a tradition of 100 percent support for the AUF.

Through its investment in the Africa University Fund, the North Georgia Conference continues to affirm the university’s core mission of nurturing leaders who help communities to know Jesus Christ and to experience peace, sustainable livelihoods, food security and abundant health. Thank you, North Georgia United Methodists, for your steadfast commitment and strong support.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University remains a top choice for African young people who are seeking a relevant and life-changing educational experience. In 2018, Africa University enrolled more than 700 new students and maintained an overall enrollment of around 2,000 students. There were 25 African countries represented in the student body. Women made up 53 percent of the student population, which is almost twice the average for African higher education institutions.
- Throughout 2018, Africa University weathered the challenges of Zimbabwe’s depressed and uncertain socio-economic environment with creativity and prudence. The university delivered teaching, learning and community service activities of high quality without interruption, while also renewing and expanding its infrastructure. Key enhancements in 2018 included the refurbishment of three residence halls for women students and the full implementation of an ERP software system to integrate and manage all facets of the university’s operations.
- For the first time in five years, there is new construction on the Africa University campus thanks to a 25th anniversary gift from Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, TX. In December 2018, work began on the foundation for a new residence hall. The university subsequently broke ground for the construction of phase two of its Student Union and Cafeteria building. Both projects are progressing well and are expected to be fully in use by August 2020.
- With conflict, poverty and the impact of climate change persisting as the key drivers of food insecurity and the rise in internal displacement, migration and refugeehood in Africa, the university consolidated its position as a trailblazer by offering new graduate training and research opportunities. Africa University has also continued to provide scholarships for refugee women so that their experiences, talents and ideas are integrated into the search for sustainable solutions.
- Africa University delivered critical data for reducing malaria deaths in southern Africa and controlling the spread of insect-borne diseases world-wide. AU’s insectary—a laboratory for rearing and studying live insects, such as mosquitos—shares its findings through the Southern Africa Centers of Excellence for Malaria Research. This data informs regional policies, practices and malaria control efforts.

The students, faculty, administrators and trustees of Africa University thank the members of the North Georgia Conference for their prayers and support, which continue to grow and sustain this ministry. Thank you for opening doors and equipping young people to be difference-makers. Thank you for all that you have sown into Africa University over the past 27 years. As Africa University and the North Georgia Conference move forward together in missional engagement, we trust in God’s unending grace for the increase.

101. North Georgia Black Methodists for Church Renewal

North Georgia Black Methodists for Church Renewal (NGBMCR) is the local caucus of General Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR). In February of 1968, despite warnings from Bishops and others to stay away, members of the then segregated Central Jurisdiction met to plan how the Black Churches would continue to operate with excellence in the new United Methodist Church. They created Black Methodists for Church Renewal. For over 50 years, BMCR has served as a type of hush arbor for the Black Church.

NGBMCR empowers Black Methodists “for effective witness and service among pastors, laity in local United Methodist churches, conferences and schools, and the larger community.” We address disparities where they exist, while actively serving the needs of our members. We support our Black College Fund institutions: Clark Atlanta University, Gammon Theological Seminary, and Paine College. NGBMCR presents opportunities to gather beyond the local church to fellowship and create lasting spiritual friendships in order to strengthen the bonds within our denomination and across the Annual Conference.

NGBMCR has a “working” Board elected by the membership. It includes both laity and clergy. We hosted the SEJBMCR Annual Meeting in Atlanta for three years in a row. We are grateful to Bishop Sue for serving on the 2017 panel during the Town Hall. We also extend our gratitude to the members of the Cabinet and Extended Cabinet who attended SEJBMCR with her. It was a highlight for those outside of North Georgia to see such a significant showing. NGBMCR also hosted the General BMCR 52nd Annual Meeting in April 2019.

The Annual NGBMCR Revival (“Revival”) has become a wonderful time to be one with each other. It began in 2016 with “Black Power.” In 2017, “White Privilege: MLK Letter from the Birmingham Jail.” Bishop Sue was the speaker on the first night. The 2018 Revival addressed “Me Too” through the biblical account of the “Rape of Tamar.” The 2019 Revival had the largest number of churches participating on the program to date. It was a high time of praise and worship. Our theme this year was taken from the Findings of BMCR, Black Paper. We used the words of Ernest Smith’s address: “There is no waiting for tomorrow … Our Time Under God is Now.” Our young clergy preached and called us to action. If you missed this year’s NGBMCR Revival, you will have another opportunity in February 2020.

New this year is the NGBMCR Sankofa Hush Arbor at Annual Conference. Sankofa means “go back and get it” and instructs us to learn from the past. Hush arbors, also referred to as brush arbors, were the “secret places” enslaved African Americans created to engage in religious practices and worship God in the fullness of their authentic selves. They created Negro Spirituals and made plans to steal away to freedom. Many traditional Black churches in the South began this way. It was illegal for enslaved persons to read (especially the Bible) and gather in worship without white supervision or “permission.” They risked severe punishment and even death to worship God and fellowship.

Our history in North Georgia has also included actions by some in positions of authority who discouraged the affiliation of black clergy with BMCR. The appointment process was weaponized by some former Bishops and District Superintendents to coerce compliance and restraint from addressing issues of social justice. The threat of retaliation created an atmosphere of isolation and mistrust. Churches went from connectional to congregational in their existence. Clergy suffered in silence and the needs of laity and the local church suffered as well. But the God of our weary years and silent tears has brought us thus far on the way.

Sankofa means “go back and get it” and encourages us to learn from history. We have reimagined the Sankofa Hush Arbor as a “sacred space” where the beauty of the Black Church traditions can be appreciated by all. It is a place to reflect, pray, learn, meditate, worship, praise, be soothed or invigorated by sacred music, experience the love of God, and share that love one with another. We imagined a space where we can remind one another to renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of the world, and repent of our sin; and to accept the freedom and power God gives us to resist evil, injustice, and oppression.

We are grateful to the Annual Conference Planning Committee, Visuals Team, NGBMCR Hush Arbor Committee and many volunteers for giving life to this vision. The Sankofa Hush Arbor is located in the Annual Conference Prayer and Communion Rooms (Empire Room 1&2) on the first floor of the Foundry Building. For more details on the Sankofa Hush Arbor, please see the Annual Conference Visuals Report.

The next NGBMCR General Meeting following Annual Conference will take place on Saturday, August 3rd at 10:00 AM at Ben Hill UMC. We look forward to seeing you!

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current uncertainty in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes and others have worked, worshiped, learned and prayed alongside United Methodists and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward from the Special Session of General Conference, we will continue to invite and welcome wholeheartedly those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

Candler is also privileged to be one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University in Atlanta. With the resources of a top-tier research institution and the reach of a global city, our students benefit from a rich academic and hands-on learning environment: The General Board of Global Ministries is in Atlanta, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Candler’s intentional involvement with our surrounding community has contributed to our inclusion on a list of “Seminaries that Change the World” for six years running. In short, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they’re enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler’s student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 453, reflecting 51 percent women, 39 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 44 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $5.8 million in Candler scholarships, with 100 percent of MDiv students receiving aid. Plus, our comprehensive “Faith & Finance” program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.
Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

103. Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world’s premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman’s Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world’s largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Christian Education, and the Doctor of Ministry.

The support of this Annual Conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God’s church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

104. General Board of Higher Education and Ministry

As the leadership development agency of The United Methodist Church, the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) builds capacity for United Methodist lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim and flourish in Christ’s calling in their lives. The agency creates connections and provides resources to aid in recruitment, education, professional development and spiritual formation. Every elder, deacon and licensed local pastor benefits from our training and candidacy programs. Many young adults find help in clarifying God’s call in their lives through our discernment opportunities.

Through its Office of Strategic Leadership, GBHEM refined plans for a center for leadership development and spiritual formation. It is drawing on research to plan the expansion of leadership training offerings to churches and communities through a range of means such as face-to-face training, online conferencing, consulting, and recommending resources and experts.

The Division of Ordained Ministry (DOM), using extensive research on the components of effective ministry, introduced a new formation process, Effective Ministry 360 (EM360), which guides pastors and congregations to plan and execute mission and ministry objectives. EM360 also offers assessment modules for candidacy, district superintendents, eight-year clergy assessment, and Course of Study. DOM provides introduction and orientation sessions about the process.

The Division of Higher Education (DHE) has initiated research to inform a “leadership pipeline” process for university leaders on United Methodist campuses. Among the books GBHEM published this year, “Missio Dei and the United States: Toward a Faithful United Methodist Witness” (book and study guide) exhibits the best of church and academy collaboration. Contributors explore how the church can reengage its Wesleyan heritage as it participates in God’s mission.

The Office of Loans and Scholarships announced an increase in the maximum amount of money United Methodist students can borrow to pursue their education. The annual maximum is $10,000, with a lifetime maximum of $40,000. On average, the agency distributes $5.5 million in scholarships annually.

Partnering with churches and institutions, GBHEM has promoted projects, programs, initiatives, education and leadership development in various cultural contexts within United Methodism and in pan-Methodist relationships. The agency expanded the Methodist Global Education Fund for Leadership Development, supported the work of regional networks with the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities, and established Regional Hubs for Leadership, Education and Development. In 2018, hubs were active in nations in Africa, Asia, Europe and England, North America and South America.
105. Georgia Pastors’ School

Our 2018 Georgia Pastors’ School brought the best of our denominational leadership to Georgia as an array of General Board of Global Ministries staff presented a relevant and engaging school with the theme of “Inside Out Church: Engaging Your Community in Mission.” One of the ways we live the vision of being one with each other is when we engage our communities with the love and good news of Jesus Christ in a variety of programs and partnerships with others.

The Pastors’ School returns to the theme of preaching regularly as it is such an important part of our work. This year, we will host a diverse faculty who will lead us in “Preaching the Word in Today’s World.” Kevin Murriel, senior pastor of Cascade UMC in Atlanta, will preach our opening worship. Our other worship services will feature our faculty as preachers, giving us the unique perspective of hearing our teachers practice the art. Paul Nixon of the Epicenter Group, formerly of Path One; Anna Carter Florence, Peter Marshall Professor of Preaching at Columbia Theological Seminary; and Gerald Liu, Assistant Professor of Worship and Preaching at Princeton Theological Seminary, will be our faculty for the week.

The Board of Managers is continually seeking to ensure the Georgia Pastors’ School is an outstanding event for both clergy and their families. We are offering the best in continuing education for our conferences’ clergy as well as a quality family experience for clergy families. Kids Care Everywhere will once again provide programming and child care for infants through 5th grade children, and our youth program will again be led by Bill Culpepper. Registration is available exclusively online at www.georgiapastorsschool.org and room reservations can be made through www.epworthbythesea.org. Walk-up registrations are welcomed, but advanced registration helps us be best prepared. Our early-bird registration rates will be available through June 17, so register today! We thank both conferences for your continued support.

107. Hinton Rural Life Center

Hinton Center is a retreat and missions outreach agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, with the mission statement: Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach.

Don’t just go to church. Be the Church. Like a church, Hinton Center’s campus is a physical place where people come to worship, learn and serve, as well as retreat, reflect and renew. But Hinton is more than just a place. Through our ministries and missions outreach opportunities, we engage individuals, groups, churches and organizations – both local and from across the jurisdiction – in ways that impact our rural Appalachian community, improve quality of life, and give hope. We focus on loving God and loving neighbor, and our prayer is that everyone who connects with Hinton – guest, volunteer, workshop participant, local homeowner, or business owner – experiences God’s transforming love.

Guided by our Quality of Life Study, Hinton Center has been making homes safer and healthier, encouraged understanding of mental health and substance use, and promoted community-wide volunteer opportunities. We’ve been awarded numerous grants and have continued to strengthen our ministries both on and off campus. Our 2018 ministry highlights include:

- Received over $575,000 in grants, including funding for:
  - Youth and adult leadership programs, grant funded by The Duke Endowment
  - Mental Health First Aid training, through the Evergreen Foundation; our staff has trained educators in the Clay County and Cherokee County school systems.
  - Young Clergy Initiative funding, from the UM General Board of Higher Education and Ministry; this funding supported a leadership training event for high school youth interested in serving as future summer mission outreach staff.
- Served 334 families through our Firewood, Christmas Cares, and Home Repair ministries
- Completed 237 home repair projects for 29 homes
- Hosted 51 church mission teams, with 46 from the SEJ
- Completed our Lakeside Worship Center, with significant help from the NOMADS team led by Jim and Mary Jo Reeves; began hosting our annual Easter Sunrise Service there
- Launched a regional Volunteer Center promoting ministry through service in the community, with over 25,000 volunteer hours in 2018
- Produced 785 pounds of food from the Hinton garden, used in our dining services and distributed to food programs in our community

In 2019 we launched two initiatives to promote, throughout the SEJ, our resources and missions opportunities:

- The Hinton Ambassadors Ministry equips ten clergy from different annual conferences in the jurisdiction to represent Hinton and serve as an information resource in his/her annual conference. They include: David Fuquay (FL); Laura Plaster (Holston); Ed Trimmer (TN); Adlene Kufarimai (N AL); Shannon Boaz (KY); Joshua Goocey (NC); Rebekah Ralph (WNC); Ed Archer (N GA); Bill Culpepper (S GA); Jonathan Tompkins (SC).
- Hinton is helping to sponsor FCF Confirm confirmation retreats at Lake Junaluska. Our presence at these retreats is introducing a new generation of United Methodists to Hinton Rural Life Center as a place where they can go to retreat and serve . . . and BE the Church!

109.a. The Georgia Young Clergy Academy

The Georgia Young Clergy Academy is sponsored by the North and South Georgia Conferences of the United Methodist Church, and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. The Young Clergy Academy exists as a place for young adults to explore a call to ordained ministry in Georgia.

The Young Clergy Academy, through GBHEM’s Young Clergy Initiative Grant, funds long-term internship opportunities which allow young adults to be immersed in a vocational ministry setting. In these settings interns experience the rhythm of ministry, engage in vocational discernment with an assigned mentor, and develop leadership skills for effective ministry in the life of the local church. Interns shadow mentors in local churches and engage in pastoral care, worship planning, church meetings, staff meetings, teaching, preaching, and leadership in small and large group settings.

While the primary benefit of the Young Clergy Academy is vocational discernment for young adults, the Young Clergy Academy also serves as a vehicle for local churches to identify young adults who are discerning a call to ministry and give them a meaningful way to work out their call. In this way, the Young Clergy Academy is creating healthier and stronger churches throughout Georgia.

Since 2015, 25 young adults have participated in the Young Clergy Academy. These individuals have taken next steps into the ordination process, taken on full-time and part-time ministry positions, enrolled in seminary, and begun serving in lay ministry positions in the life of the church. Their experiences as interns in the Young Clergy Academy have given them a deep understanding of the joys and rigors of ministry, as well as a safe place to discern where God is calling them to serve in the life of the church.

To help a young adult apply for the Young Clergy Academy, simply direct them to youngclergyacademy.com. Applications for the 2020-2021 class of the YCA will begin being accepted on January 1, 2020. Thank you and God bless,

Jonathan Smith, Chair
Young Clergy Academy
The Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) supports those on the journey toward ordination and encourages clergy to fulfill living their call meaningfully. In addition to interviewing potential candidates for ordained ministry, the BOM cultivates new candidates for ordination, nurtures provisional members of the conference through residency programs, and requires education of all clergy.

At various times, the BOM emphasizes different aspects of its work. Continuing Education is a point of emphasis at this time. The North Georgia Conference requires full-time, Full Connection Clergy to earn 6.0 CEUs per Quadrennium. One CEU is awarded for every 10 hours of classroom instruction. In addition, the BOM has worked with the Office of Clergy Effectiveness to promote ACE^2 (pronounced ACE squared), a self-directed education program designed to give clergy broad discretion in creating learning experiences. The program encourages creation of non-traditional educational events, such as visiting a former leper colony and exploring healing and wholeness with therapists who treated 9/11 rescue personnel and with marine biologists who nurture injured wildlife to health. Participants then integrate the principles learned into their ministry setting.

In 2018, the BOM, Clergy Executive Session, and Bishop agreed to enforce the educational requirements for Local Pastors through the Course of Study. Part-time Local Pastors must complete two courses a year and Full-time Local Pastors must complete four courses a year. Local pastors not making satisfactory progress must apply for an extension citing extenuating circumstances, or they will be discontinued from the office by action of Executive Session. The District Committees on Ministry and the BOM granted grace where hardships existed but removed Local Pastors who simply chose not to meet the educational requirements.

Glenn Ethridge
Chairperson, Board of Ordained Ministry

The purpose of the Fellowship of Local Pastor and Associate Members is to provide support, love, and encouragement to each other through the promotion of self-care and spiritual growth, and to create a sense of unity and fellowship. The fellowship will serve all Local Pastors, Associate Members, and the Board of Ordained Ministry as an advisory resource group on needs and issues of Local Pastors and Associate Members. It will serve as a voice for Local Pastors and Associate Members in the North Georgia Annual Conference, will sponsor retreat time, and will encourage small group participation with all clergy on the district level.

The Fellowship of Licensed Local Pastors and Associate Members has placed before the Equitable Compensation Committee for consideration, at this time, the equitable salaries for Part Time Local Pastors.
The 2018 – 2019 Annual Conference year has been one of recommitment, rededication and reconnection.

Engaging in continuing education for ministry, personal development, and spiritual growth in order to lead the church in fulfilling the mission of making disciples for Jesus Christ continues to be our focus. The “one point” e-mail connection for NGUMC Local Pastors continues to be used to share information regarding Course of Study updates and periodically sending words of encouragement.

The Fellowship is elated to announce our Course of Study graduate this year:

David Burchett.

It is the goal of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members to continue to serve North Georgia Conference with quality pastoral leadership in all the churches to which we are appointed.

As always, we are thankful to our North Georgia Conference for the pleasure to serve.

YoLanda Jones-Colton, Chair
North Georgia Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members

200.b. Order of Deacons

Deacons connect the church and the world through word, service, compassion and justice.

The Order of Deacons exists to support and hold accountable its members for the sake of the life and mission of the church. One of the strengths of our connectional system is the recognition that we are called to different purposes and equipped with different gifts.

Deacons serve in a variety of appointments that represent the breadth and depth of our callings and gifts. You will find North Georgia Deacons appointed to local churches, non-profit organizations, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, college campuses, hospitals, Connectional Ministries, Global Ministries, and much more.

Over the past year Deacons have met for fellowship and education. In the fall of 2018 we met at Global Ministries for our Day Apart to focus on leading through times of anxiety. In February we gathered virtually for a prayer call via Zoom to pray for General Conference.

How will we know when we have enough deacons?

When all the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable are met.
When to gather the gifts of the church and take them to the world – and to gather needs of the world and bring them to the church – has become a habit.

When Deacons, going back and forth, have worn down the boundary lines that we use to keep church and world separated.
When Deacons, leading the baptized in and out,
1 have beaten a path between the altar and the gutter
2 so that everyone will see the link between 3 the Blood in our chalices and the blood in our streets.
When all people respond to the challenge to live,
5 not in love of power but in the power of love…

Poem by the Ven. Irma Wyman

Shannon Karafanda
Chair of the Order of Deacons

200.c. Order of Elders

The Order of Elders exists to support and hold accountable its members for the sake of the development of the church. As we strive to live in a covenant of mutual care and accountability, we are exploring ways to provide support and fellowship for the Order. It is our belief that covenant relationship among colleagues strengthens the life and ministry of the church and aids in the nurturing of our relationship with God.

The primary task for the year was to work with the Eight-Year Assessment committee to develop training and continuing education opportunities for clergy, entitled Growing “U.”
Growing “U” honors all those who have been ordained in The United Methodist Church to a lifetime of service in ministry and will provide professional development through recognition, renewal, reflection, and rekindling to equip all pastors as they move to the next level of their ministry. More information regarding this may be found in the report of the Center for Clergy Excellence. We also worked with the pastoral transition and expense committee to study best options and make recommendations regarding move day and moving expenses.

It has been a pleasure to serve as the chair of the Order of Elders. I look forward to engaging the executive committee to discern and employ meaningful ways to come together for support, encouragement, vocational and spiritual growth for the Order.

Yvette D. Massey, Chairperson

200.d. The Center for Clergy Excellence

The Center for Clergy Excellence exists to support the work of Bishop Haupert-Johnson, her cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry. “From birth of call to the entrance into the final eternal appointment,” the Center for Clergy Excellence strives to empower the work of the clergy of North Georgia Conference.

We are producing videos and resources for a Culture of Call within our Conference.
With the collaborative work of a dedicated team, a culture of a call to licensed and ordained ministry is being trumpeted. Every church is asked to have a “Call Sunday” where the words of Isaiah may be declared again, “Here am I, send me.”

The Candidacy Summit and Group Mentoring occurs with the guidance of the Center for Clergy Excellence allowing inquirers space to discern this call with dedicated and wise mentors.

Guiding and supplying of District Committees on Ordained Ministry with the needed tools, the Center for Clergy Excellence offers training and support for those who help to discern the call and provide direction for the road ahead. The dCOMs are a vital part of the Board of Ordained Ministry and provide excellent conversation with those seeking Licensing or Ordination.

The Center for Clergy Excellence is also involved in immigration for non-US citizens seeking to be pastors in North Georgia. With the support of the Cabinet and dCOMs, this painstaking work moves forward to ensure we meet all the legal requirements. We offer support and counseling for those who may have issues with debt and financial planning as they enter ministry. We in the Center for Clergy Excellence prayerfully work to be of assistance to all the orders: Licensed Local Pastors, Deacons, and Elders. Each is a sacred calling, and each is equal in our understanding. We are privileged to show appreciation for our retired clergy with events of fellowship and support. The launching of the Shepherd’s Fund has given many retirees and spouses the gift of freedom from financial worry due to health-related expenses.

Finally, we continue to maintain all personal and supervisory records of all candidates and clergy in a secure program called E-Bridge. These records are securely held for 25 years after the death of the clergyperson.

Goals: 2020 will see us launch the Eight Year Assessment or as we will call it in North Georgia “Growing U.” While this is mandated by the 2016 Book of Discipline, we are working to make it an exciting experience for our clergy on the eighth anniversary of their ordination. Self-directed and at no cost to the clergy, Growing U will be a time for restoration of the clergy for another eight years. This will begin in June of 2020.

Life Long Learning will be an extremely high priority for our office. We will work with the Board of Ordained Ministry in setting high standards and quality learning opportunities for our clergy. We will build on ACE^2, The Preaching Cohort, Generative Clergywomen’s Cohort and other challenging Life Long Learning opportunities.

We will continue to work with the District Committees on Ordained Ministry and the Board of Ordained Ministry to standardize and streamline the process for licensing, commissioning, and ordination. We will review our Residency In Ministry Program giving careful attention to the guidelines set by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry to make the time invested by the provisional candidates fruitful and fresh.

I again state my gratitude and deep appreciation to Michelle Levan my Assistant Director and Sara Armstrong, my Administrative Assistant, for the tireless work and compassion given to the work of the Center for Clergy Excellence. They and all those we have the privilege to work with truly make it excellent.

Dana Everhart
Director for the Center of Clergy Excellence
201. Conference Communications Office

The conference communications office leads North Georgia’s communications, marketing, and public relations efforts. Conference communications priorities are set by our mission as United Methodists, considering the needs of local churches, conference departments and conference ministries in North Georgia.

Communications staff serve in a consultative role to conference offices, districts, agencies and local churches.

Using the conference website, e-newsletters, social media, and videos, our goals are to inform, celebrate, and equip North Georgia United Methodists.

With more than 30,000 visits each month, the conference website (www.ngumc.org) is the place for clergy and church leaders to turn for news, information, the conference calendar, and resources.

Church leaders are encouraged to subscribe to our conference newsletters. “Weekly Conference Update” is e-mailed on Thursdays and includes news, featured resources, and upcoming events. The daily Annual Conference and General Conference newsletters offer a wrap-up of important news and information from our North Georgia perspective. Consider subscribing to district newsletters and ministry-focused newsletters like Youth Ministry News and Disaster Response Updates. Sign up by clicking “Subscribe Now” at ngumc.org.

Social media is another important avenue for connecting to information and inspiration from the North Georgia Conference. Thousands of North Georgia United Methodists are part of the community on Facebook (www.facebook.com/ngaumc), Twitter (@connectNGUMC), and Instagram (@NGUMC). The Conference recently began using Vimeo to share videos in an easy-to-download format. Just search “North Georgia Conference” on vimeo.com.

Each of these tools – from the information on the website to newsletter content to social media posts to videos – are available for congregations to use. Simply credit the source and writer, and use in your church’s context.

The conference communications director is available when a church experiences a media crisis or potential crisis—in other words, something that threatens the reputation of the church, pastor, or the members. Alongside your church leaders and district superintendent, the communications office can help craft a response plan and offer support.

Your conference communications office serves as a connection point as we live into our prayer that we may be “one with each other.”

Sybil Davidson
Conference Communicator

202. Committee on Episcopacy

We are proud of our Bishop. Bishop Sue continues to lead our conference with integrity and passion during challenging times for the larger United Methodist Church. Her emphasis on unity in Christ and steadfastness to our mission of making disciples has helped provide needed direction to our conference. She has called the church to be one with Christ, one with each other and one in ministry to all the world. She has lived out this statement each day in her leadership. In the midst of heated debate at the 2019 General Conference, she has called the local churches to stay focused on disciple-making.

She continues to gather with clergy and laity in clusters to hear their excitement for ministry and concerns. Her appointments are bearing fruit as she has encouraged her cabinet to consider demographics that surround churches as they appoint clergy.

We are thankful she has set an example for clergy and laity through her spiritual disciplines of scripture reading and devotion. She models good self-care through a rigorous exercise program. We are excited for her daughter Samantha who is graduating high school this year and is preparing for college in the fall. We are thankful for her husband Allen and his fruitful work at Winters Chapel UMC.

God has blessed our conference with a wonderful Bishop. We believe God has good things in store for us in the future through her leadership.

Will Zant, Chair

203. Statistician Team

For the pastors and churches of the North Georgia Annual Conference, the month of January is the season for completing the End-of-Year Report for the previous year. This year the season ran from January 10 – January 31. There were several changes this year as a fourth table was added for the Pastor’s report. As churches submitted their data, the District Statisticians verified each church within their district. Once all our churches were verified, Michael Murphy-McCarthy submitted our information to the General Conference Finance and Administration. Once all the data is compiled and summarized it provides the annual conference valuable information which reveals various trends in our churches, districts and the conference. Additionally, a church’s answers to questions 39, and 41-47 of Table II are used to calculate the apportionments for that individual church.

The following report is based on the data reported this past January for 2018.

- The North Georgia Conference had its highest membership reported in 2013 at 363,383. At the close of 2017 we had 357,015 members. This number for 2018 was 353,110 which is a net loss of 3,905 members or a decrease of 1% as compared to 2017.

- The highest average worship attendance per Sunday for the conference was reported in 2006 at 136,148. The number for 2017 was 107,203. The average worship attendance for 2018 was 105,053. This reduction of 2,150 reflects a 2% decrease in average worship attendance.

- The total number of persons who worshiped online in 2017 was 15,788 and this number increased to 21,755 in 2018 reflecting an increase of 38%.

- In 2017 we had 4,627 Professions of Faith and 388 Restored by Affirmation of Faith for a total of 5,015. In 2018 we had 4,006 Professions of faith and 353 Restored by Affirmation of Faith for a total of 4,359. This is a reduction of 621 and reflects a 13% decrease.
The total number of community ministries for outreach, justice, and mercy offered by the local church increased from 4,181 in 2017 to 4,990 in 2018, which is an increase of 809 and reflects a 19% increase.

In 2017 we experienced a great increase in the total given for General Advance Specials remitted to the Annual Conference. In 2018 the number came back down closer to the 2016 number. The 2018 amount is $419,800. This was a decrease of $794,455 and reflects a decrease of 65%.

Methodist benevolent and charitable causes raising the 2018 total to $15,162,378.
The completed 2018 statistical report and previous years going back to 2001 are available for each church, District, and the North Georgia Conference at www.ngumc.org/eoy.

I would like to thank all the District Statisticians, Michael Murphy-McCarthy, Keeancha Hawkins, Keith Cox, and the District Superintendents for all their help with this large project. Finally, I want to thank all the pastors, staff and laity of the churches of the Annual Conference who gathered, entered and submitted their information in a timely fashion.

Charles E. Broome, Conference Statistician

204. North Georgia Conference Housing and Homeless Council

The purpose of the Housing and Homeless Council (HHC) is to support those who are serving our neighbors in need, specifically through the administering of capital and operational grants. The Council is an administrative agency of the North Georgia Conference and is made up of lay and clergy representatives from each district, at-large members, and ex-officio representatives.

The Council awards grants twice a year to churches and non-profit agencies across North Georgia who provide housing and other essential services to persons experiencing homelessness and poverty. From 1990 through 2018, the HHC has awarded grants totaling $5,004,226. Council members conduct site visits to each applicant and make recommendations to the Council for funding.

During 2018, the HHC awarded grants in total of $148,470 ($104,000 in capital and $44,470 in operational). Grants were awarded to ministries in each of our twelve districts, to ministries of varying size and scope. Homeless Offering funds which come in after grants are distributed in November are added to the next year’s grants.

The theme of the 2018 Homeless Offering was “I will Hold your People in My Heart” and was collected on February 25, 2018. One hundred percent of the Homeless Offering goes to ministries serving those experiencing poverty and homelessness. Total 2018 offering receipts were $139,171. The Housing Trust Fund, held with the Georgia United Methodist Foundation, ended the year with a value of $1,377,880.90.

We are continuously inspired by the incredible ministry taking place around our conference and consider it an honor to offer financial support to organizations and programs who are walking alongside our neighbors in need each day. If your congregation is discerning a way to be in mission in your community, we would love to talk with you and offer support. We are always pleased to hear from new projects, so we hope you’ll consider partnering in ministry with us.

We are grateful to the many churches who contribute to our Homeless Offering and would love to add your congregation to that list! Any contribution to the Homeless Offering can make a tremendous difference in your community – we have seen your gifts at work in North Georgia, and your continued support will allow this important ministry to continue.

The Conference Board of Trustees (CBOT) provides oversight of properties and other assets that are entrusted to us for the benefit of the Annual Conference following The Discipline of our church. We seek for transparency and accountability in all ways possible as we oversee various initiatives and programs through assets and report these to the Annual Conference (AC) and the AC leadership.

The property management relationship with Norton Commercial, begun at the direction of the 2017 Annual Conference continues to bear fruit. Benefits from the relationship include freeing district superintendents and other AC leadership from the responsibility of the details for real estate supervision and sales while maintaining accountability to the CBOT. Norton, on our behalf, has facilitated the sale of 14 properties since July 1, 2017 (total sale value of $10,901,166). As of March 15, 2019, we have 9 listed properties for sale with an aggregate “Broker’s Opinion of Value” (BOV) of $2,837,000. Of those 9 properties, 5 are currently under contract with an aggregate contract value of $2,185,000.

The Trustees continue the oversight of the Wesley Campership Fund. For 2018 the trustees approved an increased expenditure to $113,000 from the Wesley Campership Fund for the North Georgia Camp and Retreat Ministries (NGCRM). In 2018 the Wesley Campership Fund used $74,500 for camperships for 227 children in North Georgia by the North Georgia Camp and Retreat Ministries. The expenditure also included $38,500 for ELI Leadership awards that went unfunded for 77 ELI leaders in 2018. The ELI funds, while not need-based, provided an award for attracting young leaders and thereby building the capacity of NGCRM for the future. The fund balance as of 12/31/2018 in the Wesley Campership Fund was $2,402,877.

As described last year at AC, a Relocation Committee has begun working with an architect/planner, Jim Winer, to counsel the CBOT for a permanent location of the future UM Center. Our current UM Center lease terminates in March 2023. Members of this committee include Jane Brooks (Executive Assistant to the Bishop), chair; CBOT representatives Julie Childs and Bert Neal; John Pinson, district superintendent appointed by Bishop Sue Haupert-Johnson; Bill Martin, conference lay leader; and Jim Winer, consultant.

The Trustees also reported last year the naming of a “Windfall Committee” which has begun to work collaboratively to make recommendations to the Council on Finance and Administration and the AC for the use of proceeds from the sale of very valuable properties. Currently sales of property under the control of the districts result in 75% of the net proceeds going to the district and 25% to the Charles Barnes Fund. Properties sold have already resulted in great disparities of assets held by districts. Given the disparities in real estate valuations in the Conference, the reality and the potential exists for some districts to continue to accumulate large sums of investable assets while others do not have such large sums. At the direction of the Windfall Committee, the auditing firm produced a summary of assets held by each district. Part of many districts’ assets include a parsonage account where a parsonage has been sold and a housing allowance is provided. These parsonage account assets need to be understood as restricted funds. But it is the recommendation of the Windfall Committee that an amount be provided for each district to draw from. Those on this committee include Bill Burch, chair of CFA; Keith Cox; Phil Schroeder; John Simmons; and Jane Brooks. This committee will continue to make recommendations to the Trustees and then consult with CFA before making future recommendations to Annual Conference. Please review District Funds worksheet, the flowchart and draft process which follows this report.

The trustees continue to provide oversight of the E.R. Park Medical Mission Fund and the Louise D. Park Eye Fund. The E.R. Park Medical Mission Fund can be accessed through the Conference Director of Administrative Services. While both funds are underutilized, the Park Eye Fund is particularly underutilized and has grown in accumulated income to $850,000. After years of encouraging churches and clergy to take advantage of the Park Eye Fund, the trustees acknowledge that the Fund needs to partner with an agency or agencies who have to expertise to administer the ongoing usage of this asset. As the Louise D. Park Will stipulates, such an agency will be able to identify patients “in definite need of financial assistance in order to secure the indicated treatment of the disorder of the eye or eyes which would result in blindness if such treatment were not otherwise available.” The trustees propose entering a relationship with the Emory Eye Center for specific programs that will fulfill the original intent of the Park Eye Fund. A draft of the Park Eye Fund follows this report for Annual Conference information. The trustees propose contributing $25,000 to the Infant Aphakia Services and Treatment Support and $15,000 to the Glaucoma Drug Assistance Fund in 2019.

In November 2018, Keith Cox called a “cell tower summit” for the purpose of explaining to the conference and to carriers about the potential for church property to have future cell towers. This meeting included two NGA district superintendents, one district trustee chair, chair of the CBOT, Keith Cox and his South Georgia Conference equivalent, a Steeplecom representative, a cell tower construction representative, and representatives from ATT, Sprint and Verizon. Steeplecom is the agent approved by the General Council on Finance and Administration for those churches desiring a cell tower. The Steeplecom representative brought to our attention that every United Methodist church cell tower contract that he has reviewed is not in compliance with The Discipline. According to paragraphs 2540 for unincorporated churches and 2541 for incorporated churches, any contract by a local church of more than 30 days in length which involves “sale, transfer, lease, or mortgage” of church properties, including consecutive 30-day contracts and leases, need the district superintendent and Charge Conference approval. If local churches are contacted as a site for cell towers, the CBOT strongly recommends contacting Steeplecom and following The Discipline. Using Steeplecom is the cell tower equivalent to the CBOT using Norton as our real estate professionals.

Thank you for the trust you have placed with us as we strive to be good stewards of a portion of our Conference’s resources.

John Simmons, Chair

The North Georgia Conference of the United Methodist Church 2/5/2019

The Louise D. Park Eye Fund was established for “the treatment of patients who are in definite need of financial assistance in order to secure the indicated treatment of disorders of the eye or eyes which would result in blindness if such treatment were not otherwise available.” After many years of encouraging United Methodist churches and clergy to take advantage of this fund, the Conference Board of Trustees recognizes that neither churches, clergy or the North Georgia Conference are utilizing this fund in a significant and meaningful way. The Park Eye Fund has an accumulated income available for use. The Conference Board of Trustees is not in the business of administering grants, evaluating applicants for fund use, or able to make medical decisions in a way that meets the intended purpose of the fund. But the trustees desire to be good stewards of these funds.

The trustees will allocate funds to a third-party agency (or agencies) that does have the expertise to administer and use these funds for the intended purpose. The trustees will allocate funds to the agency on an annual or more frequent basis in accordance with a request for funding and an agreement entered into with the agency. The agency will identify needs that are within the intent of the established purpose of the Park Eye Fund. If the trustees agree that the needs are within the intent of the trust and the funds are reasonable, the trustees can approve an amount or adjust the amount of funds allocated as the trustees deem appropriate. The trustees would receive a report verifying use of the funds that have been allocated. Expenditures and results will be reported to the Conference.

The trustees are in discussion with the Emory Eye Center which provides vision care to indigent patients. They have proposed two programs— the Infant Aphakia Services and Treatment Support and the Glaucoma Drug Assistance Fund.

The Infant Aphakia Services and Treatment Support involves infants born without an eye lens. The lens of the eye is a clear, flexible structure that allows the eye to focus. Some babies are born without an eye lens(es). It is important that babies with aphakia to have surgery as soon as possible because their eyes develop very quickly. The absence of a lens causes irreversible changes in the visual system if not treated quickly. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that babies with congenital aphakia begin treatment when they are about a month old. They can receive an artificial surgical lens implant after they are about a year of age. Before the baby’s first year, special contact lenses are required to be placed on the baby’s eyes daily. However, when the baby starts moving around, the lens may pop out and become lost. Therefore, within the first year, the parents may need to obtain multiple replacement contacts. Some families have limited or no insurance to cover the cost of the lenses or even replacement lenses. Assistance is needed for families who have no or limited insurance for lenses, surgery, and/or surgical facility charges. The Emory Eye Center will share results of cumulative patient treatments, outcomes and the corresponding costs assumed by the Louise D. Park Eye Fund charged, with the trustees who will report to the Conference. The trustees anticipate costs based on current Medicare/Medicaid rates for services performed, surgery, and office visits (that occur outside the usual global period). The Emory Eye Center will provide contact lenses, fittings and replacements to eligible patients at cost. The payment by the Fund will be considered payment in full and the patient shall not be charged for any balance remaining between usual charges and amount received after payment from the Fund.

The Glaucoma Drug Assistance Fund involves providing expensive daily drop-delivered medication for the potential blinding disease of glaucoma. A patient who is elderly, infirm, or having certain disabilities that might make it difficult to administer drops correctly, is at risk of running out of the drops before month’s end. The one-month supply of drops that Medicare covers is often not enough to allow for dosage errors or lost medication. In addition, some of the only effective glaucoma drugs are not covered by insurance or Medicare, resulting in out-of-pocket costs ranging in price between $300 and $400 a month.
Therefore, patients on limited or fixed income often go without medication for significant periods of time, and their glaucoma may worsen as a result. The Glaucoma Drug Assistance Fund is a resource for these patients to obtain additional drops to prevent further visual loss.
The Emory Eye Center will share information with the trustees on how prescriptions were distributed to patients in need and the trustees will report to the Conference. Drugs will be paid for from the Fund at cost for financially needy patients.

Pooling Proceeds of Closed Church Properties 2/12/19 DRAFT

Context:
Since 2005, net proceeds from the sales of virtually all closed church real estate assets have been distributed 75% to the District in which the asset was physically located with the remaining 25% being deposited in the Barnes Fund for Church Development (“Barnes”).

Due the fact that metro districts will, all other factors being equal, have more opportunity to financially benefit from closed church sales than non-metro districts, an inequitable distribution of available development funds has occurred. For example, a recent sale of a metro church netted $2.3M for the district itself. The largest sale of a non-metro closed church (closing later in February 2019) in many years will net $550K for that district.

The “Windfall Committee,” a construct of the Conference Board of Trustees is attempting to develop a system and process that will provide an opportunity for all districts to be able to have equitable access to the funds derived from the sales of closed church properties. Assumptions/constraints follow.

Assumptions:
1. Each district office should maintain a small pool of funds to facilitate district-specific initiatives. For example, some districts provide small funding amounts for repairs at some of the local churches and there may be other ad hoc needs that arise for which district-managed and controlled funds could be accessed. The threshold amounts could be established with input from the Cabinet but could be in the $50K-100K range.

2. Remaining investments will have already been transitioned to centralized management via GUMF. This will occur in 2019.

3. Investment corpus and accumulated earnings related to closed church sales will have been identified as of a date certain (to be determined).
4. Funds identified in (3) will be moved to Barnes, taking item (1) into account.
5. A “multidisciplinary” group will be identified and authorized to oversee the use of the Barnes Fund. This group may include members of the Board of Congregational Development, Cabinet, et.al.

Process:

1. District Strategic Growth Team and other appropriate groups/personnel will identify an opportunity for congregational development, new or existing.
2. An application will be completed to request a Barnes Fund grant to support (1)
3. The application will be submitted to the group identified as part of number (5) in the “Assumptions” category.
4. Upon approval, GUMF will be issued instructions by the Conference Treasurer to distribute funds from Barnes to the respective district.
5. Time Frame target - 60 days from application submission to funds disbursement.

During the annual conference/fiscal year, the use of the fund can be monitored based on reporting from the districts so that modifications and revisions can occur as indicated.
206. North Georgia Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits

206.a. Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report

The Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefits works closely with Wespath Benefits & Investments (formerly known as the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits) to provide pensions, welfare plans, and health insurance. Since 1982 clergy pension & welfare plans have been denominational plans as directed by General Conference. Health insurance is provided at the discretion of the annual conferences.

The North Georgia Conference (NGC) elects to cover clergy appointed half time or greater in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the current denominational pension plan. Active and retired clergy may be covered by CRSP, the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), and/or the Pre-82 plan, depending on when their service in the pastorate occurred. As a result of action at the 2016 General Conference, we now cover appointed ordained clergy at ¾ time or greater in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP), the denominational welfare plan, which provides both disability coverage and death benefits. Churches or employers with clergy covered by these plans are direct billed monthly by the NGC for the cost of these plans.

In 2018, the Annual Conference approved the “auto enrollment with auto escalator” feature of UMPIP to ensure that all our clergy take advantage of the UMPIP program. In 2019 we began this plan which included all clergy who had not opted out of the program automatically being enrolled in the program with 1% of their compensation going into the UMPIP plan. Clergy can choose to opt in to a higher or lower percentage as this program just ensures that the clergy are making an election each year for this program. In 2020, every clergy member who has not opted out will have their election increased by one percentage point. This includes clergy who had made a higher or lower election in the prior year. In order to not have the amount increase, the clergy member would have to actively make an election as opposed to having the prior year amount roll forward.

For active full-time clergy and full-time conference lay employees, the NGC mandates participation in the HealthFlex Exchange offered by Wespath. This exchange consists of 6 medical plans, 3 dental plans, and 3 vision plans; attendant Health Reimbursement Accounts or Health Savings Accounts, as applicable; Medical Reimbursement Accounts; and Dependent Care Accounts. Wespath provides robust wellness initiatives and decision support tools to help participants make wise choices.

Active health coverage is direct billed to churches monthly. For 2020 the participant cost of the “B1000” PPO plan will increase 4%. Those participants choosing the B1000 plan will be responsible for that incremental cost. All other plans’ premium costs will remain unchanged from 2019.

Eligible retired clergy and Conference lay employees receive a Health Reimbursement Account administered by ViaHealth (formerly OneExchange), a product of Willis Towers Watson. Participants must buy Medicare Part B supplements and Part D plans through ViaHealth. The NGC provides a graduated annual amount for reimbursement based on service years. This arrangement has helped reduce retiree medical costs while providing flexibility and security for clergy. Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) rates are as follows:

Please note that the funded status of our benefits plans as of 12/31/2018 is very sound, with both the pre-1982 pension plan and the retiree medical plan reflecting “fully funded” status. Further, our ongoing benefits programs for active participants (CRSP, CPP, Healthflex) remain funded on a current year basis via the direct billing to churches.

We have recommended, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration has included in its recommended 2020 budget, an apportionment for pre-1982. Volatility in investment markets, combined with variances in actual mortality experience versus actuarially estimated mortality experience, can affect the funded status of that plan; therefore, these continued apportionments ensure that we maintain the “fully funded” status.

The cost of clergy on medical leave with disability benefits continues to rise, as reflected in the increasing budgets for disability premiums. We have 13 clergy receiving CPP benefits as of December 31, 2018. The CPP plan pays 70% of plan compensation plus CRSP DC pension contributions. The conference pays for the medical plan and CRSP DB pension benefit. While the conference board is tasked with caring for these folks, we would ask that you reach out to those in your community and pray for those who are not.

Please review the Comprehensive Benefits Funding Plan available at Annual Conference.

206.b. 2019 Recommendations of the North Georgia Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

Recurring:

1. That the 2020 annuity rate for each year of service rendered by our clergypersons prior to 1982 (aka the PSR) be set at $724.
2. That the Annual Conference approves the 2020 Comprehensive Funding Plan recommended by the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits.
3. That the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Adoption Agreement with the Wespath Benefits & Investments cover clergy appointed ½ time or greater for 2020.
4. That the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) Adoption Agreement with Wespath Benefits & Investments cover provisional and ordained clergy at ¾ time or greater for 2020.
5. That the “ViaBenefits” (formerly OneExchange) Health Reimbursement Rates for retired clergy remain the same (see 2018 Journal p. 365-366).
6. That the $10,000 benefit payment for the death of full-time active clergy covered by CPP remain in effect for 2020.
7. That the Conference continue the UMPIP “Auto enrollment with auto escalation” features of the WesPath UMPIP program for clergy.

New for 2020:

1. That all participant premiums for the HealthFlex private exchange health insurance program be established as follows:
   - B1000 plan-limited to 4% increase versus 2019
   - All other options-no increase versus 2019.
   (The limitation on changes in rates will be absorbed by the “Current Benefits Reserve”, which is $11,000,000 as of 12/31/18. Total expenses absorbed by the reserve from this recommendation will be approximately $300,000.)

2. That the amounts billed to churches for clergy health insurance be changed to a flat rate of $1,250 per month as opposed to the tiered amounts based on membership.

3. That effective July 1, 2020 for clergy ordained in another Annual Conference who subsequently transfer into the North Georgia, the funding amounts for participating in the North Georgia Conference’s Via Benefits program (see 2018 Journal p. 365-366) for these clergy will be predicated solely on their number of years’ service while appointed to: UM churches, District Offices, or UM Center ministries in the North Georgia Episcopal area, and/or agencies related to the North Georgia Conference, as specified by formal Statements of Relationship published in the Annual Conference Journal.

4. That group life insurance, with $50,000 coverage, for lay staff employed by the Conference be added to the existing Conference lay long-term disability plan with UNUM.
Opinion on North Georgia Conference 2020 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

The funding plan meets the standards for a Pre-82 funding plan as established by Wespath Benefits and Investments and the favorable opinion requirements for a funding plan. Note: The statement above and any written opinion provided by Wespath do not imply any representation as to the ability or probability of the applicable plan sponsor to fulfill the obligations included in the funding plan.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007.

CRSP consists of two components:

- A defined benefit (DB) plan—provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church
- A defined contribution (DC) plan—provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

1) Years of service with pension credit—approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.

2) The conference pension rate (past service rate)—the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the PSR, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit. At that point, the clergy’s benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy’s benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM-based benefit does not change.

207. Commission on Equitable Compensation Guidelines

The report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) recognizes the importance of the work of clergy and the necessity of dependable remuneration, especially for clergy appointed to positions of minimum compensation. Our call is from God, and as leaders in our churches it is appropriate that guidelines for both compensation and housing be clearly defined for both the church and the clergy so that we can work together and without confusion in our responsibilities for and to each other.

Four years ago salary comparisons with other conferences in our region identified that minimum salaries in the North Georgia Conference were 8% - 11% below the Southeastern Jurisdictional average. In the past three years, the CEC has gradually increased minimum compensation for full-time clergy appointments. These efforts have brought our conference into alignment with other conferences in our jurisdiction. Going forward these will be reviewed on an ongoing basis to avoid this issue in the future. Detailed numbers of minimum compensation for each category of clergy may be found in the full report.

Although we have established minimum salaries for full-time clergy, it has come to our attention that there is no basic guideline or minimum salary for Part Time Local Pastors (PTLP) which has led to significant discrepancies in salaries among this group of clergy. In an effort to resolve this issue and provide equity among our PTLP, the CEC is making a recommendation of a minimum of both hours and compensation for this group of clergy. We understand that the establishment of these changes will affect about 50 of our smallest churches. However, we feel this is an appropriate and fair response to this inequity.

This year the CEC is not proposing an increase in Minimum Compensation for our Full Time Clergy. We know that many churches have not increased salaries for their staff or clergy in the last year or two. We do suggest, based on current trends that indicate a growing economy, that churches consider a salary increase of at least 2.9% for their clergy in 2020.

One of our primary areas of focus is to award grants to assist in funding clergy compensation for churches that are experiencing difficult times. In addition, we will be working with the District Superintendents as they identify missional churches that provide either a unique ministry or a United Methodist presence otherwise lacking in the community.

In addition to direct grants, we continue to monitor and identify those churches that receive grant funding because they are not fully funding their pastor’s compensation due to less than full payment of their pastor’s pension and insurance premiums in the previous calendar year. As a reminder to our churches, please fund these items before submitting apportionment payments as this exacerbates an arrearage situation. All churches affected either by direct grant or arrearage situations are listed in the detailed report to the annual conference.

Kathy Lamon, Chair
Equitable Compensation Guidelines

Paragraph 625.1 of The 2016 Book of Discipline provides that in each annual conference there shall be a commission on equitable compensation. The purpose of this commission is found in ¶625.2, where it states: “It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. For pastors receiving equitable compensation, once the base compensation supplementation has been paid by the annual conference, and the minimum base compensation and base compensation supplementation has been received by the pastor, the annual conference shall have no further financial obligation or responsibility to the pastor, the charge or anyone else regarding the pastor's compensation.”

How this purpose is to be carried out can be found in the balance of ¶625.3-13. These guidelines detail how the North Georgia Conference will strive to accomplish this disciplinary task.

Conference Arrearage Policy

Paragraph 624 of The 2016 Book of Discipline, entitled Payment Obligation, amended and gave new language to explain the steps that should be taken when a church or charge is unable to pay any portion of the pastor(s)’s Full Compensation when due. Paragraph 624.2 allows each annual conference to establish an arrearage policy to deal with the situations that arise or have arisen in the past. Paragraph 625.2.d. entitled Equitable Compensation, also references the conference arrearage policy. Paragraph 624.1 states: “Each church or charge has an obligation to pay the base compensation, the benefits adopted by the annual conference, and other ministerial support (including housing) adopted by the charge conference, to its pastor(s). If it becomes apparent that a church or charge will be unable to so provide the base compensation, support, and benefits adopted by the charge conference, the church or charge SPRC chair, finance chair, or treasurer, shall immediately notify, both in writing and verbally, the pastor, district superintendent, and congregation. This communication shall indicate all avenues explored to meet the base compensation, support, and benefits, including requesting consideration for a short-term emergency subsidy grant from the Equitable Compensation Fund (¶625.7)”

The Commission on Equitable Compensation proposes that the North Georgia Annual Conference approve the following Arrearage Policy in accordance with ¶624.2 and ¶625.2.d of The 2016 Book of Discipline.

Arrearage Policy:

Any church that is unable to pay its pastor(s)’s salary and/or benefits when due must notify the appropriate district superintendent within 24 hours of making that determination. Notification can include telephone call and/or email. Upon receipt of such notice, the district superintendent will notify the Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation of the issue for its expeditious disposition.

Further, churches or charges with full-time clergy which are in arrears to the annual conference with respect to benefits payments (pension and insurance) will be reported in the annual conference Handbook and Journal as “churches receiving equitable compensation.” These specific churches or charges will be reported based on the following methodology:

1. If the total balance due as of December 31 of the current year is greater than the total balance due as of December 31 of the previous year by an amount exceeding a two months invoice amount, said church or charge will be reported as a church or charge having received Equitable Compensation Funds.

2. The amount recorded in the report will equate to the total difference between this year’s total balance due and last year’s total balance due.

3. Churches with benefits arrearage who pay their pastor(s) above minimum cash compensation have 18 months from January 1, 2019 to pay the previous year benefits in full or reduce base salary to the conference minimum cash compensation.

207.e. Conference Pastors Payment

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends all pastors be paid in advance. This alleviates undue hardship on pastors and their families from a salary delay when appointed to a new appointment. Furthermore, any payment(s) due to the conference office or other designated office(s) for the pastor(s)’s pension and insurance is to be paid at the first of each month so as to be in compliance with ¶624.1 and the conference’s arrearage policy. Since pension payments and insurance premiums are part of the financial support package, these should be paid prior to the payment of conference apportionments in the event the church financial condition will not allow for full payment of both.

207.f. Conference Standards for Pastoral Support

The following items are to be included in the definition of full clergy financial support for 2020:

1. Base compensation, which includes cash compensation payments, payments to cover or assist personal Social Security taxes of the pastor and any other cash benefits paid to the pastor.

2. Annual conference pension plan payments and life and health insurance premiums.

3. Provision for a parsonage or a housing allowance.

4. Reimbursement for travel/business expenses and continuing education, and any other expenses as may be required by the annual conference.

Note: Base compensation may be divided into salary and a utilities/furnishings allowance to minimize a pastor’s tax liability. Local churches should be familiar with Internal Revenue Service requirements for pastors receiving nontaxable reimbursement when establishing compensation.
207.g. Minimum Compensation

Recommendation for Minimum Salary for Part Time Local Pastors

The Book of Discipline states in ¶625 the Commission of Equitable Compensation is established to recommend conference standards for pastoral support, to administer funds used in base compensation supplementation, to provide counsel and advisory material to district superintendents and SPRC committees, and to develop and maintain an arrearage policy for its annual conference. Although these guidelines apply mainly to fulltime clergy, it also states the Commission shall carefully study the needs for additional support within the conference and the sources of income. Further in ¶625.3 it states the Commission may make recommendations for clergy “…appointed less than full-time to a local church, subject to such rules and regulations as the conference may adopt.”

In July 2018, Joel Miller, Chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors, contacted the Commission on Equitable Compensation with a request from their group asking for consideration for establishing a minimum standard for Part Time Local Pastors (PTLP) in the North Georgia Conference. This recommendation was discussed by the CEC, then sent to both the Office of Ministerial Services and to the Cabinet for consideration. Upon review by both it was deemed to have merit and was sent back to the Commission to develop a recommendation to bring forward to annual conference for review and approval.

It is our position that establishment of a minimum compensation amount for PTLP will address the discrepancy of ranges in salaries that currently exists among this important group of our clergy colleagues. By current definition the minimum number of hours designated to be considered as a PTLP is 10 hours. This financial guideline equates to the minimum number of hours (10) and is to be used as a reference for the Cabinet and District Superintendents to utilize when making appointments. Responsibilities and duties for all Licensed Pastors are clearly defined in ¶340 of the Book of Discipline and are beyond the scope of this Commission. Although this recommendation is established in order to assure equitable pay for PTLP, churches served by a PTLP are NOT eligible for Equitable Compensation funds.

The Commission recommends the following minimum compensation for the annual conference in the year 2020:

* This amount represents the total of Sections I and II of the "Clergy Financial Support Worksheet" as found on the conference website under Forms, Clergy and Financial Support.
 Full Connection refers to both Elders and Deacons.
 This amount is dependent on approval by 2019 Annual Conference.
(a) These amounts are established in order to assure equitable pay for Part Time Local Pastors (PTLP). However, churches served by a PTLP are NOT eligible for Equitable Compensation funds.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation suggests churches consider a Cost of Living salary increase of 2.9% for both Laity and Clergy if this is a possibility within their budget for the coming year.

207.h. Accountable Reimbursement Plan
Local churches shall reimburse pastors for travel/business expenses and continuing education expenses under an accountable reimbursement plan that complies with Internal Revenue Service regulations. These IRS regulations require that reimbursements made outside an accountable reimbursement plan to be reported as taxable income. The local church shall budget sufficient funds to meet the anticipated cost of pastoral travel and business expenses based on the most current year’s actual expenses or the amount determined with the pastor.

207.i. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth
The local church shall budget sufficient funds to meet the pastoral continuing education expectation of the Pastor(Staff)-Parish Relations Committee as outlined in The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶258.2.g.(8). This amount shall be no less than $800 annually. The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶350 deals with continuing education and spiritual growth. The Commission would like to emphasize that this paragraph in the Book of Discipline states that each clergy’s continuing education and spiritual growth program should include at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Additionally, such leaves shall not be considered as part of the minister’s vacations. For more information on this subject please refer to The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶350, page 293.

207.j. Vacation Recommendations
The Commission recommends that all churches/charges of the conference provide their pastor(s) annual vacation periods of at least the following schedule and make necessary financial arrangements for pulpit supply during the pastor’s absence from the pulpit. Guidelines for vacation periods shall be based on the credited years of service as indicated in the Directory and Service Record published annually in the conference journal:

recommendation is found in ¶258.2.g.(8) and ¶350.4 of The 2016 Book of Discipline.

207.l. Equitable Compensation Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation administers the Equitable Compensation Fund to assure each pastor receives a minimum compensation approved by the annual conference (¶625.3 The 2016 Book of Discipline). The Commission will make disbursements from the Equitable Compensation Fund in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶342, ¶624 and ¶625.

All full-time clergy appointed to serve as pastor-in-charge are eligible to receive grants from the Equitable Compensation Fund under the North Georgia Annual Conference Equitable Compensation Plan.

Churches may not receive salary supplementation funds from both Congregational Development and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. A local church that demonstrates the ability to maintain a full-time pastor may apply to its district superintendent for a grant. It is recommended that the cabinet and the Commission on Equitable Compensation use available resources to limit the number of consecutive years a church can receive Equitable Compensation Funds.

Before a pastor can receive Equitable Compensation Funds, approval must be obtained from the bishop, cabinet and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. In order for a pastor to receive Equitable Compensation Funds for the coming conference year, the Commission must receive a request from the pastor’s district superintendent by April 15.
This request must include the following information: district, church name, pastor’s name, and a breakdown of the funds that are being requested. If a request must be made for the period of January 1-June 30, this request must be received by the Commission by October 15. In extreme situations the cabinet may request funds at any time.

The Commission will assemble advisory material, including but not limited to denominational resources, annual conference resources and such information helpful in understanding and establishing compensation in The United Methodist Church. The Commission will provide such material and/or consultants from the Commission upon request by district superintendents or committees on staff/pastor relations or in any event where such information would be beneficial in developing or maintaining an effective compensation package or program. The Commission will be responsible for making adequate requests from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration as needed for approval of budget and expenditures.

If Equitable Compensation Fund requests exceed the approved conference budgeted amounts for the Equitable Compensation Fund, the Commission is required to notify the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

The Commission shall report to the annual conference the charges and the clergy members receiving Equitable Compensation Funds or who have received disbursements from the Equitable Compensation Fund during the past calendar year, including the number of years such funds have been disbursed to the charge and the clergy member.

207.m. Evangelism / Stewardship Seminar
Any church or charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds from the annual conference will be required to attend a seminar dealing with, but not limited to, stewardship and evangelism. The pastor(s) will be required to be in attendance, with other key leaders of the church or charge. This seminar will be conducted by the Center for Clergy Excellence in conjunction with the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

207.n. Guidelines and Standards for Housing Allowance and Parsonage Every church must provide adequate housing for its pastor. The church or charge may meet this need by means of a parsonage or by providing a housing allowance sufficient to buy or rent a home in the area served by the church. The minimum housing allowance for 2020 is $17,600. Any exceptions to this minimum must be approved by the district superintendent.
The allowance should respect the Internal Revenue Service regulations and rulings. The housing allowance should be clearly established, recorded in the charge conference minutes and excluded from Box 1 but listed in Box 14 in the W-2 form provided to the pastor. It is recommended that if a pastor has any questions concerning his/her compliance with the IRS regulations, he/she should consult a professional tax consultant or a certified public accountant.

207.o. Minimum Standards for Church-provided Parsonages These guidelines are intended to offer direction and goals for local church leaders in decisions regarding the construction of new parsonages and/or the upgrading and maintenance of existing parsonages. While the Commission understands that many parsonages within the annual conference do not meet these minimum standards, it is expected that measures will be taken by the local church to bring their parsonage(s) within these standards as soon as possible. In addition to these standards, it is expected that everything in the parsonage will be in working order.

1. Bedrooms: The parsonage shall have three or four bedrooms of at least 120 square feet each with ample lighted closets in each. The master bedroom shall have its own bath. It is recommended that the master bedroom be located on the main level. At least one bedroom and bath shall be on the main level.

2. Bathrooms: There shall be at least two full baths in the house.

3. Kitchen: The kitchen shall be large enough for family eating space or a breakfast nook as well as built-in cabinets, double sink, cooking range, self-cleaning oven, and frost-free refrigerator with a large freezer and ice maker.

4. Climate control: Central heat and air are required, along with insulation to meet present day building codes. Energy efficient windows and doors are to be provided in order to conserve energy. Screens must also be provided for all windows.

5. Office: An office with adequate office equipment and furniture shall be provided either at the parsonage or at the church.

6. Living/Dining Area: There shall be common living space consisting of a living room, family/recreational room, and dining room for entertaining.

7. Floor coverings: The church shall provide proper floor coverings in the parsonage with either carpeting or hardwood flooring in living spaces and tiled or vinyl flooring in the kitchens and bathrooms.

8. Window treatments: The church shall provide blinds or shades for all windows.
Curtains may be provided but are not required.

9. Telecommunications: The parsonage shall have connections for cable or satellite television, telephone and high-speed internet. If these services are desired and activated by the pastor, the fees for such services shall be paid by the pastor.

10. Utility area: There shall be an indoor utility area to include an automatic clothes washer and dryer provided by the church.

11. Wiring/Plumbing: All wiring and plumbing must conform to present day codes and are to provide for present and future needs in order that all appliances and computer equipment may be used safely. All receptacles must be properly grounded.

12. Security and Safety: The church shall provide smoke alarms and fire extinguishers.
Carbon monoxide detector/alarms should be installed near the furnace, kitchen and water heater areas and sleeping areas if said appliances use gas. All exterior doors shall have dead bolt locks. It is recommended that the church also provide a security system for the parsonage with the pastor paying for the monitoring services.

13. Parsonage grounds: Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees and adequate yard space for children. It is recommended that the church provide lawn maintenance service for the parsonage; if not, a powered lawn mower must be provided for the parsonage. The mower should be a riding mower if the yard is larger than ½ acre. Maintenance of the mower is the responsibility of the church. A fenced play area is recommended.

14. Garage/Carport and storage: A two-car garage or covered carport shall be provided and a minimum of 120 square feet of outdoor storage space shall be provided.

15. Insurance: An amount of insurance equal to at least 80% of the replacement value of the parsonage and church-owned contents should be carried by the church (fire and extended coverage). The pastor must carry adequate insurance to cover the pastor’s and the pastor’s family’s personal belongings and furnishings. The church does not insure the pastor’s personal belongings either at the parsonage or the church building.

16. Parsonage Updates: All parsonages shall be updated or renovated to conform as nearly as possible to the suggested minimum standards in these guidelines. Please note, all parsonages are expected to be in compliance with the minimum standards.

17. Any parsonages not meeting the standards must be approved for usage by the district superintendent on an annual basis.

Guidelines for Privacy:

Although the parsonage is the property of the church, it must be understood that it is also the private home of the parsonage family. Courtesy dictates that the parsonage be visited only upon invitation by the parsonage family. Even the annual mandatory parsonage review and parsonage committee meetings must be scheduled with the parsonage family with at least a two week notice.

Guidelines for Care of Property:

The parsonage family shall take care of the house, furnishings and property, making it a policy to leave them in good condition. Best results will be obtained as the parsonage family and parsonage committee work together, feeling free to discuss the needs with each other. It is understood that there will be a natural depreciation of property and contents which calls for repairs and replacements periodically.

Guidelines for Parsonage Upkeep:

1. It is recommended that the church’s annual budget include a parsonage fund equivalent to at least 3% of the value of the property for the purpose of repairs, maintenance, pest control and insurance. Unused yearly funds should be placed in an interest bearing account to be used for capital expenses of the parsonage to include the future purchase of a new parsonage where the current does not meet minimum parsonage standards.

2. The parsonage family shall be consulted in the selection of color schemes, window treatments and equipment.

3. The parsonage shall be kept well painted inside and out.

4. Every parsonage shall have a parsonage file. The parsonage file is to be maintained by the parsonage family and shall include all guarantees, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment, and an inventory of all church-owned contents. The file shall also include a maintenance log which will list when and from whom items were purchased, who to call for repairs, when and by whom improvements were made, and any other information helpful to future parsonage families. A pictorial record, preferably in video format, should be taken as soon as possible on or after each moving day. This record will be invaluable for insurance purposes in case of fire or other catastrophe. It also would serve as a record of the parsonage’s initial condition.
An extra copy of the pictorial record and the parsonage file shall be updated and stored in a secure place away from the parsonage.

Guidelines for Pets and Guide or Service Animals:
Keeping animals outside the parsonage is recommended. It is understood, however, that family pets, guide or service animals kept inside the home bring much comfort and joy. Therefore, if they are kept inside the parsonage, the following guidelines must be met:

1. The church trustees must be kept informed of any pet inside or outside the parsonage.
2. Only a domestic pet, which will be defined as a small dog, cat, caged bird or aquarium fish can be kept in the parsonage. Guide and service animals are not to be considered pets. Any other animal requires the approval of the church trustees. Also, more than one indoor pet or service animal requires the approval of the trustees.
3. All damages incurred by any pet or service animal will be the responsibility of the pastor and will be reported to the church trustees and assessed. Payment for repairs should be immediate, but no later than moving day. Flea and tick treatment is required.
4. Upon the change of the parsonage family, if animals have been kept inside, the parsonage family must make an extra effort to thoroughly clean the entire parsonage to eliminate any evidence of the animals having been present, which includes fleas, ticks, pet hair, pet dander, stains, excrements, etc. This cleaning would include having all carpet / rugs professionally cleaned.

Guidelines for Smoking:
There shall be no smoking inside the parsonages.

Guidelines for Handling Unusual Damages:
The Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees shall have regular inspections of the parsonage (see Mandatory Parsonage Review Guidelines below). This will permit all parties to review the general condition of the parsonage in order to identify deficiencies of the parsonage and define programs and time schedules for improvement.

1. Any unusual damages caused by the parsonage family shall be reported to the district superintendent.
2. Unusual damages caused by the parsonage family shall be paid for by the pastor involved. Various approaches for repayment of damage repair expenses may be necessary, including but not limited to the following:
   a. Creating a repayment schedule which may follow the pastor to his/her next appointment.
   b. In every case, the handling of such matters must be done in consultation with the supervising district superintendent.

Guidelines for Utilities:
Arrangements should be made by the pastor with appropriate companies to prorate all utility bills up through moving day. The moving pastor shall not have the utilities turned off. It is recommended that the church have the utility accounts in the church’s name with the pastor paying the amounts due for the utilities to the church a week prior to the due date. This will prevent any transfer issues arising from pastors moving.

Mandatory Parsonage Review Guidelines:

1. A meeting concerning the parsonage will be conducted each year prior to charge conference.
2. This meeting will be held in the parsonage and will include a mandatory review of the entire parsonage—inside and out.
3. The attendance of the following individuals is expected: the pastor, the trustee chairperson, the parsonage committee chairperson, and the chairperson of the pastor/staff relations committee (see The 2016 Book of Discipline, ¶2533.4). If the pastor has a spouse, he/she should also be included.
4. The specific date can be set any time during the year, but it must be set at least two weeks prior to the church’s annual charge conference with all parties agreeing to the date set.
5. Even though this mandatory meeting takes place to satisfy a disciplinary requirement, it is recommended that other parsonage committee meetings be held to consider parsonage improvements and other concerns.
6. A parsonage report detailing the findings and recommendations made during the meeting will be completed and signed by all in attendance at the parsonage review. This report will be submitted to the district superintendent during the charge conference. One copy of the report shall be placed in the parsonage file at the parsonage and a second copy shall be kept at the church or away from the parsonage grounds.
7. Any concern by either the pastor or church may be addressed at a later meeting. The district superintendent may become involved, if deemed necessary by either party.
8. Continual patterns of parsonage abuse will be documented and stored in each pastor’s file.

Check lists when a parsonage is being vacated:

A check list shall be completed when a parsonage family is moving away from parsonage. It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to thoroughly clean the parsonage and grounds. It is not the responsibility of the church to clean. The checklist when vacating a parsonage shall include checks for:

1. Windows cleaned inside.
2. Window blinds/shades cleaned.
3. Rugs and carpets vacuumed (shampooed if needed, professionally cleaned if pets or service animals were kept in the parsonage).
4. All hard surface floors cleaned.
5. All appliances cleaned.
6. All cabinets cleaned inside and out.
7. Basement, closets and shelving cleaned.
8. Light bulbs replaced as necessary.
9. Bathrooms thoroughly cleaned, including fixture, tile grout, shower doors/curtains, medicine cabinets, walls and floors.
10. Garage, carport and outside buildings swept and left orderly. The lawn shall be left in a well-maintained order.

11. All trash is properly disposed. (It is recommended that the church provide an extra refuse container during move week.)

12. A list of all items needing the attention of the parsonage committee. The checklist when moving into a parsonage shall be used by the incoming pastor to rate items on the move out list as excellent, satisfactory or poor.

207.q. Summary statement for parsonages

The parsonage is a witness of the church, and it is a symbol of the stewardship of the congregation; the parsonage should, therefore, receive the same kind of care as the church building. An occasional open house is suggested as a means of the church and the parsonage family sharing this witness and as a means of enhancing the relationship between the congregation and the parsonage family.

208. Council on Finance and Administration

208.a. Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services

North Georgia Conference apportionment payment percentage remained at 95.2%, the highest percentage since 2001. This continues a trend of solid support from our churches, which results at least in part from the combined effects of maintaining or reducing the apportionment budgets and good structural economic conditions. Total apportionment payments were $20,965,024, an increase of $14,445 from 2017. Payments to Conference and General Advances and to special offerings, totaled $1,568,105 compared to $2,337,853 in 2017.

The North Georgia Conference paid a total of $6,625,795 in General Church apportionments in 2018, which reflects a payment rate of 93.0%. We remain the largest payer of General Church apportionments.

The Atlanta-Roswell District achieved the highest percentage of apportionments paid, 100.2%. Atlanta-College Park District was a close second at 99.2%. The Atlanta-Decatur Oxford District achieved the highest percentage increase year over year, 8.2 percentage points!

83% of our churches paid 100% of their apportionments in 2018!

The Treasury and Benefits Offices continues to emphasize the provision of up-to-date financial administration information for local churches, including information from applicable government agencies. We focus on providing information on administrative best practices and benefits information via our website, while also interpreting applicable statutes and regulations and answering questions specific to individual churches, laity and clergy. In 2019, we are continuing to use and improve quality of brief instructional videos on topics that have engendered interest and inquiry from local church staff over many years.

The IT Department continues initiatives to automate processes when appropriate. We have implemented an automated Equitable Compensation request and approval process, updated IT infrastructure and updated the statistical reporting system for year-end reporting, among other completed projects. We will continue to develop automated systems as appropriate.

The annual conference audit will be substantially concluded prior to Annual Conference session. The conference audit for 2017 is posted on the North Georgia Conference website, and the 2018 audit will be posted upon completion.

208.b. Investment Summary

Conference funds are invested strictly in accordance with the Investment Guidelines approved by the Annual Conference in 2016 and published on pages 392-396, volume I, 2018 Annual Conference Journal. The Conference Investment Committee, comprised of members from both CBOP and CFA, will confer from time to time to review the investment performance and to insure compliance with the policy. Investment maturities and rates of return vary based on projections of cash needs, as well as on market fluctuations.

Loss on invested balances in 2018 was approximately 5.9% (primarily unrealized). The loss occurred in what was a very negative 4th quarter investment market.
Total investments at December 31, 2018 were $71,970,831 of which $45,372,133 represents investments designated for health and pension benefits programs.

Thanks to Treasury and Benefits Staff!

Staff from the Treasury, Benefits and Information Technology departments consistently perform excellent work and strive to provide great service to our Churches and members. I want to thank in particular Karen Fullerton, who will retire sometime after this session of Annual Conference. Karen has been an excellent employee and tremendous asset to the Conference and denomination for over 30 years, and we'll miss her!

Please welcome our newest staff members, Ann Beesley, who has taken over the role formerly held by Peggy Freniere, and Amy King, who is transitioning into the Conference Benefits Officer position as Karen transitions into retirement.

208.i. Investment Policy Statement

North Georgia Annual Conference Annual Conference REVISED-4/18

Definition and Purpose

In recognition of its fiduciary responsibilities and the mandate of the Book of Discipline (¶613.5) the North Georgia Annual Conference has developed the following Investment Policy Statement (IPS). This IPS shall comply with the policies related to conflict of interest and investment management of annual conference pension and pension related funds under ¶1508 of the Book of Discipline. This IPS applies to the assets of the following entities:

- Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (CBOPHB); Conference Board of Trustees (CBT); Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA); and other conference agencies.
- Address: 1700 Century Circle NE, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30345
- Contact person authorized to conduct business on behalf of the Investment Committee or Council: Keith M. Cox, Conference Treasurer

The purpose of this policy is as follows:

- To establish the responsibilities of the Investment Committee (Committee), as well as those of the service providers hired to help implement the Investment Policy.
- To clearly define investment goals, and other operational guidelines.
- To establish asset allocation parameters, risk tolerance and an investment strategy that is consistent with the investment goals and guidelines.
To establish effective communication procedures between the Committee and the investment managers.

To create a formal review process for reviewing this Investment Policy Statement.

The intent of this IPS is to provide guidelines that are specific enough to be meaningful but also flexible enough to take into account practical considerations. This IPS should be reviewed by the Investment Committee at least annually, or in circumstances where projected spending needs or investment circumstances change materially.

The standard of care when making decisions is the Prudent Expert Standard, defined as:

“…the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims.”

Delineation of Responsibilities

(1) The Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) is responsible for establishing principles, policies, standards and guidelines for the investment of all monies, assets and properties of the conference.

(2) The Investment Committee shall perform all operational functions and make recommendations for changes to this investment policy to the CFA for approval.

(3) The CFA is ultimately responsible for the financial integrity and oversight of the Annual Conference financial resources. Under this IPS all operational and implementation of policy decisions are delegated to the Investment Committee. The Investment Committee will report to the CFA, and the CBOPHB, at least semi-annually. Any significant deviations from the goals determined by the Investment Committee shall be reported to the Investment Committee and CFA.

Organization of the Investment Committee

The Committee members shall number seven and be headed by a chairperson voted on by the Committee and approved by the CFA and CBOPHB. The members’ individual terms shall not exceed eight years and shall be staggered to provide for continuity and experienced leadership. Committee membership shall consist of a representative each from the CFA and CBOPHB.

Responsibilities of the Investment Committee are as follows:

- To define and develop investment goals and other operational guidelines.
- To designate the investment managers and to discharge investment managers.
- To require all portfolios be managed with appropriate consideration to the social principles of The United Methodist Church.
- To monitor and evaluate the performance results and risk posture of the investment manager(s).
- To establish effective communication procedures between the Committee, the Council, the staff and the outside service providers.
• To monitor and control investment expenses.
• To delegate the execution and administration of certain Committee responsibilities as appropriate to the Conference Treasurer who serves as its staff.
• To carry out any other duties required for the legal operation of the investments, including but not limited to hiring outside vendors to perform various services.

Statement of Purpose and Financial Requirements
The purpose of the investments is to provide financial resources that support the objectives of the Funds for which they were created. The responsible board or agency is accountable for the use of the funds as designated by the annual conference or restricted by the donors. To illustrate:

• The Board of Trustees Funds shall be used to provide for the care, maintenance or acquisition of the real property of the Annual Conference.
• The Board of Pension and Health Care Funds shall be used to provide for ongoing pension and health benefits obligations of the North Georgia Annual Conference.
• Program Funds shall be used to advance the ministries of the North Georgia Annual Conference.

Investment Managers and Benchmarks
To achieve its investment objectives and ensure alignment with United Methodist Social Principles, the Funds shall be allocated among one or more funds managed by Wespath, a division of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits; and the IPS shall adopt the published investment performance benchmarks for these funds.

Target Asset Allocations and Rebalancing Guidelines
The purpose of allocating among asset classes is to ensure the proper level of diversification and risk for each portfolio. The primary considerations in the asset allocation decision process are:

• Maintaining inflation-adjusted purchasing power.
• Growing the corpus of the funds to meet future obligations.
• Achieving a minimum return in excess of inflation but with minimal annual fluctuations in the corpus.
• Maintaining the longevity of the assets and their distributions while taking into consideration that there may be no additional contributions.

Equities

The Manager should maintain the equity portion of the portfolio at a risk level roughly equivalent to that of the equity market as a whole. Equity holdings may be selected from the Dow Jones 30 Industrials, Standard and Poor’s 500 Index and the Russell 2000 Stock Index, and other equities listed on the New York Stock Exchange and/or the NASDAQ markets.

The securities should be aimed at appreciation potential and/or income generation.

The Manager is prohibited from investing in private placements, letter stocks, options, short sales and margin transactions. No assets shall be invested in securities whose issuers have filed a petition for bankruptcy or hedge funds.

Fixed Income

Investments in Fixed Income securities will be managed actively to pursue opportunities from a variety of sources. The Manager may select from appropriate obligations guaranteed by the U.S. government and its agencies, foreign government, utility stocks, preferred stocks, municipal obligations, and corporate obligations. No funds may be invested in collateralized debt obligations, auction rate securities, or credit default swaps.

Mutual funds, commingled funds, and funds in general

When mutual funds or commingled funds are used as an investment vehicle, then it is understood the Investment Committee has adopted the specific investment policies of the Fund.

Socially Responsible Investment Guidelines

As an Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church we are committed to implementation of the socially responsible investment policies in The Book of Discipline ¶717.

“Sustainable and Socially Responsible Investments”—In the investment of money, it shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative... agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, annual conferences, foundations, and local churches, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations or funds with policies and practices that are socially responsible, consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles. All United Methodist institutions shall endeavor to seek investments in institutions, companies, corporations, or funds that promote racial and gender justice, protect human rights, prevent the use of sweatshop or forced labor, avoid human suffering, and preserve the natural world, including mitigating the effects of climate change. In addition, United Methodist institutions shall endeavor to avoid investments in companies engaged in core business activities that are not aligned with the Social Principles through their direct or indirect involvement with the production of anti-personnel weapons and armaments (both nuclear and conventional weapons), alcoholic beverages or tobacco; or that are involved in privately operated correctional facilities, gambling, pornography, or other forms of exploitative adult entertainment. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to environmental, social, and governance factors when making investment decisions and actively exercise their responsibility as owners of the companies in which they invest. This includes engaging with companies to create positive change and hold them accountable for their actions, while also considering exclusion if companies fail to act responsibly.”

Communication and Responsibility
The Investment Committee shall provide semi-annually to the CFA and CBOPHB a written account of the investment results, accounting summary and significant developments, if any.
The CFA and CBOPHB shall at least once per year review the investment policy, the effectiveness of the Investment Committee and the overall results of the investments, and will acknowledge in writing that they have done so.
The investment manager shall provide the Investment Committee:
  • Quarterly or as necessary:
    ➢ A report of the portfolio’s holdings.
    ➢ A review of the investment performance.
    ➢ A commentary of investment results in light of the current investment environment and the goals and guidelines.
    ➢ A review of the key investment decisions and the rationale for these decisions.
    ➢ A discussion of the manager’s outlook and what specific decisions this outlook may indicate.
    ➢ Any recommendations as to changes in goals and guidelines in light of material and sustained changes in the capital market.
    ➢ Any significant change in the manager’s investment outlook, ownership or key employees.
    ➢ A report of current investment mix and variance from target (if any).
    ➢ A report on changes in target allocation.

Records
The CFA, CBOPHB and the Investment Committee shall keep a proper and prudent paper trail of all important documents, meeting minutes and other information relating to the management of the Fund. They shall be available at:

Address: 1700 Century Circle Ste 100
Atlanta, GA 30345

Custodian of the Records: Conference Treasurer

The recommendations and approved changes to the investment policy may be incorporated directly into the policy as a revision and restatement or noted in the addendum until such time as the investment policy is revised and restated.

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) serves as a steward of the North Georgia Annual Conference’s financial resources. The task to develop a fiscally responsible budget of ministry and mission is both a blessing and a challenge. CFA seeks to underwrite the ministry needs of the Annual Conference and the global denomination while prioritizing the work of the local church. Therefore, each budget request is prayerfully considered with the recognition of finite financial resources. The construction of the 2020 budget also occurred against the backdrop of the 2019 General Conference and the future uncertainties about the United Methodist Church.

CFA took a conservative approach to the 2020 budget, seeking to reduce apportionments at the local church level. This occurred through reductions in budget line items and the judicious utilization of reserve funds. The recommended 2020 budget is $20,209,649 or $1,711,002 less than the 2019 budget. General Church line items which are beyond our control will increase 1.6%. However, the North Georgia conference portion of the budget will decrease by 12.3%. This resulted in a net decrease of 7.8% in the 2020 budget. In addition, all individuals and agencies will be asked to utilize a maximum of 80% of their approved budget requests (after paying salaries and benefits at 100%) based on an ongoing evaluation of apportionment receipts in the coming year.

The 2020 budget includes a 2.9% increase for conference staff and district superintendents. This reflects the Consumer Price Index increase of 2.9% in 2019 and maintains a current standard of living for our gifted staff and leaders. (Note this recommendation differs from the annual conference adopted compensation formula for district superintendents that would have resulted in a 3.5% increase.)

While addressing current financial challenges, CFA continues to plan for the future as well. We are recommending the continued funding of small reserves for anticipated needs, including retirement obligations, a future conference center, and general reserves.

In 2015, the Annual Conference approved the creation of the District Administrative Review Team (DART). DART was tasked to study current policies and to recommend best practices on the district level. The task force has made substantive recommendations over the past three years and has concluded its excellent work. Jeff Adams, DART chair and vice-chair of CFA will make a separate report to the Annual Conference this year.

During the past year, CFA approved the use of reserve funds for the following initiatives:

- Seed funding for the Georgia Foundation Clergy Financial Leadership Academy
- Information Technology Services Security Audit
- General Council on Finance and Administration Pay Scale and Human Resources System Review and Analysis
- Consultant to determine future recommendations about district alignment and underutilized real estate assets

Through diligent stewardship, the North Georgia Annual Conference is blessed to have a healthy balance sheet and significant reserves. Our liquidity position is sound. Our goal is to support the mission of the United Methodist Church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

I am grateful for the tremendous work that Keith Cox and his gifted team perform on behalf of the North Georgia Conference. We are blessed by their leadership and expertise.

William R. Burch, Chairperson
Council on Finance & Administration

208.k. 2019 Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations

1. We recommend that each District continue to be responsible for funding of conference expenses for its at-large delegates. Funding levels will be at the discretion of the respective District Superintendent.

2. We recommend that lay volunteers serving on Annual Conference committees and task forces be reimbursed their mileage costs at the prevailing IRS employee rate.

3. We recommend in addition to those observances set by the General Conference (defined in 2016 Book of Discipline ¶263), the following special days, with offerings, but without quotas, be observed in 2020: Homeless Offering (last Sunday in February), Mother’s Day Offering for Wesley Woods Senior Living (Mother’s Day, second Sunday in May), Murphy-Harpst (third Sunday in July), Golden Cross (third Sunday in August), United Methodist Children’s Home d/b/a Wellroot Family Services Offering (third Sunday in September), Aldersgate Homes (fourth Sunday in October), Action Ministries (first Sunday in December).

4. We recommend that each of the following be permitted to have one direct mail appeal for funds in 2020: United Methodist Children’s Home d/b/a Wellroot Family Services, Wesley Woods Senior Living Inc., Action Ministries, Aldersgate Homes Inc.

5. We recommend the adoption of the apportionment formula approved at Annual Conference 2006, and used each year since, as described in the 2020 Recommended Budget
Interpretation. (Included in the 2019 Annual Conference Handbook.)
6. We recommend that all churches and conference-related agencies ensure that their internal control systems are adequate to safeguard their assets as well as to insure compliance with completing an annual audit pursuant to 2016 Book of Discipline ¶258.4.d. For churches whose operating budgets are less than $500,000, we recommend that those churches use the “Local Church Audit Guide” to fulfill their audit obligation.

7. We recommend that local churches institute or update risk management practices and procedures to protect church assets, employees, and volunteers. This includes expeditiously moving to comply with practices defined in the “Safe Sanctuaries” program and to monitor compliance with that program.

8. We recommend that all clergy either living in church-owned parsonages and/or that maintain personal belongings in a church-owned office, seek counsel from their insurance agent about securing insurance coverage for personal property.

9. We recommend that all key third-party providers of professional services be reviewed by the appropriate department/ministry for efficacy every three years. The review(s) will be forwarded to CFA for its input. (For those who have recently been reviewed, one will not be necessary until no later than 6/30/23.)

10. We recommend that, pursuant to the recommendation from the District Administration Review Team (DART), that budgetary adjustments for the Districts and Conference be approved to accommodate the revised Standing Rule E.3. (Neutral budget effect in aggregate.)

11. We recommend that the we recognize the District Administrative Review Team for its excellent work and further that it be disbanded since its work has now been concluded.

12. We recommend that Cabinet and extended Cabinet clergy appointed to the UM Center have housing-related allowances for 2020 designated as follows: Housing allowance (in lieu of parsonage) – $32,749 per year; utility allowance – $5,000 per year (These are the same levels as the last 10 years). For non-Cabinet clergy appointed to the UM Center, housing-related allowance shall be at a level no lower than the minimum recommended by the Commission on Equitable Compensation, but may be higher, as determined by the respective supervisor (Based on the unique circumstances of the Cabinet and staff clergy, the Conference Treasurer is authorized to adjust individual compensation components, provided the total compensation does not exceed the amounts budgeted.)

13. We recommend that all ministries supported by the Conference budget manage their expenditures in 2020 as follows: pay 100% of salaries and benefits, spend the remainder up to a maximum of 80% of the total budget. Any received but unspent funds will roll over as fund balance into 2021.

2020 Recommended Conference Apportionment Budget

The recommended Conference budget for 2020 is $20,209,649, a decrease of $1,711,002 versus the approved 2019 budget. Conference direct mission and ministry budgets (Areas I, IV, VI and XII) comprise 63.7% of the Conference portion of the budget versus 64.31% in 2019. Note, however, that the percentage in the 2020 budget is the second highest in 10 years.

The recommended budget absorbs a 1.6% increase in general church apportionments, while reducing Conference-specific line items by 12.3%.

The recommended budget includes a 2.9% salary adjustment for Cabinet and staff, derived from the estimated increase in the consumer price index (CPI).

The Episcopal Residence and Office Fund provides the conference share of financial support for the office and residence expense for North Georgia's Resident Bishop. (In 2019, the General Church share of residence support is $10,000, while the General Church's share of office support is $88,000.)

District Superintendents' Compensation line item represents salaries, health insurance and pension benefits for the twelve (12) district superintendents of our conference.

The Equitable Compensation Fund enables our conference to ensure all appointed clergy will receive Conference minimum compensation. The increase is due primarily to the designation by the Cabinet of specific "missional congregations."

The Board of Ordained Ministry coordinates, with the Cabinet, deployment and credentialing of clergy. Additionally, it coordinates the provision of support for conference clergy through myriad services, continuing education activities, seminars and counseling support, which is essentially a clergy-specific expanded EAP Program subsidized by the Annual Conference.

This ministry enables our conference to meet the high standards and expectations of local church congregations. Decrease in 2020 is due to the designation of Trustees funds for ACEx2. As a result, $250,000 was removed from the BoM budget.

Retired Minister Pension/Insurance reflects “fully funded status” as of 12/31/2018 (unaudited) for both the ViaBenefits defined contribution funding for the Health Reimbursement Account for retired/eligible clergy and Conference staff and the pre-1982 plan. The premiums noted for Retired Ministers insurance are based on claims expenses passed on to the Conference by WesPath (the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits). The benefit per claimant is currently capped at $3,600/annum. The small apportionment for pre-1982 is recommended to ensure continued funded status despite vagaries in both the investment markets as well as actual mortality data versus estimates based on mortality tables.

The disability premiums are increasing because, quite simply, there are more clergy filing for and being granted disability status.

208.n. How Are Apportionments Computed?

Step 1: Conference determines annual budget, consisting of several ministries and programs, including retired ministerial support, regional ministries, new church development, and General Church and Jurisdictional apportionments to the North Georgia Conference.

Step 2: At calendar year-end, the local church completes the Local Church Report to the Annual Conference. (For the 2020 recommended budget, the latest available reports are the 2018 year-end reports.)

Step 3: The Treasurer's Office accumulates all local church reports and determines each local church's operating expenses. Operating expenses consist of salaries, pension benefits, clergy housing-related expenses, expense reimbursements, current program expenses, expenses related to commercial insurance and other current operating expenses. Operating expenses (also referred to as “decimal” expenses) do NOT include: Elder HealthFlex insurance expenses, payments on indebtedness, or capital-related expenditures. Also, expenses related to “self-sustaining” activities and local benevolences are NOT considered operating expenses.

Step 4: The Treasurer's Office totals the local church operating expenses for ALL 820+ North Georgia United Methodist churches. For year end 12/31/2018, this total was $198,093,638.

Step 5: We determine “the decimal.” This is the conference budget divided by total church operating expenses (from step four). The decimal for 2020 (recommended budget) is .102, or 10.2%. This is a reduction of 1.1 percentage points from the 2019 approved budget. This means that the Conference budget, expressed as a percentage of local church expenditures, in aggregate, is down 9.7% versus the 2019 budget (1.1/11.3). Please note that this is the lowest decimal percentage in at least 20 years.
Step 6: We multiply an individual church's operating expenses by the decimal, arriving at the total gross apportionment. We then prorate the gross apportionment to fifteen individual apportionment line items.

Step 7: Churches above 1000 members will have a “reasonableness test” applied to their apportionments (see formula below), and the Cabinet might adjust the computed apportionments for certain churches within that size range. This methodology was approved at AC 2006.

Step 8: We sum the apportionment for each individual district and send this information to the district offices. District Superintendents review the apportionments as calculated and may make adjustments to the calculated amounts. Such adjustments should be made only after discussion with the church's senior pastor. Note that the District’s aggregate apportionments cannot be changed.

Step 9: We will add the District Work Fund (DWF) apportionment to each church based on information provided by the District offices.

Step 10: District superintendents notify local churches of their apportionment amounts. This information is provided to the pastors via “Local Church Apportionment Reports” at the summer/fall district set-up meetings.

Please note that churches that are considered “newly constituted” have 5 years to transition into their full computed apportionment. In effect, the difference between their computed apportionment and what they are actually apportioned is subsidized by the other churches in the Conference for a five year period. (This is accomplished generally by apportioning in increments of 20% of computed apportionments per year for 5 years – 20% in year 1, 40% in year 2, etc.)

Detailed Explanation of Step 7 as originally approved at 2006 Annual Conference Session (and re-ratified each year since):

In order to assure that our apportionment computation and allocation system is as equitable as possible, we recommend that a “reasonableness test” be implemented, which will work as follows:

a. Existing apportionment formula and rules for year-end report completion remain unchanged.

b. After the apportionments have been computed for all churches, three (3) comparative groups will be established – churches with membership from 1000-1999; 2000-2999; and 3000+.

c. The aggregate apportionments for each group will be divided by the aggregate membership of each group in order to calculate an average apportionment/member for each group.

d. Any church whose apportionment/member falls below the average for its group will be referred to the Cabinet for discussion about possibly being moved up to the group.
average over a three (3) year period. Group average calculations will occur each year based on the latest reported membership statistics.
e. The Cabinet will review the apportionments for the churches in all 3 groups and will, as a body, discuss and might make adjustments to each church whose apportionment is below the average for its size range.
f. Apportionments added to the affected churches will not be offset by reductions in other churches and will be applied to Conference-specific apportionment line items ONLY and will NOT be added to General or Jurisdictional line items.

Information Only

Note: Information reported by our churches on the year end “Table III” report, which is a report of revenues, indicates the following:

Total “normal” giving (from 2018 aggregate Table III Report) - $269,362,482

208.n. How Are Apportionments Computed
1. The “General Church” sets priorities and develops programs at the General Conference Session for a four (4) year period (the quadrennium). The new quadrennium began in 2017 and runs through 2020.

The financial support for those worldwide ministries is apportioned to the Annual Conferences, which, in turn, apportions those amounts to the local churches. The 2020 General Church Apportionments are $7,172,717 or 35.5% of the 2020 total recommended Conference Budget.

The United Methodist Church is a worldwide, connectional denomination and every United Methodist church supports, via apportioned giving, the denomination’s worldwide ministries.

2. Conference-based and Conference-subsidized programs and ministries requested funding based on their plans and priorities for the upcoming year. These plans are developed by program “conferencing” via staff as well as those serving on boards and committees, such as the Center for Congregational Excellence, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Center for Clergy Excellence, Action Ministries, the Georgia UM Commission on Higher Education, et.al.

Representatives from several programs/ministries and their board chairpersons, if applicable, presented their requests to CFA via email and/or in person. CFA reviewed these requests on February 13, 2019.

Those requests were then put in the draft budget.

3. On March 11, 2019 CFA met to review the draft budget. During this meeting, CFA made adjustments to the draft budget based on several factors, including: budget changes compared to change in local church expenditures; departmental fund balances; apportionment collection rates from prior years; and feedback from the local churches, the Cabinet and other members of the Annual Conference. CFA made a decision to reduce the Conference portion of the budget. However the percentage allocable to mission and ministry initiatives continues to remain at historic highs. The total recommended budget for 2020 is $20,209,649 a decrease of $1,711,002 (-7.8%) from the approved 2019 budget. This follows a 0.5% decrease in last year’s budget.
4. Instructional videos prepared by Conference staff will be posted on the Conference website and can be used to brief delegates (members) to annual conference on highlights of the recommended budget, as well as other financial and administrative reports.

5. During Annual Conference Session, the recommended budget will be presented to members of annual conference, who represent all local churches.

After the recommended budget is approved, Conference staff will calculate the local church apportionments, which represent each church's “share” of the Conference and world-wide ministry and mission, using the apportionment calculation methodology described in the “Budget Interpretation.”

The apportionments will be provided to each District Superintendent, who may alter individual apportionments within his/her district, but not the total amount for the district. It is expected that the DS will have conversations with the affected churches about any changes in the calculated apportionments.

Final apportionments are distributed, by church, by the DS at his/her appointed District setup meeting in late summer/early fall.

The Conference Treasurer's Office will NOT communicate apportionments to any church, nor post the 2020 apportionments on the Conference website until after the 2019 District setup meetings are concluded! (Once the setup meetings have concluded, 2020 apportionments will be posted on the Conference website.)
The 2015 Annual Conference approved the following recommendation from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA):

We recommend that CFA, CBOT, CPPPC and the Cabinet jointly study District office administration with the goal of ensuring that best practices are utilized.

The 2016 Annual Conference approved the following CFA recommendation:

We recommend that a joint committee of CFA, CBOT and the Cabinet continue to jointly study District office administration with the goal of ensuring that best practices are utilized. We further recommend that a report be made to Annual Conference about the results of the study during Annual Conference session 2017.

The 2017 Annual Conference approved a similar CFA recommendation, which authorized the continued work of DART.

Members of DART:

- Cabinet - Bernice Kirkland, Doug Thrasher (Vice-Chair), Susan Gary-Landry;
- Trustees - Jeffrey Adams (Chair), JoEllen Wilson;
- CFA - Ellen Shepard, Harold Tarpley;
- CFA Personnel - Jill Irvin, Deborah Marshall;
- Staff Resource - Keith Cox

The work of the Committee began in earnest in the late fall 2016 and has continued through 2019 to date.

We have accomplished the transitioning to a centralized accounting for District Work Funds and have begun the process of transitioning to a centralized investment management arrangement with the Georgia United Methodist Foundation, with a target completion date of 12/31/19. (Please refer to the following District Funds information and flowchart. The top two boxes of the flowchart refer to the centralized investment initiative. The last 3 boxes represent a draft process being considered by the Windfall Committee of Trustees).

Our final, but important, initiative is the development of an equitable pay scale to begin to address wide discrepancies in District AA salaries, which includes development of specific job descriptions of District AA roles (with attendant evaluation of same). In order to accomplish this final initiative, CFA approved the expenditure of $8,500 to facilitate a study of our pay scales, job descriptions, etc. by a General Council on Finance and Administration Human Resources (HR) consultant, Caitlyn Congdon. This study will commence in May and should be complete by the end of June.

With the completion of the HR study and receipt of attendant recommendations by CFA, the goals established by the members of DART will have been achieved. As such, we recommend that DART be disbanded as of this Annual Conference session, with gratitude for all the members who worked diligently to improve the efficacy of District and Conference administration.

300. Center for Congregational Excellence

300.a. Center for Congregational Excellence Team Report

In order to create alignment of responsibilities and be better stewards of time and resources, the functions of Congregational Development and Connectional Ministries were combined under the umbrella of the Center for Congregational Excellence (CCE) in July of 2018. CCE seeks to inspire healthy and fruitful congregations who make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Utilizing innovative ideas and resources, our office comes alongside churches to assess needs and assist with training and development so that churches can more effectively live into our mission. We also celebrate churches who exhibit qualities of excellence and employ their best practices to strengthen other churches. The staff in this new configuration continues to take responsibility for specific ministry areas, but also acts as liaisons to specific districts to more fully support the work of the local churches. Current staffing includes a mix of full-time and part-time contract positions that cover the work of New Church Development; Fresh Expressions; Asian, Latino and Black Congregational Development; Camping and Retreat Ministries; Age-Level Ministries such as Children, Youth and Young Adults; Safe Sanctuaries; Missions; and Disaster Response. Other work with local churches includes the areas of hospitality, worship, discipleship, evangelism, and stewardship. With this new configuration we have had over 200 points of contact in local churches in our first eight months of working this model.

Training and programs offered by the Center for Congregational Excellence include Creating a Discipleship Pathway, which launched with a workshop in cooperation with Northside UMC, and monthly MissionInsight workshops at the conference office as well as more individualized training for churches and districts. Mystery Worshippers are available to visit local churches to evaluate the welcome and hospitality. Our staff often follows these visits with a review of the findings and a Welcome and Hospitality Consult with the church. Ministry grants offered through this office help churches fund new and vital ministry initiatives.

Following up on the work of Connectional Ministries, churches such as North Springs, Christ – Roswell, Hickory Flat, County Line – Acworth, Leland Qwest, Dallas First, Bethel – Atlanta, and Ariel Bowen have participated in the Healthy Church Initiative. This program includes a church self-study, a series of Mystery Worshippers, and a Consultation Weekend with an outside team who conducts interviews and leads workshops at the church. The weekend ends with a series of prescriptions offered to the church for their consideration. If the church decides to implement all the prescriptions, a coach is secured to work with the church to provide encouragement and accountability.

CCE has also helped launch the Movement Learning Action Board, known as M-LAB. This initiative, a collaborative vision of Bishops Sue Haupert-Johnson, Ken Carter (Florida) and William McAlilly (Nashville Episcopal Area), was designed to bring together outwardly-focused United Methodist Clergy to incubate and prototype new ideas that will shape the future of our church. After two successful Clergy 1.0 events hosted in the Florida Conference, CCE was proud to host a Laity M-LAB in November of 2018, M-LAB Connect in January 2019, and M-LAB 2.0 this past April all here in Atlanta. In July 2019 we will host our first M-LAB Local in the LaGrange District.
Our staff has worked with local churches to provide Church Staff Retreats, Planning and Visioning Weekends, Leadership Development Workshops, and Stewardship programs. We have offered Small Church Check-Up workshops for district trainings. Kindling the Fire (KTF) Sermon and Worship Planning Retreats help pastors and worship teams plan further in advance, and this October 2019, Kindling in the City will bring KTF to downtown Atlanta. Decatur First (ADOX) hosted a Simplified Accountable Leadership Single Board Training with Kay Kotan to help churches stream-line their leadership structure. We have coordinated coaches and workshops for local churches on this subject as well.

New Church Development

NExT Leadership Academy is a nine-month experience for pastors and laity interested in learning about leading a startup ministry. The 2018-2019 session kicked-off with a retreat in Augusta that included learning from Quest Church, Mosaic Church, and Wesley UMC’s multi-site ministry. These monthly on-site learning experiences continued at The Vine Church, McEachern UMC, Eastside UMC, Harvest Point UMC, Impact UMC, 12Stone, Sugarloaf UMC, The Nett, and North Decatur UMC. Each stop included curriculum-based teaching around the topic of ”Ten Essentials for Successful Start-ups,” story-branding, and inspiration from start-up practitioners.

In October of 2018, CCE, in partnership with Path1 and Grace UMC, hosted an original gathering of women in church planting. Chick Planters Live! (inspired by the online community of the same name) brought together planters, revitalizers, Fresh Expression pioneers, and those who aspire to become so from all over the Southeastern Jurisdiction and beyond for training, networking, resourcing, and celebration. A second event is now slated for Fall 2019, hosted in another Jurisdiction.

A closed church in LaGrange was relaunched as Empower Church in December under the leadership of Carl Von Epps. After a successful missional merger, Smyrna First UMC (AMAR), Action Ministries, and MUST Ministries, among others, have partnered to repurpose the former Tillman United Methodist Church building into Tillman House, a mission outpost redesigned to house feeding ministry, recovery ministry, worship, young adult community, and an afterschool program for students at the local elementary school. The community celebrated a Grand Opening in March 2018. The Nett Church (AMRY) added a second campus at Bethesda in July of 2018 and in March of 2019 added a third campus at the site of the former John Wesley UMC in Norcross. In partnership with local government and non-profit organizations, this NettWorks Campus will serve its community as a worship center, social services center, and house the only presently operating Women and Children’s shelter in Gwinnett County.

New Hope UMC on Moreland Avenue (ADOX) in partnership with Eastside Church in East Atlanta, went fallow for several months in order to relaunch with a student pastor, Abby Norman. The church spent several months asking the neighborhood, “What will bring New Hope to this community?” The church now hosts a Bible study with more attendees than on Sunday morning. They are working with community partners to find alternative funding sources for ministry such as trading a space to place beehives for locally produced honey.

The McEver Road United Methodist Church (GNSV) has voted to sell and relocate into a growing area of Hall County. Other churches like St. James – Alpharetta and others are looking at second campuses and ministry partnerships across the conference, especially in Cobb, Fulton and Gwinnett Counties. As several new churches have transitioned from their founding pastor to a second pastor, we have created a Second Pastor Coaching Cohort to help with those difficult transitions for churches.

Multi-Ethnic Cohort
In 2018, the North Georgia Conference began to reinforce efforts to make our churches look more like the communities in which they reside. The first step in this endeavor was the establishment of the Multi-Ethnic Cohort in January 2018. Eleven pastors were part of the first Multi-Ethnic Cohort which met monthly with coaches Mark DeYmas (Mosaics Church, Little Rock, Arkansas) and Chip Freed (Garfield Memorial UMC, Cleveland, Ohio). In March 2019, the first Multi-Ethnic Conference was held with these pastors and coaches, where their progress was shared and celebrated. Twelve pastors and their churches were invited to learn about the Multi-Ethnic cohort to determine if their churches should participate in the second cohort. The first year was a success. The second year will build upon this foundation to make our churches look more like heaven!

Our office has also funded associate and assistant pastors to increase the diversity of our witness in churches like Grayson UMC and Sugar Hill UMC. We continue to work with our largest African American churches to create incubators for young black leaders in order to strengthen the Black Church.

Fresh Expressions
The Church in its current form reaches approximately 17% of the population in our communities. Fresh Expressions (FX) are new forms of church for our changing culture and are bridging the gap between the inherited church and the “nones” and “dones” in our communities. Fresh Expressions are cultivated through listening, loving, and serving our neighbors while building a discipling community outside our walls. Fresh Expressions and inherited forms of church work hand-in-hand to bring new life in Christ to one another. We encourage every North Georgia congregation to explore the possibilities of Fresh Expressions in your community. We celebrate the numbers of churches who are already discovering and launching Fresh Expressions. Yet many opportunities still exist. Training and assistance is available as you discover the Fresh Expressions of Church in your community. Visit https://www.ngumc.org/freshexpressions.

Asian Congregational Development
With the grace of God, the Korean committee focused on helping missions/churches to grow by providing training for pastors, laity, and youth. The pastors met on several occasions to teach and learn about developing healthy churches. Some pastors provided training for leadership development, mission outreach, conflict management, and United Methodist structures. The committee supported a joint youth retreat for several missions and churches in winter and summer since the last Annual Conference. We have participated in the Korean Peninsula Reconciliation Forum at the Carter Center. We have had some initial conversation for a possible new Korean mission start-up in the Sugarloaf area and helped one of the Korean churches to refinance its mortgage through the United Methodist Foundation. By the time this report is being read, there may be one or more other Korean churches seeking loans from the United Methodist Foundation. Thank you very much for your continuous support and prayers.

Black Congregational Development

The Black Congregational Development Committee remains diligently committed to our mission, vision and mandate to strengthen existing predominantly black congregations and their leadership. We offer the following brief summary of our work in the 2018-2019 conference year. We celebrated the successful completion of the first New Leader Cohort through the curriculum of seven Leadership Development modules with 14 graduates. We then launched and on-boarded 18 members for Cohort #2 and completed 4 of 8 planned modules in that series. In an effort to provide structure and sustainability of the committee’s focus, we determined objective definitions, framework and metrics for the approval and monitoring of BCD grants through our Office of Congregational Excellence budgeted funds.

Our covenant with the United Theological Seminary continues as we registered 12 new students for this spring at the Hispanic Christian Academy. We provided funds for the outreach program of all Hispanic ministries. We finished our empowerment of lay people through 10 workshops on the topic of Becoming an Entrepreneur that began last March with the first of eight workshops training leadership on excellence. Our committee worked together with the Undocumented Partnership Task Force on a workshop called “Immigration in Your Backyard” to raise awareness about the immigrant community across our Annual Conference. We helped with grants to open a new English As a Second Language (ESL) program at Hiram First UMC in order to reach the community. We continue to support the ESL program at East Point First Mallalieu (ACPK) and Winters Chapel (AROS). We continue looking for opportunities to open new Latino ministries in our Conference.

Children’s Ministries/Safe Sanctuaries

It’s been a good year to be part of one of the hundreds of children’s ministries across North Georgia! Those whose ministries are with children and their families strive to create community, grow disciples and leaders for Jesus Christ, and to improve their skills as faith leaders themselves. We are growing caring, Christian community through practicing appropriate safety procedures for those in our ministries through Safe Sanctuaries. Rather than a set of rules and regulations, at its heart, Safe Sanctuaries is a way of being in a community that worships, educates, and extends itself beyond the walls of the building to enable discipleship and healthy relationships to flourish.

We are growing disciples and giving children and youth opportunities to lead through the variety of retreat opportunities for children and their leaders. This year we saw record numbers of children attend the two Fall Retreats and the Winter Retreat. Almost 1000 children and their leaders experienced the unique environment of a retreat setting where God sits at our tables, walks, swims, sings and plays with us.

None of this happens without the continual efforts of those called to work with children. Just as they strive to provide for those in their ministries, they also seek to care for themselves – their faith lives and their professional skills. There are several ways that we accomplished this. The district networking groups continue to provide regular support, nurture and a source of practical ministry ideas. The fall training of trainers for Wonderfully Made, the denominational curriculum for faith and sexuality, has enabled trainers to offer this specialized weekend experience to families around the conference. Two regional planning days have enabled ministry professionals to share more deeply and plan collaborative ministry programs and events together. The yearly Done in a Day training provides effective, practical and proven learning around trending themes and topics in children’s ministry. Each year, this training opportunity reaches more people and congregations.

For those new to children’s ministry or those wishing to expand their skill set, the Children’s Ministry Institute (CMI) has been created in the Athens-Elberton District as a prototype. The inaugural cohort of 18 is studying, praying and learning together over a five-month period. A second cohort in 2019 will begin in late summer and conclude in early December. Led by clergy and lay children’s ministry champions, CMI is the Center for Congregational Excellence’s newest training initiative for those in children’s ministry.

Children’s Ministry Institute Inaugural Cohort 2019: Roger Canuel, Union Chapel UMC; Brittany Carter, Bethlehem First UMC; Katie Elder, Athens First UMC; Kelly Field, Princeton UMC; Jennifer Golden, Athens First UMC; Linsey Jarrett, Athens First UMC; Bomi Kim, Korean Church of Atlanta UMC; Cindy Little, Union Chapel UMC; Jenny Major, St. James UMC; Sandra Meisdor, Level Creek UMC; Amanda McMurtrey, Tuckston UMC; Amanda Prochaska, Watkinsville First UMC; Jacquelin Ratliff, Bold Spring UMC; Lisa Smith, Monroe First UMC; Robin Stewart, Athens First UMC; Lynn Thompson-Blair, Loganville First UMC; Heather Woods, Royston First UMC.

Making disciples in safe and secure environments does not begin with adults, rather it begins in our nurseries, Sunday School classrooms, gyms, and wide-open spaces under the trees. It is good and a blessing to be part of a North Georgia United Methodist children’s ministry!

Youth Ministries

The conference youth ministry focuses on enabling local church and district youth ministries so they might better embody Jesus and the love of God to the youth in those communities, helping youth and congregations experience what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ.

One priority for teenagers in North Georgia is helping them recognize a call and ability to lead. Youth and adults from all over the Annual Conference meet to plan and discuss how to be a support to youth ministries and congregations. Through the CCYM (Conference Council on Youth Ministries), coordinated by Lisa Springer, the Director of Youth Ministry at St. Andrew UMC (Marietta); the Spiritual Life Retreat team, coordinated by Hannah Stubblefield, Youth Minister at Acworth UMC; and our own youth delegation at Annual Conference, led by Nikki Donahoo from Acworth, youth from many congregations learn leadership skills they can implement in their home congregations.

The youth planning teams and the Youth Ministry Advisory Board (a board comprised of area youth ministers of varying experience and from different congregations) are the ears and eyes in the Conference around youth ministry and the needs of teenagers and congregations. A number of exciting ministries develop from such insight. The 5K Fun Run during Annual Conference (organized by Chris Moss from Tucker FUMC), mission trips using the Bahamas Bridge and the leadership of Stephen Soulen from Stark UMC, Fall and Spring Confirmation Retreats, the Spiritual Life Retreats, the Rooted Retreats (with leadership from Aaron Talbot of Wesley UMC, Evans), and the Campus Crawl Retreat have all been ways your youth leadership builds relationships and nurtures faith in your teenagers. Adult training through the Youth Ministry Institute has provided intensive youth ministry development since last August through coaching, training, support, networking, and powerful insight. God does amazing things through these people called to walk alongside youth in their faith journeys, and we are blessed to be able to enable and prepare them for such a ministry.

We are grateful for the leadership from so many youth and adults in our Conference who have willingly allowed themselves to be used by God in showing the love of Christ to other youth. We are also thankful for the congregations that support our conference leaders. It is through the congregations that such a calling is nurtured and offered.

Disaster Response
The last couple of years have been extremely active in disaster response. The hurricanes in the fall of 2017, and then again in fall 2018, have pounded the southeast. The North Georgia Conference is one of the few conferences relatively untouched by the destructive natural disasters which have hit both our region and our nation. For that reason, it’s more important than ever that our congregations be trained, prepared and ready to serve their community. The added benefit is that such readiness prepares us to be available to serve our conference and our nearby sister annual conferences in their time of need. Our combined efforts provide ongoing support to nearby disaster zones that desperately, urgently need our assistance. North Georgia churches responded to the fall 2018 hurricanes with $155,650.70 given to the South Georgia conference and $104,235.18 to the North Carolina conference, plus similar response given directly to UMCOR of over $314,246 for use in domestic and international disaster response. North Georgia continues to increase our capacity to respond by increasing our leadership and our opportunities to serve. We are offering more Early Response Team trainings and 200 level courses as we engage more of our churches as part of the UMCOR protocols in disaster response. We are thankful for our 8 ERT trainers and over 600 badged ERT ready to respond when called upon for disaster response ministries. Information and updates may be found at https://www.ngumc.org/disasterresponse as we need every congregation active in disaster response ministry.
Missions and Outreach

Many of our North Georgia congregations continue to be very active in local, regional, national and international mission. It would be impossible to list all the good that we see happening through the prayers, study, giving and going of our congregations. Even more powerful is the combined effect as we serve together in connectional mission. A strong outward focus of a congregation in the local community is an essential element of an effective congregation as a church. Many congregations are becoming more effective as they become more strategic in their missional priorities.

Churches of Excellence in Outreach

We celebrate that a few congregations in our conference have met the challenging requirements to be a Church of Excellence in Outreach. This requires that they create a holistic plan of mission that has local to global implications, has strong connectional elements, and involves the entire church in mission throughout the year. Requirements include:

1. Identify a Mission Leader who is approved by the church/charge conference
2. Establish missions as a priority for the entire church by:
   - Forming a Biblically based Mission Strategy.
   - Providing a means of communicating mission and outreach information on a regular basis within your church.
3. Plan and implement an annual mission celebration event.
4. Participate in the Global Ministry Missionary Covenant Relationship program or establish a continuing relationship with a United Methodist Missionary.
5. Participate in at least one sustained local mission outreach program.
6. Participate in a mission trip or mission project outside the local community.
7. Pay apportionments in full.
8. Collect special offerings or provide financial assistance to:
   - Housing and Homeless (2nd Sunday in February)
   - One Great Hour of Sharing/UMCOR Sunday (4th Sunday in Lent)
   - Wesley Woods (2nd Sunday in May)
   - Bishop’s Annual Conference Mission Appeal (Late May or Early June)
   - United Methodist Children’s Home/Wellroot Family Services (3rd Sunday in September)
9. Contribute to or participate in an Advance Project in four of the areas listed:
   - International Advance
   - National Advance
   - UMCOR material resources (cleaning buckets, health, or school kits)
   - North Georgia Conference Advance
   - District Advance (Contact your District Office for information)
10. Provide support for one of the North Georgia Bridge initiatives through participation, giving or hosting a workshop for any one of the Bridges.
We celebrate that the 2018 North Georgia Churches of Excellence in Outreach are:

- Carrollton First UMC
- Douglasville First UMC
- East Cobb UMC
- Northside UMC
- Oak Grove UMC
- Vinings UMC

300.b. Commission on Archives and History

Archives and History continues the important work of supporting the “ministry of memory.” We offer churches guidance and training in how they should properly preserve artifacts of the past. Though we do not hold local church, district, or conference records, we are able to help churches and individual churches identify agencies, offices and repositories that might hold the historical records they seek. Annual Conference Standing Rule D.8. identifies Pitts Theological Library at Candler Theological Seminary of Emory University as the depository for archival records of the North Georgia Conference.

We encourage local churches to apply for our Ministry of Memory recognition. The Ministry of Memory recognition is granted to churches who are celebrating quarter, half, three quarter, and century anniversary years and have completed the application process. The application is available on the Archive and History resource page at our Annual Conference’s website (https://www.ngumc.org/archiveshistory). This website also has links to several helpful resources that can guide the church in their work of preserving and celebrating the history of the local church.

The Commission is working with the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society to host their meeting July 9 through July 12 at Candler School of Theology. The meeting’s theme is Turning Points in Georgia Methodism. More information about Historical Society meeting can be found at http://pitts.emory.edu/collections/sejhs.cfm.

Greetings Beautiful People of North Georgia! As the incoming chair of your Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, I say “Hello” with the joy and love of Jesus Christ our Lord in each of the tongues spoken in our conference’s churches:

- Annyeonghaseyo! (Korean)
- ¡Buenas Dias! (Spanish)
- Hello! (English)
- Hey y'all! (Southern)
- O’ Si’ Yo! (Native American, Cherokee)

Your Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee is called to support pastors, laity and congregations from each of our ethnic local church constituencies here in North Georgia: African American, Native American, Hispanic and Korean communities. Our mission is equipping these pastors and churches with the tools and training to be effective in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our world. We are also tasked to build Christlike relationships between all of our churches and communities so that together, we become one with each other in Christ our Lord.

We began this new season of our work by calling together a Lead Team for ELCC. This team met in the spring to clarify our work and mission, understand what groundwork has been laid already, and prayerfully envision an exciting future for how this ministry will bless our conference.

Here are some of our goals for the upcoming year:

- Develop a conference wide directory of local churches engaged in multicultural ministry/ethnic local church ministry
- Offer resources to help churches and pastors become equipped with language acquisition resources for mission/evangelism
- Increase visibility and access for conference tools through this ministry including connections with Black, Latino, Korean, and Multicultural Church Development

If you are looking for resources for your local church to renew or start a ministry with one of the ethnic local communities in our conference, please reach out to us via robert.king@ngumc.net or 470-728-9288.

As we greet each other with the love of Christ in the languages spoken in our churches, we are sowing seeds that when nurtured will produce a harvest. This harvest of the fruit of the Spirit will help us edify our local churches and make more committed, passionate disciples of Jesus Christ who multiply the presence of Christ in the world! Yours in Christ.

Robert S. King, Chair,
Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee
The Evangelism Team continues to celebrate and encourage those for whom Sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ is a lifestyle. Many new disciples have made a commitment to following Jesus’ example of serving others. The North Georgia Annual Conference remains faithful in recognizing those who tell their story and explain “Why Jesus” in all aspects of their lives. Nomination for the Denman Evangelism Award is a powerful means of recognizing clergy, laity and youth who have made an impact by sharing their faith and partnering with others to encourage a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.

The conference website and the Center for Congregational Excellence are additional resources for empowering disciples in sharing the Good News as a way of life. As we become One with Each Other, let us remain faithful in being “a CATALYST for others to hear the Good News” (The Foundation for Evangelism – Vision).

Joyce E. Banks Gross, Chair

The continuing support for Native American Ministries from our Conference has enabled CONAM to provide scholarships for Native American students, the development of community through an annual spring gathering, and educational programing to enable Native Americans in North Georgia to overcome the cultural genocide that has been inflicted on them. We challenge our denomination to focus on issues that will help resolve our problems and to focus on how we, as the church, can overcome the past mistreatment of Native Americans. It is difficult to evangelize Native Americans in North Georgia because there remains an underlying culture of misunderstanding, resentment and prejudice against Native Americans.

One of the ways CONAM is working to overcome some of these obstacles is by encouraging all peoples to join together at our Spring Gathering in which we fellowship and worship Christ in a Native American style. Native American Elders (respected leaders) share in worship leadership. There is a “gifted” meal offered. Sharing the stories of the past provides a visible path forward for our people. North Georgia has many different tribes but we work together as one people and welcome other peoples to join us. Typically we have many tribal representatives from the Southeast including Cherokee, Muscogee (Creek), Chickasaw, Seminole, Choctaw – and originally from outside the Southeast – Abenaki, Apache, Arawak, Odawa, Powhatan and Blackfoot. We have also been blessed with African Americans and European Americans attending our Gatherings. May their numbers increase.

We encourage churches to receive the annual Special Sunday Offering authorized by the General Conference for Native American Ministries. Its main emphasis is on seminary scholarships and some college funds. Because Georgia has no federally recognized reservations, our North Georgia CONAM provides a scholarship to qualified NGA UM NA applicants. A love offering is received during the annual gatherings for those applicants.

Our gathering is for all peoples, not just Native Americans. It is for those who know or have heard they have Native American ancestry; those who (like John Wesley) have a heart for ministry with Native Americans; and those who are simply curious about Native Christian worship. We welcome all to our gathering. Delegates, please visit our display table during Conference. Information and sign-up cards are there for email updates and invitations to our activities.

In 2018 the Conference resumed support of the Southeastern Jurisdictional ministry known as SEJANAM and it is our hope that this support continues. Each SEJ Conference is asked to support SEJANAM with a $2,000 line item in their budget. We are grateful to the North Georgia Conference for its contribution to this Jurisdictional ministry and trust it will continue each year as long as SEJANAM remains underfunded or until ministry with Native Americans in the SE Jurisdiction is discontinued.

300.f. North Georgia Camp and Retreat Ministries, Inc.

Belonging and purpose. All of us yearn for these in our own lives, and we deeply hope to help our children and youth find them as they grow.

Since 1925, the Camp and Retreat Ministries of our North Georgia Conference have been providing accepting environments of belonging for discovery of God-given gifts and discernment of calling at Glisson. And now, with a robust family of summer ministry opportunities, our conference camping ministries has strengthened its partnership with our local congregations to offer unique faith-forming experiences that complement efforts to honor our covenant at baptism to raise these children in ways that lead to faith.

2018 was a significant year in the life of North Georgia Camp and Retreat Ministries Inc. Our family of ministries served 4,486 campers, marking an 8th-straight summer of record growth and an 82% increase since 2010. Quality and impact held as strong as ever, with survey respondents across programs reporting that 97% of campers “felt accepted as part of their living group” and 90% “grew closer to God while at camp.” 2018 also marked the early retirement of debt on the new dining hall that opened in April of 2015. And it saw the beginning of construction of an expansion of Glisson’s 68-year-old chapel, a $2.5 million project funded by the generosity of Glisson’s single largest ever gift.

North Georgia Camp and Retreat Ministries Inc. concluded a feasibility study begun in 2017. Its purpose was to test our ability to raise funds to replace, expand and enhance facilities and equipment as we continue to pursue the annual conference vision of doubling the number of summer campers we serve by 2020. The study report concluded that while NGCRM could successfully raise a significant portion of its capital goal, we would fall short of the full amount. The NGCRM Board of Directors decided to postpone launch of a campaign to work to increase giving potential and launched efforts designed to broaden the base of camp ministry support instead.

GLISSON – The programs of Glisson Camp and Retreat Center set a new record summer camp enrollment in 2018. Glisson’s three programs served 3,309 campers. Village and Sparrowwood programs served 2,660 campers. And the Outpost program grew by 8% over its 2017 camper numbers, serving 649 in 2018. Glisson’s year-round retreat ministry continues to grow, offering Christian hospitality to our conference children and youth retreats, our conference congregations, and many other churches and nonprofits.

GROW – For the first time in its short history, Grow Day Camps served over 1,000 campers in 2018. One thousand nineteen campers “grew” with 37 church partners at 32 sites, a full schedule of sites in 2018 after reducing the number of sites Grow served in 2017 to 28 in order to help launch Shoreline. In 2019, Grow plans to expand the number of church partner sites it serves to 37, enabling it to reach even more campers.

ELI – The Experiential Leadership Institute (ELI) gives rising high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to take a “deep dive” into how they’ve been gifted by God and how they may be called to be in service as servant leaders. After exploring Christian servant leadership for an intensive week, held in 2018 in partnership with LaGrange College, ELI participants then practice their leadership skills under the supervision of trained coaches as counselors for Grow Day Camps. ELI continues to grow in numbers as well as in individual impact, serving 77 participants in 2018. ELI sponsoring organizations in 2017 included the NGA Conference Board of Laity, LaGrange College and Young Harris College. Reinhardt College will join the 2019 group of ELI sponsors as host site.

SHORELINE – In its second summer, Shoreline Camps held two weeks of camp at Frank G. Lumpkin Boy Scout Camp in LaGrange. This new conference residential camp program allows children and youth to come to camp as a group from their churches. In addition to providing an incredible summer camp experience for campers, Shoreline leverages Grow and ELI’s understandings of travelling camps and leadership development to provide training for adult volunteers from local congregations to develop their skills in faith formation with children and students. Eighty-one campers participated in the Shoreline’s second summer, and plans to serve more congregations and their campers in 2019 are underway.

300.g. Peace with Justice Ministries

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. – Matthew 5:9

The Methodist movement has a long history of peace-making and peace-seeking.
Each year, the Sunday after Pentecost is designated as Peace with Justice Sunday. Funds collected through this special offering are shared equally between national Peace with Justice ministries through the General Board of Church and Society and local Peace with Justice ministries within the North Georgia Annual Conference. These funds are available for Peace with Justice grants to congregations for the launch of projects for peace building, reduction of violence, reconciliation, reduction of poverty, global health and/or the care of God’s creation. A special focus is on projects that seek to make changes to the root, structure or political framework that would create more justice and fairness.

In the 2017-2018 grant cycle, Peace with Justice grants supported community conversations on race and reconciliation in Rome, Georgia, through the Hearts United Gathering (HUGIII) collaboration between Rome First UMC, Metropolitan UMC, and Trinity UMC. Grants also helped provide educational opportunities for children in need through helping to launch Calhoun First UMC’s Book Blessings program and providing preschool scholarships through the Reach, Teach, Love for At-Risk Early Learners ministry at Roswell UMC.

In the 2018-2019 grant cycle, the Peace with Justice program was able to support the launch of an exciting new initiative of Columbia Drive UMC called Project New Balance, which, in partnership with the local police precinct, aims to provide safe space for young men in the community to find recreation.

If your congregation has not yet taken up a Peace with Justice offering this year, there is still time! You may take the offering any Sunday that works for you. In addition, if you are interested in launching a new project that focuses on structural change and the root causes of injustice, please consider applying for a Peace with Justice Grant. Grant applications are generally available in September, with a deadline in November. More information can be found at ngumc.org/peacewithjustice.

300.h. Persons Living in Poverty

Persons Living in Poverty is one of the Four Areas of Focus for The United Methodist Church: According to The United Methodist Church, Christ calls us to be in ministry with the poor and marginalized. Our emphasis is on “with” – standing with those who are regarded as “the least of these,” listening to them, understanding their needs and aspirations, and working with them to achieve their goals. It also means addressing the causes of poverty and responding in ways that lift up individuals and communities.

NGUMC Persons Living in Poverty promotes the engagement of North Georgia United Methodist churches and members in service and advocacy with and on behalf of the poor. The 2018 – 2019 year began with revising the Persons Living in Poverty web page on the NGUMC website. The intention was to provide more access to opportunities to serve those who are in need; provide information relevant to the issue of poverty and its effects on children and families; and introduce organizations and agencies that are engaged in eliminating poverty by addressing foundational issues in communities across the world.

Following the example of the General Board of Church and Society’s Persons Living in Poverty partnership with National United Methodist Women, NGUMC Persons Living in Poverty formed a working partnership with the North Georgia United Methodist Women. The partnership included hosting a Hunger 101 poverty seminar and simulation at the 2018 North Georgia UMC Annual Conference. Persons Living in Poverty, along with the North Georgia United Methodist Women and the Atlanta Community Food Bank, executed a two-hour interactive session that brought more than 70 attendees face to face with the hardships and difficult choices that thousands of families in Georgia make each day.

In follow up to annual conference, Persons Living in Poverty partnered with ACPK UMW in providing another poverty simulation at the ACPK UMW’s annual “Faith, Fun and Everyone.” More than 100 persons were in attendance.
In addition, Persons Living in Poverty facilitated a UMW book review of “The Same Sky” by Amanda Eyre Ward, at Warren Memorial UMC. The reading highlighted how poverty and violence compel families to take dangerous journeys to the U.S., with the hope and prayer of finding a better way of life.

Persons Living in Poverty and Advocacy – Advocacy is a key factor in eliminating poverty. Throughout this plan year, Persons Living in Poverty has offered several targeted opportunities for NGUMC members and churches to support children and families through service and action. Persons Living in Poverty has promoted participation in the Smart Lunch Smart Kid program led by Action Ministries; partnered with the NGUMW in an anti-human trafficking campaign; and provided advocacy opportunities on the supplemental nutrition assistance program, health care, immigration and other issues that affect children and families who are underserved and marginalized by poverty.

300.i. Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CCORR)

CCORR is a racially inclusive group from all over the conference who are Asian, Black, Latino, White, US citizens, immigrants, lay persons, local pastors, provisional and full connection deacons and elders, retired clergy, and a District Superintendent. Our work continues to be rooted in efforts to bring about racial reconciliation and inclusivity.

This work has included the following:

- CCORR discovered that one of our districts had an all-white dCOM which interviewed persons of color. We notified the bishop and cabinet and are now working to create a module on racial sensitivity to be a part of the training for members of dCOM. That dCOM is now more racial diverse.
- CCORR is working with Camp & Retreat Ministries and Youth Ministries to address issues of racism at youth events at Camp Glisson.
- CCORR continues to equip themselves with tools and resources by attending the Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication. This institute trains individuals and groups on how to navigate issues of racial/cultural injustice and to create workshops for racial inclusivity.
- CCORR continues to partner with Bishop Woodie W. White, Candler School of Theology, Ben Hill UMC, and lay and clergy from North Georgia to go with the SCLC WOMEN on their annual Civil Rights Heritage Tour. The tour includes stops at 16th Street Baptist Church, Coretta Scott King’s birth place, Montgomery, and Selma, and it concludes with a historic march across the Edmund Pettis Bridge with thousands of others in commemoration of the historic marches in 1965 that led to the Voting Rights Act. This is event is in March annually.
- CCORR is partnering with GCORR in DC to plan the next Facing the Future Conference for cross-racially appointed pastors. This conference will be in October 2020.
To accomplish these goals and actions, CCORR has been meeting bi-monthly to work together to ensure that our Conference is meeting the mandates put forth in the Book of Discipline as well as those given to us by Bishop Sue.

Our plans for the next conference year include the following:

- Lead a trip to the National Memorial for Peace and Justice (Lynching memorial) in Montgomery in September 2019.
- Lead a trip to the Immigration Detention Center in Lumpkin, GA (Date TBA).
- Training members of the CCORR to lead intercultural competency workshops so that we may offer it more broadly throughout the conference in the near future (¶ 643.3.b.).
- Work with the BOOM and dCOM to assist in providing them with an intercultural competency experience (¶ 643.3.c.).
- Training a team to assist the conference with its mandate to prepare congregations for cross-racial/cross-cultural appointments (¶ 643.3.e.).
- Commit to meet annually, as mandated, in a joint session with the Executive Committee of the BOOM, Cabinet, and CCORR (¶ 643.3.f.)

CCORR is grateful for the leadership and continued support from Bishop Sue Haupert-Johnson. We feel that the future of the North Georgia Conference is bright and will be more interculturally competent and racially inclusive.

300.j. North Georgia Young Adult Ministry

Like the Apostle Paul encouraged his mentee Timothy, the North Georgia Young Adult Ministry seeks to encourage, connect, and provide resources for young adult ministries and churches so that Christians from ages 18 to 35 can answer their call to follow and serve Jesus Christ in exciting, relevant ways.

In 2019, the young adults of North Georgia want to emphasize the importance of spiritual disciplines in all aspects of life. The council feels that everyone must take time for their mental, physical and spiritual health. Spiritual disciplines are a great way to begin taking proper care of yourself. In taking care of ourselves, we are then able to care for and move on to perfection in love with others. Through prayer, worship, serving and fasting, we are able to take a step back or take a deep breath and consider all options. In addition to spiritual disciplines, the council wants to encourage all people, and especially young people, to be in connection with one another. Through small groups, social media and even committees, the Holy Spirit can move in ways if every once in a while, we just sit and listen.
Being one with each other is being in community with each other. Let’s be the Church God calls us to be.

If you are looking for young adults in your district, contact Rachel Fullerton at fullerton.rachel@gmail.com. Look out for events coming to your district and the conference through social media.

Rachel Fullerton, President
North Georgia Young Adult Ministry
Action Ministries mobilizes communities to address the challenges of poverty by focusing on hunger relief, housing and education. Our ministry began in 1963 as an extension of the North Georgia Conference of the United Methodist Church in downtown Atlanta and has since grown to serve from 17 locations, with opportunities to partner in all 12 districts of the NGUMC. As a historic domestic bridge partner for the NGUMC, Action Ministries is an important resource to churches seeking local mission engagement with the poor.

From LaGrange to Augusta, Rome to Gainesville, Athens down to Covington, and all over Metro Atlanta, Action Ministries is ending hunger, ending homelessness, and closing the achievement gap through education. Last year just over 133,000 people were served across North Georgia through the power of partnership. Action Ministries relies on the support of over 15,000 volunteers and 2,100 partners to fulfill its mission, and the majority of our volunteers come from NGUMC connected churches.

The need remains high, where in Georgia…

- 1 out of 5 children have no idea where their next meal will come from
- 10,000 people on a given night remain homeless and alone
- 2 out of 3 third graders are not reading at grade level

Our work, with the help of hundreds of church partners, brings real solutions!

Although the causes of poverty are complex, we believe that real solutions begin with a simple act of serving. We believe that when people serve, they change. They change in perspective and in outlook, and develop relationships with new people in their community. A hallmark of our mission is volunteerism, and at Action Ministries that requires moving beyond “giving to” or “doing for,” and creates opportunities for people to “be with” those who come to us for help.

- Community Kitchens are a place of refuge for those living on the street, and food is served restaurant style where volunteers are encouraged to dine with our guests.
- Smart Kid! After School programs offer tutors the space to work with kids and their parents to build relationships that go beyond the classroom.
- Smart Lunch Smart Kid! strengthens communities as volunteers get to know their neighbors where meals, books, and activities are shared each summer.
- Helping families relocate into apartments from motels or after experiencing homelessness, builds stronger communities through our Welcome Home program.
- Elementary schools are supported by volunteers who deliver food and activities to kids through our SuperPack initiative to end weekend hunger each Friday.
- In 2018 we launched the WeServe! Day of Action, where multiple churches from diverse communities come together for an afternoon of service to end childhood hunger in their community. These events will create opportunities for 5,000 new volunteers in 2019.

Action Ministries is committed to being a resource for churches and communities across the entire NGUMC. Action Ministries is a partner not only in local mission work, but also in the process of making disciples by giving churches an avenue for service that allows people of faith to discern, serve and respond to God’s call.
Being a resource and ministry partner requires investment, and your support for the mission of Action Ministries as a related agency partner allows the mobilization of more than 15,000 volunteers to fulfill the needs of 133,000 of our neighbors each year.

Our current strategic plan identifies three key areas of focus:

1. Increase opportunities for volunteerism, reaching 30,000 volunteers by 2021
2. Increase financial and in-kind resources by engaging 100 new churches by 2021
3. Innovate to ensure that our mission serves “locally” in every community we call home

Thank you to our existing partners who have joined us in service to our neighbors throughout North Georgia. If your church is ready to serve but doesn’t know where to start…give us a call, and let our experience help you to get started today.

Together WE SERVE, and together we make a difference!

OUR MISSION

We help people with developmental disabilities lead meaningful and productive lives by providing them with residential support and recreational opportunities.

WELCOME HOME MINISTRY

We support people with developmental disabilities to live independent lives by assisting with rental deposits and providing furniture.

- We have assisted individuals to live in the Clarkston and Jonesboro area.
- With the help of Clarkston UMC, Lawrenceville Road UMC, Snellville, UMC and Jonesboro UMC, we furnished the apartments. Each church adopted a room and helped the individual feel welcomed to the community.

We also provide respite weekends for people who are living at home. This gives the caregivers some time off and provides people with a change of scenery.

CAMP COLLINSWOOD

Our beautiful Camp Collinswood on Lake Oconee offers a wonderful place for all of our Conference members to enjoy God’s world. The Camp, which is open to all, offers comfortable cottages, a fully equipped dining/meeting hall, a spacious pavilion, a lake front boathouse, a gazebo and dock. All of these facilities are fully accessible. We hope you will consider this beautiful and serene facility for your next church retreat or Emmaus Walk.

- We had many churches of the North Georgia Conference hold retreats and camps, including Madison First UMC, Loganville UMC, Griffin First UMC, Kingswood UMC, UMW Board meeting, Youth Leaders of the North Georgia Conference retreat, Clergy Spouses Retreat and others.

- The Lake Oconee Emmaus community, Madison FUMC, and North Metro Miracle League have been wonderful partners with the facility.

OUR GOAL

We are excited about our “new day” for the Aldersgate/Collinswood ministry as we explore new ways to partner with our churches and Conference to fully include people with developmental disabilities in the life of the church. We would like to help support churches that are interested in developing these ministries. 85% of families with a child with developmental disabilities are unchurched; we can help your church lower that number.

Anne Hansen, Executive Director, has years of experience working with older adults and individuals with disabilities. She previously worked in the state system and has a vast knowledge of resources for families. She serves as clergy in the Athens/Elberton District. Contact us at 404-327-9491 or www.aldersgatehomes.com if you have any questions or need more materials.

402. Methodist Foundation for Retired Ministers

For eighty years, the Methodist Foundation for Retired Ministers has carried out its mission of assisting retired clergy, their spouses, and their dependent children. After making a four million dollar gift to help the Annual Conference become fully funded (in 2016) in its Pre-’82 Pension liability, the resources of the Foundation are (as of our March Meeting) at a 2.8 million dollar level. We own one house (from the superannuate homes for retired clergy and spouses which the Annual Conference voted to sell when they became vacant). This home is inhabited by a surviving clergy spouse.

The Foundation has assisted with an annual gift to help fund the Retiree Medical Supplement provided to retired clergy and spouses by the Conference. With many of our clergy and their spouses and widows living in one of the Wesley Woods communities, a pledged gift of $1 million was completed this past year. It helped make necessary improvements and repairs and provided some financial assistance where needed by residents.

At our Fall 2018 meeting, it was agreed to fund a chaplain for both the Lanier Gardens and Talmadge Terrace communities of Wesley Woods. These two new chaplains are retired clergy serving and are now in place.

The officers and directors of the Foundation are excited about new opportunities for service. Our commitment is to find ways to better the lives of our clergy and spouses who have now retired.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year has been marked by noteworthy achievement and change at Murphy-Harpst. As we reflect, we have many reasons to celebrate our accomplishments and enthusiastically look forward! In 2018 we introduced Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) to our campus.

Thanks to a dedicated and hard-working special committee, we have implemented a new Strategic Plan that will help guide us forward. Our staff underwent intensive training to designate Murphy-Harpst as a Certified Trauma Informed Provider, enabling us to provide the best possible care for severely abused and neglected children. Our Specialized Foster Care achieved a record-breaking census 47 children. We partnered with Georgia Northwestern Technical College and started a GED Program for students to earn their degree; as of March 2019, 13 kids have already taken advantage of this opportunity. These are just a handful of the things made possible by our hardworking staff and dedicated supporters.

These accomplishments set the foundation for our goals and visions for FY 2019-2020. We will continue to focus on fully implementing TBRI throughout our organization. The Family First Prevention Services Act will provide opportunities to diversify our service lines, something critical to serving the 14,000+ children in DFCS custody in Georgia. Thanks to visionary leaders and dedicated volunteers, our children will spend the summer enjoying a new Multi-Purpose Track & Field as well as a completely renovated Ropes Course. We look forward to partnering in new and exciting ways with local churches; including work days, birthday parties, and more. Our relationship with the UGA Wesley Foundation will continue to grow and prosper.

The support of the North Georgia Conference is vital to the services we are able to provide these incredible children. As we strive towards the goal of being One with Each Other as a conference, know that we depend on all of you. It is only through the strength of your united support that we can provide life and hope to Georgia’s Most Vulnerable Children. On behalf of the Leadership Team, Board of Directors, and Staff of Murphy-Harpst, thank you for all that you and your congregations have done and continue to do to support the children in our care.

Michael “Scott” Merritt
President & CEO
Like all organizations that have navigated over a century of change, your United Methodist Children’s Home has long embraced and effectively responded to changes in the child welfare field through many creative innovations to our ministry. These innovations have not been driven or shaped by whim—they have been driven and shaped by a steadfast focus on our mission to serve children, young adults and families in need.

As we look towards our future, we are proud to introduce a new name that reflects both our tremendous growth and our unlimited potential, while preserving our deep foundations in The United Methodist Church. This new name, Wellroot Family Services, was borne out of the same steadfast focus on our mission and was the result of an intense process of research and planning. To be well-rooted is to be firmly planted, to feel stable, and to feel taken care of and secure. To be well-rooted is to have the support and love you need to become the person God intends for you to become.

Now, as Wellroot Family Services, The United Methodist Children’s Home continues to grow with a name that embodies our commitment to the children, young adults, and families we serve together as an agency of The North Georgia Conference—a commitment that has not wavered since the day we opened our doors.

The lives of children, young adults, and families are changed for the better because of you. In 2018, because of the support of The North Georgia Conference churches, together we were able to restore hope on the heels of hardship by:

- 614 children, teens, young adults, and families served
- 93 children found home—58 were reunited with their family, 35 were adopted
- 54 new families were approved to foster
- 3,969 individuals and churches invested time or financial donations to support those we serve
- 54,987 days of care were provided to children, teens, young adults, and families

Thank you for encouraging people to consider fostering, cultivating foster care ministry in your church and community, and your financial support of the Amazing Grace offering—100% of your gifts go directly to the children, young adults, and families in our care.

We are grateful for the long legacy of the Flea Market. In 2018 we offered thanks to God as we said goodbye to this tradition. Over 60 years of community building, awareness, and fund raising combined in a unique blend that leaves a legacy beyond donated items and sale days as part of our work in making families whole.

This year, we are especially excited about a new and innovative test of change. In addition to our work in Atlanta, Gainesville, Newnan and Augusta, in February in partnership with other key local stakeholders, including local congregations, the juvenile court system, Foundations, and DFACS, we launched an initiative aimed at better serving the needs of children and families in Troup County. One of the primary goals of this initiative is to help prevent Troup county children who are in state custody from having to be taken out of Troup County--out of their community--for help and support. We are confident the Holy Spirit will continue to work through this collaboration in a way that is redemptive for not only the children and families served, but for all of us who are involved in this ministry.

North Georgia Conference, your United Methodist Children's Home, now doing ministry as Wellroot Family Services, thanks you for your partnership and the critical role you play as we continue to work together in realizing, and acting on, a proven path to success for those in our care.

Richard Puckett, Director of Church Relations
On behalf of the ministry & staff of Wellroot Family Services, Hal Jones, CEO and President

405. Wesley Woods

The North Georgia Conference founded Wesley Woods in 1954 as an innovative, state of the art senior living community. Today Georgia leads the nation in population growth of older adults. Wesley Woods continues to be at the forefront of innovative older adult residential ministry by providing a safe, welcoming home where people can age with grace, vitality and purpose, regardless of income. In fact, 75% of those we serve require financial support to have a hot meal, receive personal care assistance or simply remain in their Wesley Woods home. That’s 1,350 older Georgians who would otherwise not have housing, meals or personal care services.

In July 2018, Karen Kagiyama joined Wesley Woods as the first O. Wayne Rollins Director of Pastoral Care. In this role, Kagiyama has worked to build a comprehensive pastoral care program to serve over 1800 residents across our ten Wesley Woods communities. In six short months our pastoral care team increased from two to seven, with plans to add an additional chaplain as we secure future funding. In each community, our Wesley Woods chaplains compassionately address the loneliness, grief and real losses that often accompany aging and point our residents toward the promises of community, healing and new life.

Each chaplain provides a full range of spiritual life activities in the community and engages local congregations in mission with Wesley Woods. They work closely with the service coordinators and life enrichment directors to attend to the needs of all residents in a wholistic approach to wellness, including spiritual wellness. Through worship, Bible study, prayer groups, pastoral counseling, hospital visits and attentive listening over a cup of coffee, our Wesley Woods chaplains share the presence of God with those who seek a deeper trust and faith as they face life’s challenges.

In addition to Kagiyama, the team includes: Sharon Edgar, Susan Amick, Nancy Long, Rick Nevard, Carol Scroggs and Jim Stapleford

In February 2019, we welcomed Diane Vaughan as the new President of the Foundation of Wesley Woods. Vaughan spent 30 years with Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta where she established the Aflac Cancer Center. Diane brings a broad understanding of philanthropic fundraising. She is deeply connected in faith and discipleship as a member of Marietta First UMC and feels truly called for such a time as this.

The ministry of Wesley Woods continues to thrive because of the generous giving of our United Methodist Churches across North Georgia through the Mother’s Day Offering and through acts of mission and service with our communities. We live into the heart of Jesus’ call to care for the least of these. We believe that aging is a gift from God that requires care and nurture. With your help, Wesley Woods will continue to be a community where each person lives into their calling to be a disciple of Jesus where transformation continues through the gift of aging with God’s grace and blessing. Grace and Peace.

500. Conference Board of Laity

Throughout North Georgia, the laity of this great Conference display our theme of “One with Christ, One with each other and One in ministry to all the world” on a daily basis.

As I travel around the Conference and meet with so many of you, I am proud to say that we live into our baptismal covenant with one other and the world. In our spheres of influence, we boldly share the Good News of Christ with a hurt and divided world. We provide meals to those who are hungry, comfort to those who are grieving and love to those who need to hear that someone truly loves and cares for them.

Over the next few pages, the various ministries that are supported by your Conference Board of Laity will be highlighted. We continue to employ Lay Servants at every level of our church. Graduates from Leadership UMC and Leadership UMC Advanced continue to assume the role of leadership in our local churches, our Annual Conference and our general church. Our Scouting Ministry, which includes Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Big Brothers Big Sisters, is experiencing phenomenal growth due to a strong leadership team and a commitment to the mission.

Our laity lead at every level of the church and I will continue to endeavor to move laity to the forefront in leadership roles. It is because of your strong commitment to honor your membership vows and show love to all persons, that we continue to be a vibrant and thriving movement throughout North Georgia.

I am honored to be your Conference Lay Leader and will continue to highlight the great ministry that we do together as One with Christ.

501. United Methodist Women

United Methodist Women celebrates 150 years of mission with women, children and youth through advocacy, action and education. The North Georgia Conference United Methodist Women’s 2019 theme, “A Sisterhood of Grace” is being used to celebrate the legacy, to embrace the vision and goals, and to respond to God’s call to be a community of women supporting one another and others.

United Methodist Women have been engaged in bold initiatives and actions in celebration of the 150 years of mission. Local units and Districts throughout the conference held events on March 23rd, which was the 150th Anniversary date. Celebrations started in 2018 and will culminate with the NGC United Methodist Women Annual Meeting to be held at Dunwoody United Methodist Church, on Saturday, October 5, 2019.

The 150th Anniversary celebration began with the National Assembly held in Columbus, Ohio, May 18-20, 2018, where 150 NGC United Methodist Women members were among the 6,000 members and supporters gathered to demonstrate “The Power of Bold.” Assembly participants had the opportunity to select from over 90 different workshops on leadership development, service and advocacy, spiritual growth and transformative education, visit more than 50 exhibits and join in a “Rally for Living Wages” to support an increase in the Ohio minimum wage rate. The NGC United Methodist Women sponsored six first-time attendees through a partial scholarship. Scholarship recipients shared the value of their experiences during the 2018 Annual Conference Breakfast and Annual Meeting Luncheon.

April 2018 was a time of action for members of NGC United Methodist Women. Four bold women made the inaugural NGC United Methodist Women Mission Trip to the Red Bird Missionary Conference in Kentucky. The women participated in the Mission u study “Missionary Conferences of the United Methodist Church in the US” and felt the call of God to act. In April 2019, the second trip was made with 22 members making the trip. Both groups were blessed to be in service with the residents of Red Bird Missionary Conference and to enjoy the sisterhood of being in service with each other.
Super Bowl LIII was held in Atlanta, Georgia and the North Georgia Conference hosted the United Methodist Women National Organization’s 10th Annual Human Trafficking Event. “Running Out the Clock on Human Trafficking,” was the theme for the two-day event held on January 25-26, 2019 at Hoosier Memorial United Methodist Church. More than 200-250 members and supporters from churches around the conference, representatives from the South Georgia Conference United Methodist Women, and National Staff Executives Susie Johnson and Yvette Richards were in attendance. Partners for the event included Bishop Sue Haupert-Johnson; North Georgia Center for Congregational Excellence; Murphy Harpst Children’s Center; Tapestri; 4Sarah; Men Stopping Violence; Covenant House; Georgia Cares; Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.; Clark Atlanta University; and Paine College. Speakers included a State Senator, Dekalb County Assistant District Attorney, Internet Crimes Against Children Detective, Civil Lawyers Against Sex Slavery (CLAWS) Executive, and Human Trafficking 101/Advocacy and Action Advocate training. Action by participants at the end of the Saturday session included canvassing businesses to share information and post signage on Human Trafficking Awareness. All participants left with the challenge to be a human trafficking interrupter – “See Something - Say Something - Do Something”.

The bi-annual Spiritual Growth/Social Action Event held May 3-4, 2019, at the Rock Eagle 4H Camp, Eatonton, GA, provided an opportunity to celebrate the legacy in conjunction with spiritual development and the mission emphasis “The School to Prison Pipeline.” Alisha Gordon, Candler School of Theology graduate and former National United Methodist Women Executive for Spiritual Growth was the worship leader. Cleopatra Warren, author, teacher, researcher and facilitator led a discussion on the book “Pushout” by Monique Morris from the United Methodist Women Reading Program. Pamela Perkins-Carn shared information and action to be taken on behalf of Ending Mass Incarceration in Georgia. Scholarships were available for first time attendees and young women between the ages 18-26-year-olds. Participants left the event prepared to be interrupters of another social injustice issue – Mass Incarceration.

United Methodist Men of North Georgia

Helping Men Grow in Christ, So Others May Know Christ

United Methodist Men continues to promote and grow Men’s fellowship through vibrant local ministries across the Conference. We offer men the opportunity to know Jesus through Service, Faith, Worship, Leadership, Learning, and Fellowship. We are increasing our efforts to reach and connect with congregations, both large and small, while intentionally reaching out to men of all ages in inviting participation in the ministries of the church. We are actively visiting and connecting in person with men and providing discipleship, leadership training support, and material to support our men in congregations all over the conference!

We actively seek new and exciting methods and approaches to engage younger men in our ministry in North Georgia, the Southeastern Jurisdiction and the United States. We are embracing, supporting and engaging younger men in roles that have been traditionally filled by more senior faithful. By year end, the United Methodist Men of North Georgia expects to have an active, trained, energized and vital District President in each District.

In August 2018, the United Methodist Men of the North Georgia Conference finalized an agreement to share office space at the United Methodist Children’s Home located in Tucker, Georgia. We have had several meetings and workshops over the year and expect to do more in 2019 and beyond. More importantly, we are looking to build a more supportive relationship with this ministry.

Young(ER) men take the lead. Odell Horne, Jr. leads our Young(ER) Men’s Ministry and continues to provide inspired and committed leadership in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. He has infused the conference leadership team with new energy and spirit. Mr. Horne applied for and received a grant to grow this ministry. He travels throughout the Conference and Jurisdiction to encourage men at every level of church leadership to consider transformational change to seed and nurture Young(ER) Men’s ministries in North Georgia, the Southeastern Jurisdiction and around the country.

We continue to recruit and encourage younger men to participate as local, district, and conference UMM ministry leaders. We are re-tooling and re-branding the ministry and deploying fresh approaches to ministry with crossover appeal to more senior congregants. Yet our mission to support the development of disciples for Jesus Christ remains unchanged.

We are transitioning our leadership team as we continue to train and appeal to younger men. We fully expect half of the 12 District Presidents in North Georgia to be less than 50 years of age by the end of 2019. That is inspiring and exciting for the future of this ministry. UMM leadership is developing orderly succession planning to repurpose the experience men to preserve wisdom and lessons learned.

As we reported last year at this time, Augusta was our target District for reconnection and renewal. We are making good on that promise. This year, we visited Augusta churches, partnered with the DS (Terry Fleming), and identified a prospective District President candidate. We plan to complete this objective in May of 2019 and will announce that individual in our Annual UMM Business Meeting in July in Atlanta.

We are utilizing and improving how we leverage telecom technology and social media to facilitate and coordinate a series of online and in-person meetings, trainings, and fellowship events. Our focus on connected ministry has resulted in a substantial uptick in the services we provide both domestically and globally. We are partnered with global ministries in the Caribbean, South America, Liberia and the Republic of the Congo.

Here is a synopsis of what we do to impact lives as disciples of Jesus Christ and how we encourage men to be active in their contemplation of God:

We demonstrate our commitment to growth and spiritual development of God’s children. North Georgia scouting leadership sets the bar for scouting excellence very high. This team is recognized every year as the “Best of the Best” and we thank God for them. The Conference men provide financial support each year along with several men who are lifelong devotees to scouting. Chris Karabinos, awarded the Leadership Award from the North Georgia Conference in 2018, has assembled a successful organization structure and an impressive team of leaders across the conference to carry out the mission of scouting organization. Scouting Coordinators and Commissioners are being recruited and retained in every district. There are a number of scouting events for young people and training events for leadership scheduled for 2019 that will continue to be supported by the UMM.

We serve God’s children in need. Our men distributed over 40,000 pounds of produce from the Society of St. Andrew. We continue to support food banks and soup kitchens throughout the conference. Each holiday season, our men serve God’s people in need in every district in the conference. In the Griffin District, we serve nearly 500 people with food and clothing and other provisions at Forest Park UMC. UMM recently sponsored a Father/Child campout at Camp Glisson with Peachtree Road and Andrews Chapel UMC with nearly 100 campers where we held a service event as well. This was a real testament to God’s glory where we demonstrated how we are indeed one in the spirit. We intend to expand this pilot to invite many more churches over the next several years. We know that God is capable of so much more. The next campout is scheduled for October 25-27th 2019 at Camp Glisson.

We honor God by our love in action. In the Marietta District, committed men supported Habitat for Humanity missions through McEachern UMC. We promoted Early Response Training (ERT) around the conference through UMCOR. We provided manpower to the disaster response effort in Alabama, Florida, South Carolina and elsewhere. The LaGrange District held shoe drives.

In Powder Springs, we manned car repair centers and car giveaways to needy parishioners. In the Northwest District, the UMM provides firewood for heating the homes of those in need. In Griffin, Atlanta-Decatur Oxford, and Gainesville we supported veterans in need who have suffered debilitating injury and have a problem registering for the benefits they have earned with their sacrifice.

Our brothers in College Park reported a laser focus on outreach including missions, prison ministry, AND clothing drives in the district. College Park continues to contribute the Bikes and Bibles mission to provide transportation to clergy on the continent of Africa. Ben Hill UMM partnered with Christ the King, First Presbyterian, Northside Church, Our Lady of Lourdes, Haygood UMC, Northwest Presbyterian and Habitat for Humanity to construct a home in southeast Atlanta.

In the Northwest District, volunteers provided service and repairs at Mountain Top Boys Home and Camp Glisson. These men also sponsored several fellowship events such as annual barbecues, ice cream socials and other events to raise fund for service and ministry and to bring communities closer together.
Athens-Elberton under the direction of our conference UMM treasurer, Leon Jourolmon, continues to be one of the conference’s top supporters and contributors to the Bikes and Bible Ministry. Athens-Elberton is one of the leading UMM Districts for sustained charters and viable local units.

We worship and celebrate God through learning and social action. We are steady in our commitment to prison ministry partnering through organizations such as Kairos. This ministry works to reduce prisoner recidivism and heal families. We oppose domestic violence and work with AMEND Together, a ministry that works to eliminate domestic violence and abuse of women. Ending violence against woman and girls at the hand of men will be the focus of our 2019 Men’s Ministry Rally. We oppose street violence and speak against civil injustice. Through our outreach efforts, we deliver Strength for Service and New Testament devotionals to active Military and First Responders.

Our men are delivering and receiving training to carry out our mission. Our Leadership Development team strives to deliver updated local and district leadership training hosted at churches around the conference. In 2019 we will again provide on-site training from the GCUMM deployed staff to develop disciples including “Missions and Visions”, “Understanding Men’s Ministries”, and “Lead like Jesus”.

We show up wherever there is need. Our ministry equips and supports domestic and international mission teams who bring the Gospel to indigenous peoples in their own language. Men across the conference support their local churches, communities, and regions around the world. Our men prepare, serve and deliver meals to the hungry, maintain the church and community facilities, build wheelchair ramps, engage men through car maintenance ministries, spiritual growth retreats, bible studies, Sunday school, prayer meetings, and a myriad of other service areas.

Last year, the North Georgia UMM completed the legal and organizational requirement to standup the Atlanta affiliate of Mobility Worldwide. Mobility Worldwide-Atlanta is producing carts in North Georgia in 2019 under the leadership of our immediate past UMM President, Cary Loesing. The North Georgia Conference UMM recently allocated $3000 to fabricate, assemble and ship Mobility Worldwide Personal Energy Transportation (PET) carts to people in need. Our goal is to establish four locations in North Georgia where we invite local churches to become active contributors to this life-changing mission.

In Memoriam. The United Methodist Men of North Georgia salutes our dear brother Jasper Russell who passed after decades of leadership and service to The United Methodist Church and to the United Methodist Men in North Georgia. Brother Jasper Russell was former UMM Conference President, the Conference Hunger Advocate and a trusted advisor to the Conference President at the time of his passing. We pray God’s blessing on his family.

Join us for our 2019 UMMen Igniting Faith Retreat at Johns Creek United Methodist Church, Saturday, August 24, 2019. Our theme is “Finding Freedom in The Fear of God”. This will be a one-day event with a new and exciting format.

Finally, each day, we strive to respond quickly and decisively to the call for help from men looking for service, resources and leadership. We respond by leveraging every resource at our disposal. Call on us to grow your ministry, our promise to you is as follows and I quote Gil Hanke, CEO/General Secretary of the GCUMM: “If we have it, you can get it. If we don’t have it, we will find it. If we can’t find it, we will build it.” One in Christ,

Louis D. Johnson, UMM President
The mission of Scouting as a Ministry in the United Methodist Church is to sprinkle seeds of Christ on the paths of boys, girls, and their families through Scouting programs in our churches. This includes Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Big Brothers Big Sisters in North Georgia. We do this by focusing on two key objectives: (1) starting new Packs, Troops, Crews and Big Brother Programs associated with our youth-serving partners mentioned above, and (2) encouraging our churches and Scout leaders to include Duty-to-God activities in their Scout programs.

New Units: Scouting in the North Georgia Conference continues to grow as churches with and without Scouting have started many new packs, troops and crews. There have been 20 new Packs, Troops and Crews started over the past 12 months including:

- 5 Girl Scout Troops
- 2 Cub Scout Packs
- 2 BSA Boy Troops
- 10 BSA Girl Troops
- 1 Venture Crew
- 20 Total Units

This increases our total count to 812 total units, which includes 524 Boy Scout units and 288 Girl Scout troops.

Membership Growth: These 812 units have a total of approximately 19,500 boys and girls enrolled in them. With the number of churches we are talking with in the Conference which are interested in starting new Scout units, we are excited about the possibility of exceeding 20,000 youth by the 2020 Annual Conference.

Introducing Christ to Youth: One of the ways we know we are sprinkling seeds of Christ with our Scout youth is by having boys and girls complete the God & Country (P.R.A.Y.) program through our churches. These programs typically take 3, 6 or 9 months to complete and require serious study by the youth. The UMCOS reports that 75 churches had at least one youth complete a program in 2018 with a total of 357 youth completing programs. This number is up 29% over 2017 and is double what our youth earned in 2015.

Conference Scout Team: The North Georgia United Methodist Committee on Scouting (UMCOS) continues to grow and now has 27 team members as it supports 308 churches that sponsor at least one Boy Scout unit or host a Girl Scout troop.

Much of the growth in units, membership and P.R.A.Y. participation can be attributed to the Bishop’s Scout Lunch held in April 2018. Bishop Sue’s speech supporting Scouting as an Outreach ministry and Rev Luis Ortiz’s passionate testimonial that Scouting is an evangelical tool to sprinkle seeds of Christ with our youth generated a lot of increased interest in these programs.

I would like to thank the dedicated members of the UMCOS for their passionate belief that Scouting is a ministry and for their hard work making it so. We also want to thank the hundreds of ministers and lay leaders, and thousands of Scout leaders around the Conference for their incredible support of Scouting. You all are truly making a difference in the lives of the youth we serve through Scouting.

Chris Karabinos, North Georgia Conference Scout Coordinator

In August of 2018, L. Gregory Jones, the Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Jr. Distinguished Professor of Theology and Christian Ministry, began serving as dean following Elaine Heath’s departure. Jones, who earned M.Div. and Ph.D. degrees from Duke, was previously dean of Duke Divinity from 1997-2010. Jones was asked to lead the school in enhancing its ties with church constituencies, strengthening its academic credibility, attending to cultural challenges, and addressing financial challenges. As he assumed the role of dean, Jones noted, “We need to build bridges across various divides in the church, the academy, and across society. Christian faith can play a significant role in this bridge building.” This academic year Duke Divinity School has been working steadily on these tasks.

Admissions: Duke Divinity School welcomed an entering class of approximately 200 new students from 30 different states and several countries, including China, South Korea, the UK, and Zimbabwe. Our Master of Divinity program remains central to our identity, enrolling 112 students. Our Master of Theological Studies and Master of Arts in Christian Practice programs received enrollments of 24 students and 14 students, respectively. The Master of Theology (nine students), Doctor of Ministry (22 students), and Doctor of Theology (four students) all had strong enrollment. Our new Certificate in Theology and Health Care saw enrollment double this year to eight students. The ages of students enrolled in the M.Div. program range from 21 to 69, with a median age of 23, and students from minority groups comprised more than 22 percent of incoming M.Div. students, with black students making up 15 percent. Across all degree programs at the Divinity School, 32 percent of the incoming class identified as a race/ethnicity other than white (an increase from 26 percent last year). Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Hispanic students, two percent; Asian students, seven percent; and American Indian students, one percent. For the first time, the majority of students entering the Doctor of Ministry program identify as an ethnic group other than white. Female students made up 51 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 49 percent. It was only the second time in school history that the incoming cohort of M.Div. students had a female majority (2005 being the other year). Across the degree programs, 42 percent of students in the incoming class were female, and 58 percent were male. There were 23 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 55 percent affiliated with the United Methodist Church (up from 41 percent last year). Nondenominational students made up 17 percent of the new M.Div. students; Baptists, eight percent; and Anglican-Episcopal, three percent.

New Faculty: Several new faculty members joined the Divinity School community in July 2018, demonstrating Duke Divinity School’s ongoing commitment to the church, the academy, and the church’s witness in the world.

- Christopher Beeley, the Jack and Barbara Bovender Professor of Theology, Anglican Studies, and Ministry and director of the Anglican Episcopal House of Studies, is an Anglican priest and a founding member of the Episcopal Gathering of Leaders. He has ministered in parishes in Texas, Indiana, Virginia, and Connecticut. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Beeley taught for 16 years at Yale Divinity School.
- David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and black church studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies, is ordained in the National Baptist Convention, USA, and serves in leadership capacities with the NAACP, Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and the Baptist World Alliance and the World Council of Churches. He was for 23 years the executive director of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

- Jan Holton, associate professor of the practice of pastoral theology and care, is an ordained elder in the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Holton most recently served in an extension ministry with Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services (IRIS) in New Haven, Conn., and was a member of the faculty at Yale Divinity School from 2006 to 2015.

- Patrick T. Smith, associate research professor of theological ethics and bioethics and a senior fellow at the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University, is also associate faculty with Trent Center for Bioethics, Humanities, and the History of Medicine. Smith is licensed and ordained with the National Baptist Convention, USA and comes to Duke from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and Harvard Medical School.

United Methodists: Professor Kate Bowler's memoir, Everything Happens for a Reason: And Other Lies I've Loved, made The New York Times’ hardcover nonfiction bestseller list and received significant national recognition in mainstream and Christian media. The related podcast, “Everything Happens with Kate Bowler,” returns for a second season with new episodes on how people have faced dark times in their lives. Bowler, Sujin Pak, and Edgardo Colon-Emeric, all United Methodist faculty members, received tenure and promotion to the rank of associate professor in recent months. On July 1, 2018, Pak began serving as vice dean of academic affairs and Colon-Emeric started as director of the Center for Reconciliation. Jeff Conklin-Miller began serving as director of the Methodist House of Studies at the same time. Beginning February 1, 2019, Laceye Warner fills the new role of associate dean for Wesleyan engagement.

Looking to the Future: The Divinity School continues to discern fresh strategies to respond faithfully and wisely to the changing dynamics of the church, the academy, and the world. An example of our strategic work is a new focus throughout the school on Thriving Communities. Through this focus we are concentrating on the centrality of healthy congregations and gifted pastors in cultivating thriving communities. This approach offers opportunities to build on Duke Divinity School’s traditional strengths, but in a new key. We look forward to cultivating even stronger synergies among our work with the Clergy Health Initiative, Thriving Rural Communities, Hispanic House of Studies, and a revised Field Education program (all generously supported by The Duke Endowment), alongside longstanding commitments to the Office of Black Church Studies, the Anglican/Episcopal and Baptist Houses of Study, and initiatives in Leadership Education; Theology and the Arts; and Theology, Medicine, and Culture.

Duke Divinity School is grateful for the strong ties that bind “the people called Methodist,” and we look forward to serving together as we bear witness to God’s future with hope.

1. Each resolution must address only one issue if the Discipline is not affected; if the Discipline is affected, each resolution must address only one paragraph of the Discipline, except that, if two or more paragraphs in the Discipline are so closely related that a change in one affects the others, the petition may call for the amendment of those paragraphs also to make them consistent with one another (¶507.2. The Book of Discipline).
2. The resolution is to be written in the following format: “whereas, whereas, whereas … therefore be it resolved” structure and submitted in 12 point, Times New Roman font, single spaced, with the following margins: top 1.25”; bottom 1”; left 1”; right 1.25”.

Before the debate of any such resolutions, the conference chancellor, or his/her designate, will speak before the conference and share his/her legal opinions concerning the resolution(s).

6. If the committee on resolutions determines a resolution involves the work of a conference agency, the committee on resolutions will request an opinion or comment from the respective agency or agencies. 701. Helping to End Suicide in the Church Amongst At-Risk Individuals

WHEREAS, The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that “We believe that suicide is not the way a human life should end,” and “The church has an obligation to see that all persons have access to needed pastoral and medical care and therapy in those circumstances that lead to loss of self-worth, suicidal despair, and/or the desire to seek physician-assisted suicide,” as well as “...seeking always to remove the oppressive stigma around suicide” (¶161.O. of The Book of Discipline, 2016); and

WHEREAS, suicide consistently ranks highly amongst the top causes of death in the United States and is the second leading cause of death amongst the age groups 10-14, 15-24, and 25-34 (CDC’s 2017 Ten Leading Causes of Death in the United States Report); and
WHEREAS, “Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) youth are 2 to 3 times more likely to attempt suicide than straight youth,” and “LGBTQ teens are six times more likely to experience symptoms of depression than the general population” (National Alliance on Mental Illness);

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Center for Congregational Excellence in partnership with the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall strive to develop guidance for Ministers and Youth Leaders that recognizes suicide as a legitimate problem, advocates for active intervention, and understands how lecturing creates nothing but guilt and wastes valuable time and trust. This guidance should be available for use whenever the threat of suicide is made apparent in the Church or community. Recognizing causes of suicide among youth, including the above cited statistics that lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning youth are 2 to 3 times more likely to attempt suicide than youth who identify as straight, the guidance should be centered around defusing the situation by focusing on the fact that the risk of suicide and that individual’s safety trumps any sort of judgement on behavior. And after immediate danger has passed, the process of recovery should be focused on accountability in love.

This resolution was approved and endorsed by the Conference Council on Youth Ministries on January 28, 2019.

Departing clergy shall vacate their parsonages by one o'clock on the afternoon of Moving Day. District superintendents shall encourage the pastoral charges to pay moving expenses for newly assigned clergy moving within the bounds of the North Georgia Conference.

D.3. Pastoral Transition and Expenses
The last Sunday for pastors leaving a church will be the last Sunday of June. Move Day will be on the Tuesday following the last Sunday in June, and pastors shall vacate parsonages no later than 1:00 p.m. on this date. The first Sunday in July will be transitional leave for moving pastors. The incoming pastor’s first day in the office will be the first business day after July 4. The incoming pastor’s first day in the pulpit will be the second Sunday of July. If unusual circumstances prevail, the cabinet may change these dates to more suitable ones; provided, further, the secretary of the cabinet shall have notice of the change published on the North Georgia Conference website not fewer than ninety (90) days prior to the convening of annual conference. Churches receiving new pastors shall pay the moving expenses of the clergy, not to exceed $6,000. The amount paid shall be reported in accordance with IRS code.

Rationale:
The Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) and the Cabinet sought clarity in the relationship between move-day, a transition Sunday and the first day in a new church, as well as equity in clergy moving expenses paid by the receiving church. July 1 is the official start date of the conference year. Churches and clergy sought more time after the close of the annual conference session to prepare for leave-taking. The proposed schedule moves the process closer to the beginning of the conference year. The BOM projects a schedule that also includes a Transition Sunday between leaving one church and beginning ministry at the new appointment. Often the clergy person begins working immediately while the family is left to find their way in a new environment. Setting an average cost for moving expenses in the conference helps churches budget accordingly. A survey of moving costs determined the $6,000 proposed limit was the average cost for moving expenses.

800.c. Proposed Amendment to Standing Rule E.3.

Effective 1/1/20

E. 3. District Superintendents’ and Financial Support — The support of the district Superintendents, including their salaries, pensions, insurance (subject to the same insurance rules for other clergy) shall be provided by the annual conference, through conference council on finance and administration. Housing, utilities, office expenses, travel and district work funds shall be provided by the respective districts. Expenses related to cabinet meetings will be funded by the conference budget.

E. 3. District Superintendents and District Office Financial Support

The Conference apportionments will fund the following expenses: (1) district superintendent salaries, pensions, insurance (subject to the same insurance rules for other clergy); (2) district superintendent business expenses, including all travel and all business expenses; (3) salaries, pensions and insurance for the conference-employed administrative assistants assigned to the district offices (subject to the same rules for other conference lay staff).

The Districts will be responsible for funding the following expenses, via District Work Fund apportionments and/or other sources: (1) district superintendent housing allowance ($32,749 per annum in 2018-2019) or parsonage and utilities ($5,000 in 2018-2019); (2) District Office overhead/support expenses such as rent/mortgage, utilities, property and liability insurance, supplies, equipment rental, etc.; (3) District-specific missional initiatives and programs; (4) District-specific meetings.

(See attached flowcharts for justification and further discussion)

Rationales for Revisions to Standing Rule E.3:

District Superintendents are employees of the Conference, not the District. Currently, the Standing Rule provides that the DSs request reimbursement for expenses from two sources:

1. The District Work Fund (DWF)
2. The Conference Cabinet Fund (Conference Budget)

Both sources are apportioned and paid by the churches. Providing for 2 sources can and has caused contention between the Districts and the Treasurer’s Office about “who pays for what?” Further, amounts budget by the DWFs vary, with one District budgeting as much as $19,000 for expenses.

Recommendation: Revise the Standing Rule to provide for the Conference apportionment budget to fund all DS business expenses. This would help to facilitate the simplification of expense reporting using the “Concur” expense reporting application. This would be a “net budget neutral” change, by all Districts removing those amounts from their DWF Budget and increasing the Conference Cabinet Fund by a like amount.

Again, this is a “budget neutral” proposal that improves internal control and simplifies transaction flow. Please refer to flow chart for further analysis District Administrative Assistants (DAAs) are employees of the Conference, not the District. Due to their assignment in a District Office (DO), it is natural that they might identify more closely with their district, but legally and tax-wise, they are Conference employees.

Currently, the Conference fulfills the payroll for all DAAs. The Conference issues the W-2s for them, using the Conference’s Employer ID Number. The Conference Treasurer’s Office pays the DAAs from DWF apportionments, not Conference apportionments. Please refer to the flowchart for further analysis of this transaction flow.

Recommendation: Revise the Standing Rule to provide for the apportionments to fund DAA payroll and be consolidated in the Conference budget and thus eliminated from the DWF budgets. This would align the funding for these conference employees (administrative assistants assigned to the district offices) with other conference-employed lay staff.

This is also a “budget neutral” proposal and the funding would be facilitated in the same way as the DS reimbursements.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is that we reclaim our Wesleyan roots of both personal piety and social holiness. By nurturing souls through the ministries in our local churches, Fresh Expressions, and other venues, we can cultivate an ever-growing community of people who are centering their lives on Jesus Christ. I imagine a church where we know how to interpret Scripture using tradition, reason, and experience. I imagine a church guiding people to take time with the Lord in prayer. I imagine a church where we seek to “clothe [ourselves] with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony” (Colossians 3:14). When I imagine this church, it is diverse because our whole world needs to be clothed in love. This church will be gathered around the Table together singing hymns and praying together. We will resist evil in whatever forms it presents itself with courage and even a bit of joy, because we know that we co-labor with Holy Spirit empowered people. I imagine a church that will help younger generations find hope and peace in the midst of a high-stress, anxiety-inducing culture. I imagine a church that will help older generations find comfort, meaning, and endurance as they live in a culture that privileges youth. I imagine a church where my young sons (and the rest of us) may experience a love so profound that it drives them to embody love everywhere that they go such that the world may be transformed in the name of Jesus.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I have a vision for a church that is global, contextual, rooted in our Wesleyan heritage, and innovative in how we live out the witness and ministry of Jesus Christ. While I believe we do and should fully embrace our core tenants of faith, we must now also embrace new, creative models of church that tell the story of Jesus that called us to faith in the first place. If elected to the delegation to General Conference for 2020, I will bring to it prior experience as a reserve delegate to General Conference, experience leading local churches, experience serving on the team of one of our vital annual conference agencies, and a strong desire to continue supporting and cultivating new, young leaders for the church.

My love for our shared ministry compels me to help usher in a new era of effective leadership here and throughout the world. This has also helped me discern the call to submit my name for consideration. I love the United Methodist Church for how it has formed me around Scripture, Font, and Table. I love and serve the church because it models a faithful relationship between heart and mind for living out of Christian faith. Reflecting on my experience as a reserve delegate in St. Louis, I can see how strong our church could be and how much work we must do to move it forward. I believe I have experience and skills to help make that renewal a reality.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Having served in the North Georgia Annual Conference for thirty years as Pastor, District Superintendent and Director of Connectional Ministries, I have had the privilege of serving in ministry alongside the committed and talented laity and clergy of North Georgia in a variety of North American settings, including transitional, suburban and rural communities. However, I’ve also been blessed with the opportunity to build relationships and serve in mission and ministry alongside United Methodist brothers and sisters in Mexico, Africa and the Philippines. I’ve had the privilege of learning how they witness to the least, last and lost by engaging and assisting their communities to improve global health and alleviate hunger. I’ve learned how they equip neighbors with skills that sustain both their personal lives and improve the well-being of their communities by ending poverty. I’ve learned how they plant churches that plant other churches which transform the lives of people within and beyond the church with the grace of Jesus Christ. As a clergy member of the North Georgia Conference Delegation in 2016 and 2019, I have seen special interest groups representing different views nearly destroy each other and the church that so many of us - lay and clergy - have served. If I am elected to serve as a delegate to GC 2020, I will commit myself to building bridges that redeem and restore our connections to each other and our witness to all those around the world still in need of God's Grace.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I am a centrist who is tired of watching my beloved church tear itself apart. I pray for a global denomination that remains true to its grace-filled Wesleyan roots and yet is streamlined and flexible enough to fulfill its mission. I have traditionalist friends who love Jesus and are passionate and effective in making disciples. I have progressive friends who love Jesus and are passionate and effective in making disciples. In our current winner-take-all tug-of-war, I have witnessed behavior and hypocrisy from both sides of which I am ashamed. The words and actions of both sides have harmed the Methodist branch of the body of Christ.

I am an ordained Deacon currently serving as a hospital chaplain who has served in local churches, in extension ministry, and as an Interim Pastor. As a chaplain, I am a clinically trained listener and consistently a calming presence. Pre-clergy, I was an Information Technology systems-analyst. In that role, I learned to listen patiently to stakeholders from all sides, unravel complex problems, and then design and implement successful solutions. I don’t have an agenda or all the answers. I am a pragmatist committed to serving the entire church, not one faction. I can only promise to listen to all parties, to be open-minded, and to give my all to the work before us. To be clear, I have never wanted to be a GC delegate. Yet as the deadline to self-nominate drew near, I felt a strong sense that I am supposed to run.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
I was born and baptized into The Methodist Church. My faith came alive and became very personal to me in The United Methodist Church. I have never known anything but the grace-based Wesleyan way of salvation and discipleship.
I believe in our historic doctrine and discipline. I have long held that our foundational process of Christian Conferencing — discerning the will of God for the church in our day — is a positive biblical practice.
I will work to develop creative solutions that build bridges across our divide at the 2020 General Conference. I trust our merciful and mighty God to make a way and to more fully empower us in our mission to Make and Grow Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

If we worship together you will quickly learn I love to sing yet rarely do so on key—instead I trust in Wesley’s recommended zeal.
I was baptized in the Episcopal Church and chose to become a United Methodist. Marvin UMC, Camp Glisson, Young Harris College, Candler School of Theology, St. Paul UMC, and Northside UMC taught me songs of Scripture, faith, and hope. Songs that proclaim a trust in Jesus, a commitment to grace, a relational evangelical fervor, the beauty of God’s diversity, and a Wesleyan dedication to social and personal holiness.
In 2012, I sang for the first time at General Conference as a Marshall while learning our legislative process and of our global church. In 2016, I attended GC to sing and listen constructively about guaranteed appointments, ordination and the vitality of our local congregations. In 2019, I returned to hear our varied and often competing songs. As the ACPK dCom Chair and member of the BoOM, I believe it essential to know how our legislation impacts us and our future leaders.
I think strategically. I process in community. I understand Robert’s Rules of Order. I love Jesus. I feel deeply called to love people in partnership with fellow Elders and laity. In small churches and big steeples, from the mountains to the city, we share songs and stories impacted by our legislation. Thus, I am willing to faithfully and diligently serve and sing—even off key to God’s glory and our benefit at GC 2020.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have grown up in, have been nurtured by our United Methodist Church and want to see it continue in fulfilling God's plan throughout the world. I believe that God has allowed me to be involved in many different aspects of ministry that has given me a broad perspective of the Church and its ministries. Not only have I served three full-time churches in the North Ga Conference in 39 years, but I have also attended four General Conferences, Pittsburg, Dallas, Tampa, and Portland, to pray for not only our delegation but for the future of our Church. I have also had the opportunity to serve in ministry in West Africa, Mexico, Brazil, Thailand, and the Philippines. Wesley said "the World is my Parish" and I believe these mission trips have given me a more global perspective of our Global Church. I believe we can stand on the Word of God and impact the world for Jesus Christ. I love seeing the Church in action and want it to continue around the world. I have had the honor of receiving the "Harry Denman Evangelism Award" and the Martin Luther King, Jr. "I Have A Dream Award" and I know these don't happen alone, but they come by people working together in building God's Kingdom. I believe in the historical strength of our Church and I am continuing to pray for it. I would consider it a privilege to serve as a delegate.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

As a life-long United Methodist and a second career pastor, I have always sought to serve wherever needed. At this point in my ministry, I feel that I am now uniquely qualified to represent a very broad segment of the clergy of the North Georgia Conference. As a layperson at Thomson First, I was a Sunday School Teacher, Confirmation Coordinator, Chair of the Council on Ministries, Stewardship Chair, and a sometime dishwasher. On the district level I have served as a mentor for inquiring and certified candidates, on the District Board of Church Location and Building, 13 years as chair, the Strategic Growth team, District Committee on Ordained Ministry, District Executive Council, and as District Statistician. On the conference level I served as district representative to the Board of New Church Development, Committee of Equitable Compensation for eight years, four as chair, Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and as the Conference Statistician. As a pastor I have served where appointed, first in rural Columbia County for twelve years at Philadelphia. I then served for five years at St. Mark in Augusta. Currently I serve as Senior Pastor of Kingswood in Dunwoody. I feel my life-long affiliation and love for the United Methodist Church, my 21 years of ministry in both rural and suburban churches, along with my varied experience in the local church, the District and the Annual Conference have uniquely prepared me for such a time as this.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

As the church are called to be God’s voice in the world. We are called to speak on behalf of God to a world that desperately needs to hear what God has to say. In a world which chooses hate over love, despair over hope, judgment over forgiveness, self-righteousness over humility we are called to be God's voice. In a world that is longing for something to fill the empty places of life we are called to offer the love and grace of Jesus Christ to speak to the yearnings of the human spirit.

My vision for the United Methodist Church is that we are called to be a church that dwells not on its limitations but rather to be a church revels in its possibilities. My vision for the United Methodist is a vision of an inclusive church dedicated to making disciples for Jesus Christ and a church that is engaged in mission and ministry to heal the broken places of our world. My vision for our church is not a vision of seeking to merely survive in the uncharted waters in which we find ourselves, but rather to be a church that is seizing the opportunities that are open before us. Indeed, with all my heart, I believe the best days of the United Methodist Church are still to come.

To become communities of faith that equip people to become more engaged (with a passion for making Disciples) with people inside the walls of the church to experience more joy (life contentment) and faithfulness (spiritual commitment) so that they can impact lives outside the church by serving others, living more generous lives, and inviting others to connect with Jesus.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have never wanted or felt called to be a delegate to General Conference. This year I feel like God is calling me to put my name in the hat. Our church is in a terrible place of division. I feel that I have a voice that can speak and operate with reason. I am a traditionalist by current labels. I absolutely feel that both traditionalists and progressives are not hearing one another over recent issues and we need people who can both hear and speak intelligently to the things that are dividing our UMC. I believe that if there are answers, then they will come from a place of dedicated prayer and fasting. I have no ill will toward anyone in our denomination, but I do disagree with many. I operate out of loving the person first and dealing with the issue second. I feel called to be a voice in the fray. I commit to be led by the Holy Spirit and submit totally to that leading. "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me."

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is to seek after the transforming power of Jesus Christ. This is best accomplished through the truth and grace found in Scripture. The truth of Scripture, preached and taught in a grace filled manner, unlocks the door for individuals to find their true identity in Christ. We always see Jesus speaking the truth of the Father’s words given to him, but he always did so in a way that people were drawn to him.

My vision for the United Methodist Church is one that dives deep into discipleship. Our “doing” should come out of our “being.” We are to be conformed into the image of God for the sake of others. Reaching out to a lost world is best accomplished if we are rooted and grounded in Christ.

My vision for the United Methodist Church is one that is globally connected. Connection is the greatest need of all people - to be connected to God and to be connected to others. We live in a time in which brothers and sisters across the world need each other. We also live in a world in which most societies are diverse in culture. I need a global connection in order to better minister to the people within my sphere of influence.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have been a United Methodist since I was 11 years old. This is the church that has nurtured me, led me towards perfection by each new discovery of God's grace. This is the church that taught me the spiritual disciplines and further the one in which I heard a call to pastor. This is the church that afforded me the chance to start pastoring (student-pastor) two months shy of my 20th birthday, much earlier than I ever imagined. I was further blessed to eventually serve in the North Georgia Conference (since 1999) and then at the exact right time, it was this church (this Conference) that helped me discover a call to be a church planter. Now, I've navigated back to a county-seat church but ministry is more exciting and more fulfilling, and seemingly more effective than it has ever been. I have great hope for the future. For too long I have not afforded the Conference the opportunity for me to use my gifts and graces to further the mission of the church at a greater level than the local church. It was always, in my mind, better for someone else to do. However, it appears the time has come for this to change. I am a Wesleyan theologian. I am a pastor who loves and believes in the church, universal, denominational and local. I am Christ-centric. I believe that unity in the church does not nor should it require uniformity. I believe in a future with hope.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Leah & I were driving across the bridge by the dam at Lake Junaluska. There were cars and a yellow bus, traffic stopped both ways. I got out to see a big snapping turtle in the middle of the road. I walked over and picked him up. “Don’t touch him!” someone hollered. “We’ve called the police to come get him.” Another said: “Don’t pick him up, you might drop him.” I had hold of that big snapper on both sides of the shell. He was kicking with his claws to scratch. He was turning his head to bite me. I walked him over to the grass. I leaned over the guardrail and plopped him onto a clump of grass. I went back and got in the car. Nobody said anything. The cars and bus began to move. They got on to where they were going. We did too. I may not be the best candidate to go to the big Conferences. But I believe Jesus is working to renew the faith of the United Methodist Church. Maybe I can help. I’ve never been to those Conferences. I never felt qualified. Still don’t. But I believe in the faith that Jesus has passed down to us some 2000 years ago. A Bible-believing faith, that looks to Jesus alone as the head of the church. If I’m elected, that’s how I’ll vote. You can count on it. Cause I’m going to hold on to that faith just like a big snapping turtle.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

    My vision is for a United Methodist Church which is vibrant, outwardly focused and attractive to young and old alike. It is a denomination rooted in the open, inviting and inclusive spirit of our Methodist heritage. I dream of a fellowship which includes persons of every ethnicity and cultural background, where different styles of worship are offered and honored. I hope our denomination would be more concerned about making disciples of Jesus than making connections with people who think, talk and behave alike. My vision is for a fellowship which sees itself as more of a movement than an institution and which values and includes all persons in its life and ministry.

    What I really wanted to do with my life was to teach biology in high school. But at a youth Bible Study, God spoke to my soul, “Mike I want you to teach my words instead.” Just 6 months before, I had my own “heart strangely warmed” experience when Jesus saved my personal, social and spiritual life from a death spiral. Not long afterwards, I started the process for ministry. So, in my ministry I have always striven to challenge people to seek a close relationship with God in Jesus Christ and to teach them to obey his commandments. When I began to study Wesleyan theology and history at Candler, I found my vision statement: “To reform the nation, particularly the church, and to spread scriptural holiness over the land.”

We are not of one mind! General Conference 2019 was a tragedy. What will 2020 look like? Our best and greatest witness to the world, including to all those with LGBTQIAPP+ affiliations, might be how we work together to part ways without doing harm to those we disagree with. What is fair, equitable, generous, and gracious? I don't want to win anything, I just want to be free to share the love and grace of Jesus without the rancor of theological posturing surrounding affirmation and inclusion. This is the source of my calling.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I envision a United Methodist Church re-focused and re-energized as a disciple-making movement. Wesley and the early Methodists were laser focused on disciple-making. Every Methodist was involved in a class or band in which members were equipped to make disciples. If we are to reach future generations with the Gospel, we will create innovative ways to invite new believers into disciple-making relationships that are focused on truth, accountability, equipping, and coaching. Our movement will only spread as it grows deep and will only enlarge as it multiplies through small disciple-making groups. I believe our denominational stewardship of time, talents, gifts, and resources must follow this focus. I also envision a United Methodist Church where local pastors are valued in the same way we value laity and full-connection clergy. Local pastors will become ever more critical to the vitality of our movement in the future. Local pastors should be empowered to vote on all matters at Annual Conference. Local pastors should receive access to the same benefits as full-connection clergy, and they should be eligible to be elected to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I became a member of the United Methodist Church shortly after I immigrated to the United States in 1990. I joined a church that I still choose to be part of today.

I envision a church that, following John Wesley’s example, commits to being outside its walls, focuses on equipping the church to embrace those who are not yet part of the church, and is willing to change and adapt to current contexts. This means, a church that is always attentive to the changes happening to adapt its methods to be effective in sharing the redemptive gospel of Jesus Christ. I envision a church that uses its role of influencer and its voice, to speak with and for those who have been denied justice and are oppressed. I envision a United Methodist Church that embraces those with different cultures, languages, walks of life and embraces their voices to shape the church, its worship but also all aspects of the life of the church.

I envision a church interested in being innovative, in welcoming the voices of the young and of outsiders, in celebrating the legacy of the older members, on being a place of intersection, where difficult conversations happen, even among those with different opinions. I envision a church that is a vital part of its community that will be missed and mourned if it was closed. I envision a church that keeps a healthy tension between tradition and innovation, where “loving our neighbors” influence everything it does.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I love the United Methodist Church. John Wesley’s theology of grace, social holiness, and discipleship has resonated with me since before I knew who John Wesley was. I was raised to see the church as the family God and never remember a time when I was not deeply involved in its ministry. I have served under appointment for 30 years, working in many different settings, including District Superintendent. At this time in my life and ministry, I feel called to serve as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference in 2020 because I want to be a part of bringing change to our denomination. We need a kinder and gentler way of working together. We need to be open and loving to all people. We need to focus on building relationships with our younger generation so that we can have more effective ministry with them. We need a fresh vision from the Holy Spirit as we move forward that renews our faith and encourages us to use all our talents and abilities to build up, not tear down, the body of Christ. That is how I lead my congregations and, I believe that is how General Conference should operate. I would like the opportunity to use my experience and gifts and graces to serve our Annual Conference and the General Church in working to strengthen our witness to the world.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
In June of 1997, I attended my very first Annual Conference. I was serving as a Student Pastor for the Jenkinsburg Circuit in the Griffin District. I am an alumnus of Gammon Theological Seminary. Over the past twenty-two years, I have served in six districts within the North GA Conference. I have had the opportunity to serve as Pastor in small and medium churches as well as serve on staff for a large church. My family and I also had the opportunity to spend two years overseas as missionaries. We were serving at three deaf schools and a deaf village. I have also had the privilege to serve as the President for Deaf Ministry for the South Eastern Jurisdiction for the United Methodist Church.
I feel called to be a delegate to General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference because over the past twenty-two years, I have been able to experience ministry that takes place within our conference. By attending Gammon, I have a greater understanding of what it means to be in the minority. By serving in both the small, medium, and large church, I have a greater understanding for how the lay and clergy can work together to make Disciples for Jesus Christ. By serving the Deaf Community, in the North GA Conference, South Eastern Jurisdiction and overseas, I have a greater understanding for serving those who have been forgotten. I believe that I would represent the North GA Conference very well at either the General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have an earnest passion to make disciples of Jesus. I am extremely thankful to be serving in a local congregation where that is our outmost desire and where that mission drives every decision that we make. I would like to find a way as a delegate to influence our general and jurisdictional conferences to do the same. I did not grow up United Methodist, but during the past 14 years I have come to know, embrace and love the beauty and imperfections of our denomination. It is a place that has enabled me and my family to live into our calling, and I would love to honor it by serving in this capacity.

Finally, as a member of a multi-ethnic family and multi-ethnic church, I live in a daily basis the tension and beauty of the diversity of thoughts, opinions and passions of individuals. I am not an expert in the topic, but there are many mistakes, insights and suggestions that I would love to share with our connectional system.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

God desires to renew our Global Church from the Philippians to the Congo and from Russia to America by bringing the world face to face with the living Savior Jesus Christ. True Christ-centered transformation is the hope for every person breathing, for every person who is willing to call on the name of Jesus. Jesus transformation occurs as we yoke ourselves to the teaching of the Holy Spirit, through reliance upon the authority of Scripture, with repentance in our hearts & love of God in our throats.

Methodists are to be like Wesley, people of one book. People who desire nothing more than to see sin defeated, souls saved, lives changed, destinies realigned. As Methodists we are to live with the certainty that since Father God is for us, who can be against us? As heaven is color-blind, so must we be too! Joining with people of different races, we are to work together for the sake of changed lives for all the world's people: Refugees, the homeless, addicts, us. Jesus isn’t an answer to the world’s problems, He IS the answer. As Methodists we can unite around Christ & live as we're supposed to, on the resurrection side of the cross!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I'm not sure I do. I know I'm called to be a minister in the United Methodist Church and invest in the next generation in the name of Jesus Christ. So if the annual conference feels I'm called to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference, I am willing to go and be a representative and advocate for the next generation inside and outside of our church. I discovered Wesleyan theology and my calling to ministry in the UMC at the University of Georgia Wesley Foundation. UGA Wesley invested in me through the leaders that were there at the time, the work of the generations of students and staff members before mine, and the support of individuals and churches from a diverse group of ministries, including the apportionment dollars of churches in our conference. I have worked for the last 2 years to start a new ministry at The University of West Georgia made possible by our connection so that students there may have what I had at UGA. I have been profoundly impacted by our connection, and I want to work to make sure that the next generation has an even greater witness of the grace and love of God in the Wesleyan tradition because that witness is one that the world desperately needs. I want to see all of our churches, Wesley Foundations, and other shared ministries be set up to thrive for future generations, and if called to serve, I will work to do just that.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I would have voted for the Traditional Plan if I had been in St. Louis. I thought the most interesting comments afterwards were from Kimberly Reisman, executive director for World Methodist Evangelism, representing 80 Wesleyan denominations in 138 countries. Reisman said, “This session of the [general conference] has made it clear that there has been a dramatic shift in the center of gravity in the UMC, it appears that we are now a much more thoroughly global, evangelical church, rather than simply a mainline, American denomination.”

I see the UMC becoming more global and evangelical in nature. I think we should embrace this future and to symbolize this change I would be in favor of adding a globe to the cross and flame of our logo.

With regards to myself, I am a 1994 Graduate of Asbury Theological Seminary, and I have served as a pastor in the UMC for 25 years. I’ve served rural and urban parishes, served as both a solo pastor and on staff. I also have 5 CEU Units, with an Internship at the Atlanta VA Medical Center and a Residency at Emory University. I am a Marine Corps veteran, and my wife Lori and I have been married for 35 years. Incidentally, we meet at UMC in Bloomington, MN, where I grew up. (It might be nice to have someone on the delegation with a local knowledge of the Twin Cities.) I would be honored to be one of the NG Delegates.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I have a heart for The UMC to be a community of faith for all people. A community where we have open hearts, open minds, and open doors. Our hearts are open to the leading of God’s Holy Spirit for our everyday living, to following the will of Jesus Christ in serving our sisters and brothers, to new directions and new ministries empowered by God. Our minds open to all voices and all people whom God might use to lead us into God’s future, to theological discussion in order to grow deeper in our faith, to all possibilities from God. Our doors open to receive all who are seeking and who hunger and thirst for righteousness. Our doors open for the people called United Methodist to move out into the broader community to be Christ for all. I see us in that community being faithful to our Wesleyan understanding of Christ-like living offering grace to those who need it and helping them know the One who gives the grace and love. I feel compelled to do the work needed to bring this vision into reality, rather serving with Clergy Excellence, the cabinet, or the local church, I long to help raise up a generation of young adults and to empower the current generation called to lead The UMC. I believe being one with Christ and one with each other, our connection, starts in the local church and the dream becomes reality. This is my passion and my vision.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
I am not a cradle Methodist. I became a United Methodist as a college student after time away from church. I fell in love with and felt at home in The United Methodist Church, the theology of grace, the power of connectionalism, and the Wesleyan tradition of social holiness. I love my church. I love all that God has been doing in us and through us as a church as we work for justice, show mercy, and practice personal holiness. And I would grieve the loss of that witness.

I feel called to serve as delegate for General and Jurisdictional Conferences because of my deep love and commitment to the Church and all that I believe we can be if we allow the Spirit to blow through and change us. Our church often mirrors the divide in our society, and that must change. Through intentional prayer, I have decided to answer the call to offer myself up in service to the church in this way. I feel called to serve so the church can hear from new diverse voices that make up the Kingdom. I feel called to serve because I am committed to the future of the church, because I want the children, youth, and young adults in my life to feel the sense of home and belonging that I found in the church as a young person. That is my most fervent prayer, that we are an inclusive church in which everyone knows the love of God.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

In its beginnings, the Methodist movement was relational and rooted in local communities. It was also a movement held together through intentional connection and a mutual commitment to the pursuit of perfection in love. It was necessarily diverse and inclusive because each band and small group could only function through open and honest dialogue and accountability. Each local community had a unique expression of Christian faith and a mutual commitment to the larger movement.

As the Methodist movement grew to be the United Methodist Church, additional polity was crafted to maintain accountable systems for a movement that was becoming its own structure.

I envision the United Methodist Church returning to its roots as a movement that celebrates local context and deep intentional relationships. I envision the United Methodist Church returning to the habits it once had of tearing down barriers in order to proclaim the message of new life and resurrection through Jesus Christ to the people who are most often neglected and overlooked within our current ecclesial structures.

The world needs to hear the good news: The God who created the universe loves you enough to experience a full human life of love and heartbreak, admiration and rejection, alignment and denial, life and death. Even after all that, God proves that pain, rejection, denial, and death never have the last word. Perfect love does. I envision a United Methodist Church that includes all people in that proclamation.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

As a young clergyperson and lifelong United Methodist, my love for our church runs deep. I am forever grateful for the ways our church has nurtured my faith. I am convinced that the world desperately needs to hear the good news of the Gospel proclaimed through the lens of our robust, grace-filled Wesleyan theology. On our best days, in theology and practice, we strike a beautiful balance between grace and truth by holding them in tension in ways that bear witness to the life transforming love and grace of Jesus Christ. Yet, all too often, we find ourselves out of balance. A United Methodist Church that holds in beautiful tension grace and truth bearing witness to Christ’s love has the potential to bring a great awakening. It is my frequent prayer that this great awakening would involve a renewed focus on small group discipleship that returns us to our Methodist roots and a genuine, creative engagement with the world that brings God’s mission and Kingdom to the masses with a message of love, grace, holiness, and justice. As a second career pastor with a background in banking, I recognize that we must be creative not only in how we do ministry but also in how we fund it. By reimagining church in creative, self-sustaining ways, our church will once again become a movement – a movement of Spirit-filled disciples of Jesus Christ united in mission for the sake of God’s Kingdom with the life-transforming good news of the resurrected Christ.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Having served in a variety of settings - associate pastor, founding pastor of a new church plant, pastor of two county seat congregations, part-time pastor of a two point charge, and now as senior pastor in a suburban church - I bring a wide breadth of experience to the table as a delegate. I've also offered leadership as chair of Griffin DCOM, chair of the Conference stewardship committee, and as a member of district and conference church development committees.

I believe we need delegates with a deep love for others and an abiding desire for people to experience the grace of Jesus, all rooted in our longstanding Wesleyan understanding salvation and holiness. Our doors should indeed be wide open to all. At the same time, I believe in our current understanding of human sexuality and marriage and I support our call for celibacy in singleness and fidelity in marriage, as currently defined in the Book of Discipline.

It is time for the conflict to stop. We desperately need to find a way to move beyond bashing on each other every four years. I pledge to look with fresh eyes to see how we might best move in the direction of peace, whatever it might look like.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

United Methodists led me to Jesus Christ. My father and mother, my pastors, youth counselors, and friends - they knelt with me in prayer and taught me the fullness of Christ’s gospel, the truth of God’s Word, and the power of God’s Spirit. In this church family I felt my heart strangely warmed in salvation and I began the process of growing into the likeness of Christ. They gave me encouragement and held me accountable. They modeled worship and praise. They led me outside the church and into the streets to serve and to witness. They loved God and they loved me. When God’s voice called me to preach, they tested that call and then strengthened me. My vision is for the United Methodist Church to produce members of the body of Christ who will do for others what these precious people did for me.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
I dream of a church that seeks, unapologetically, God’s beloved kingdom, particularly with those who are not currently in church. My experience has served me well to represent NGA: I served as a reserve delegate to Jurisdictional Conference in 2016 and General Conference 2019 -- the only young clergywoman on the NGA delegation. I have served churches in Chicago and Atlanta, and now as a church planter in Arlington, VA. With God’s help I work every day to create a new, inclusive faith community that seeks to make disciples of Jesus with people who are outside the church. We reach young adults who have been hurt by church, find it irrelevant, or who have never had a relationship with Jesus.

Without a building, we innovate in ministries and go where people are. One of our core values is radical inclusivity: Jesus embraced and empowered all, so we work to do so too. We strive to be LGBTQ+ affirming, creation caring, pro-immigrant, peace-making, community-building, racial-justice seeking, all-ability welcoming Christians. We are imperfect in this mission. But the church must tell the truth; repent of the harm we have done and do, and work to build, however imperfectly, a kingdom vision where we strive toward perfection. Where all of us work for that day when justice rolls down like water and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.

Will General Conference do this? NO. Is this the moment to tell Gospel truth in our institution? YES. It would be an honor to represent you.
John Wesley began a movement which placed Christ and Scripture first. My hope for the United Methodist Church is that we would continue with these priorities by holding fast to Scripture making it primary in our mission and loving actions. Scripture unites and strengthens. Generations embraced these foundational truths and our Church grew. As we have released our grip on these truths, our church has diminished in number and influence in the world.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer said, “The gift of Christ is not the Christian religion, but the grace and love of God which culminate in the cross.” The pinnacle of Wesleyan theology has been love: love of God, love for God, love for one another, and love for our neighbors. This love for our neighbors centers not on who they are but on God’s love for them. My hope for the future of the United Methodist Church is that we will discover a missional heart which understands the mission of the church lies outside its campuses and inside its neighborhoods. However, we must also embrace truth and grace, not sacrificing either for a delusion of unity. This is possible in Christ. Jesus crossed boundaries in His earthly ministries, but He did so without sacrificing love or righteousness.

I believe the United Methodist Church’s best course is that which was laid generations ago. We cannot have Jesus and rewrite His Word at the same time, for they are one and the same (John 1:1, 14).

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the UMC is rooted in my passionate love for Jesus Christ and the Gospel. My dream for the UMC is that we will continue to find new ways to reach the people who most need to hear the Gospel message of hope and redemption – the marginalized, the outcast, the broken, the hurting, the lost and the lonely. I envision a church where all members, clergy and laity, strive to reflect true discipleship of Christ in whatever way they are called to share the love of Christ in the world. In order for us to do that, we need to be equipping our local congregations and leaders throughout our global connection to give witness to the Gospel message in a variety of contexts. The church will need to continue to recognize the importance of local context where the real work of serving and loving others takes place, balanced with the challenges and opportunities that come with our vast diversity worldwide. If we want the church to reflect the image of God, then we need to make room at the table for all. I see the UMC growing in grace into a church that sees all people, affirms the sacredness of all people, loves all people, reaches out to all people, welcomes all people, and reconciles all people back to God and to one another.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I envision an inclusive church, one that would be enabled by either the One Church Plan or the Simple Plan. I envision a church that continues to care deeply about the foundational source of Holy Scripture in our faith and practice, and struggles with its authority in our faith and practice, but doesn't legislate particular interpretive viewpoints based on a majority vote. Our church would be at its best to foster passionate, generative debate about Holy Scripture while allowing for disagreement, even welcoming the balance that disagreement brings. As an international church we would also be at our best to allow for more localized applications of those particular disagreements such that we can engage local cultures in more relevant ways and yet remain globally united in order to increases our effectiveness in our mission. I also envision a church that is less "top heavy" so that more resources can be directed toward the local church for that mission, a church that is more nimble as a result, and organized around welcoming newcomers into our faith and relieving suffering wherever we can. This would be a church focused at all levels on the "cure of" and "care for souls" and would have results measured in stories of transformation, baptism, and professions of faith in Jesus. We would continue our Wesleyan heritage by embracing the tension of classic evangelical and sacramental piety with a stomach sickened by the suffering around us; and let the quadrilateral guide us with grace.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I’m an ordained elder and lifelong United Methodist of the North Georgia Conference. Same sex marriage has become the defining issue of our denomination. Since there is no middle ground, it has become the dividing issue. The deep division is even more evident after the Called General Conference. The ugliness, acrimony and disgust of brothers and sisters toward each other in St. Louis are spilling over into conference, districts and clergy friends. The disagreement over same sex marriage has become the lens through which we see everything and everyone.

I am weary of it. I’m weary of the fighting. I’m weary of our embarrassing witness to the world. I’m weary of the destruction of the only denomination I have ever known. It’s time to recognize that people of good intentions have thought this through carefully and are not going to change their minds. It’s also time to recognize that neither progressives nor traditionalists are able to compromise on their principled convictions.

I want to be part of discerning a path forward that will create the necessary space for all to thrive and bear fruit. I respect the heartfelt beliefs of my UM sisters and brothers with whom I disagree. I trust God will lead, guide and direct us all into a new, faithful future. My heart breaks over what this will do to the appointments and people I have served with over the course of my ministry. But I’m confident a season of pain will yield a harvest of fruit.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

The last two General Conferences have revealed many challenges the UMC faces as we seek to be a diverse and compassionate community where all people can experience the love and transformative power of God’s grace. I envision our future as a global church that is united in its faith and witness. However, for that to occur, I know we will need bridge builders, peacemakers, dreamers, and leaders. I want to help build such bridges, work for peace, and lead the church into God’s dream for us. I believe that dream includes honoring our Wesleyan Christian distinctive, engaging in creative and contextual ministry with all people, sharing the Gospel of Jesus across the world, and equipping the next generation to lead us into a vibrant and fruitful future. I vision a church that follows the Jesus way. Let us all continue to be the change we want to see and trust God to help us turn our dreams and visions into reality. Amen.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I value the ways in which the United Methodist Church has been able to instill in me both an appreciation and a passion for personal piety and social holiness. Together, these two key aspects of our discipleship help us to practically live out our faith daily. In doing so, we actively participate in the in-breaking of the Kingdom of God, witness to God's justice and mercy, and share Jesus’ hope of resurrection, healing, and redemption. In this movement, we intentionally form relationships with those inside and outside our congregations, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, or race, in order to listen, serve, and disciple. It is my vision of the United Methodist Church that we continue to connect these key aspects of our discipleship more fully and faithfully at such a time and place as this to reach new people who are being drawn in by God's saving grace. I imagine our denomination being deeply rooted and built up in love in order to draw each and every person to the Table and help each of them follow the opportunity to faithfully live into their calling as a disciple of Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Ephesians 4:4-6, may we boldly strive to be one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I envision a church that loves scripture, handed down to us by faithful generations so that the world may know God’s gracious salvation. I envision a church that cherishes all people, striving to share the same love we receive from Jesus Christ and urgently welcoming everyone to their place in God's kingdom. I long for, and wish to help build, a church so provoked by the Holy Spirit that all of these things are embraced as part of one and the same Christian whole. I envision a church that continues to practice John Wesley’s dogged efforts to reach the lost; that recklessly follows his example of gathering in the outcast, while persisting in relentless efforts to become more holy. My deepest hope is for a church that genuinely practices the via media – learning to live and to love within the contradictions and disagreements that invariably spring up in the lives of the faithful – by continuing to pour out our energy in ministry and mission.

This is my vision for my beloved United Methodist Church. In solidarity with all who seek a place at the table, and in unity with my ACE2 group, The Walking Women of the World, I offer my name as a candidate for General Conference.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Since childhood I have lived and traveled all over the world and related to persons from different backgrounds, especially those who feel marginalized. Growing up as the daughter of an Episcopal Priest who was also a church planter led me to become a boundary leader, connecting persons from different groups. I have lived out this calling to connect humanity through practicing love, integrity and a commitment to serve.

This calling has been expressed through my attending Candler School of Theology, pursuing the Order of Deacon, helping to plant Impact UMC, and currently serving through extension ministry to support women in transition from incarceration by engaging women of faith. I am furthering my theological education and practice through active participation in a multi-cultural continuing education team called the Walking Women of the World, sponsored by the Academy of Clergy Excellence.

As a Deacon and an African American woman (who is a wife, a mother of three and grandmother of nine descendants), I represent a needed voice in our General and Jurisdictional delegations. For this reason I am offering my service to support the continued unity and connection within our beloved Church.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
   I feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference because North GA has always considered itself to be an inclusive church. To date there have been no known Native Americans elected as delegates to General Conference. I feel called to offer myself as a delegate who falls into several categories: clergy, female, retired, disabled, and Native American. Please understand that I am capable of representing our Conference with compassion and understanding. My disability is not a limitation but simply a fact and does not interfere with my capacity to serve at General Conference. I am retired and, therefore, have plenty of time available to serve with faithfulness. I will weigh all sides of every issue before deciding how to cast my ballot. I currently chair CONAM and in the past have served on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Worship Committee, Equitable Salaries, and COSROW. My credentials include: Elder 1981, Deacon/PM 1979, Licensed to Preach 1976, YHC, GSU, MDiv from Candler 1980 and DMin from McCormick 1988. From ordination until retirement I served as a pastor-in-charge and twice as associates in the local churches of this Conference. Whether or not you choose to support me with your vote please consider voting for at least one Native American/American Indian. Thank you.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for our beloved United Methodist Church comes from two Biblical descriptions of the future. Jeremiah 29:11: “For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.” I first heard this text in a sermon for a celebration of Denver Urban Ministries’ work in the heart of the city. I spent a year serving as an intern at Epworth UMC, an African-American congregation. I learned very early in ministry to trust that God goes before us to create the path. I have tried to practice that in my personal faith and in my pastoral ministry with our life together in Christ. It is a powerful word of hope and a call to trust when we live in exile.

The other description is in Revelation 21 and 22. These words remind us that God holds the end as well as the beginning. God’s home is with us, and God is making all things new, even death. Heaven is not somewhere out there, but here on earth. Later, John describes the tree of life planted by the river of the water of life. The leaves are for the healing of the nations. The vision of heaven starts here on earth with the community gathered around the water of life and the healing trees. If we lived fully into this vision, The United Methodist Church would transform the world into the Kingdom of God.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

As a global and diverse church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, I'd like to bring the Korean/Asian-American perspectives and voices; therefore, we, the Church, can be more diverse as the society. For several years, as my colleagues and I observed both the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, we realized the need for someone to represent on behalf of Korean/Asian-Americans in making decisions for the denomination. Our conference delegation pool lacks the Korean/Asian-American perspectives and voices while the important decisions were being made that could affect the mission and direction of our denomination. I believe that I can better represent this Korean/Asian-American perspective and voice to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences because I have lived and understood the cultures. Thus, I’d like to be a delegate to bring these lacking perspectives and voices to the General and Jurisdictional conferences to bring the perspectives and voices of Korean/Asian-Americans while the important decisions are being made that will impact the effectiveness and diversity in fulfilling our mission together as the United Methodist Church.
God came into the world as Jesus, and Jesus taught, healed, fed, and loved all people. Most importantly, Jesus died for our salvation and defeated death in his resurrection. Church embodies Jesus and is indeed the body of Christ. It exists in and for the world (BOD 25). It exists for the world not for itself but for the wholeness and salvation of all God’s creation. My vision for the UMC is that we fulfill this purpose. It must exist to take care of God’s creation, proclaim the good news to the poor, heal the brokenhearted, release the oppressed, empower the powerless, give hope to the hopeless, and love the unloved. Church needs to shine its light on every evil, preach repentance, and bring people to Jesus by offering God’s grace. It needs to be a model of agape love. It also exists to point to the Promised Land, the Kingdom of God, the Beloved Community, where we are reconciled to God and one another. Church needs to be the operating system which powers people to access Jesus, orders their lives, and makes sanctification and perfection attainable for them. Church has been a fountain of blessing, grace, forgiveness, and love for me. I would like our church to be like that for ALL people. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit and right leadership, UMC can do that! I believe in UMC and would love to join its leadership so that we can bring about changes to make it happen!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have been in ministry in the United Methodist Church for 17 years. During this time I have served in many different types of appointments and have had the opportunity to be in ministry with people from all walks of life. One consistent theme I have found in all the relationships I have made is the desire to be respected and to be heard. The work of the church requires not only the ability to speak with clarity, but also the ability to listen with intention. As I have observed the work of the General Conference I have felt that I could bring a gift of discernment as we strive to find our way forward in this transitional time. I would bring a moderate voice into a discussion which often seems clouded with chaos and noise. I would consider it an honor to represent our conference if elected.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is to stay focused on the mission of Jesus Christ. Upholding this vision, I believe the church is positioned to welcome everyone to the table, hold space for paths that are different than our own, and ultimately grow the Kingdom of God by staying focused on Jesus Christ. As convicted as I am about staying focused on the mission of Jesus Christ, I am equally interested in seeing the institutional church refreshed in a way that leads to sustainability and vitality, and which serves the people of God most effectively now, and in the future. Some things need to change.

Finally, when I think about vision for the church, I never want to lose sight of the people of God. From surrounding a child with steadfast love, to people of all ages serving side by side in mission, to reflecting on and teaching the Word of God, to offering prayers of intercession and healing, to people modeling sacrificial giving and generosity, to people speaking words of grace and forgiveness when some cannot find the words within themselves, this is the church. This is what I love. This is what will transform the world, through the power of Jesus Christ.
The United Methodist Church has always been grounded in the doctrine of God’s saving grace and abounding love for humankind. Every person of every race and nation, every language and culture, every person without exception is a beloved child of God for whom Christ died. We will best fulfill God’s vision for us when we extend the same love and grace to all people as God has extended to us in Christ—not standing in judgment of one another but humbly offering to serve one another after the example of Christ. As a global church we must continue to work together with United Methodists around the world to share the good news with all people. Just as our brothers and sisters in the global church must speak the language of hope and salvation that is best understood by those they are in a position to reach, we here in the United States must be free to do the same. Although we likely will not agree on all things at all times, Saint Augustine was wise to advise us to seek unity in essential things, to allow liberty in non-essential things, and to show charity in all things. It is faith in Jesus Christ that saves us. This is essential. Few other things are. It is my hope that we can learn to trust one another to love God with a whole heart, soul, mind and strength and our neighbors as ourselves. Only then will we become the Church God desires.
Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I believe in, and am committed to, a Church that is evangelistic, diverse, inclusive, and bent on justice for all. This kind of church can only exist by the grace of God, the love of Christ, and the power of the Holy Spirit. We all have to work and serve together for the fullness of this church to become a reality.

I have served faithfully and fruitfully in a variety of settings and I have a vision for the future of the church. In my 17 years of appointed ministry as a second-career pastor, I have served small, medium, and large churches in rural, suburban, and urban contexts from Varnell to Cartersville to Roswell to Chamblee. I have served established churches, planted a church, and launched a church-within-a-church, called Chapel Roswell, which led worship for the opening session of Annual Conference the last two years. Emily Bagwell and I are currently serving as co-senior pastors at Chamblee First. In every appointment, I have been blessed to see people come to faith and be baptized as well as people grow in faith and in service to the world. My service at the district and conference levels has included DCOM, District Strategic Growth Team, Commission on Higher Education, and Commission on Equitable Compensation.

Having developed relationships with so many clergy in our conference and sharing lives of ministry with you has prepared me to serve as a delegate. If elected, I will serve you and serve God with humility and devotion.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is one of truly having open hands, open hearts, open doors and open minds to be the church of Jesus Christ. We affect change in policies at the General Conference level to be the United Methodist Church that loves God and all people and reflect this in our communication and interaction with one another. We allow Christ to change our hearts and impact our deeds as a missionary church that sees the world as its parish. My passion in ministry as an elder in the local church in the North Georgia Conference is to see our United Methodist Church focus more on local and global issues which include helping the last, the lost and the least i.e. - to address poverty, malaria, homelessness, housing, physical and financial support for widows, women in ministry and supporting missionaries to spread the gospel abroad and at home. We provide support for those who represent the diversity of the body and need the love of Christ which is why I participate in the ACE^2: The Academy of Clergy Excellence Peer Group Walking Women of the World. Our group is an example of practicing what I share in my vision: love, diversity, embracing different cultures, and open to new experiences in a new community and a commitment to serve.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Honestly, I do not feel called to be a delegate to General Conference. After the 2019 GC, I feel led to help elect more of our young clergy to serve. In our Ice Group (now Ace) from a few years ago, we had four "seasoned" clergy and four younger clergy; we learned from and encouraged each other in our unique ministry settings. So I believe that my "seasoned" experience may be helpful to the delegation when it comes to crafting new and needed legislation; for example, doing away with "guaranteed appointment" and finding new ways forward for inclusion.

Therefore, I hope you will remember to vote for me to serve at the Jurisdictional level. At this level, I can serve with the delegation and help elect Bishops to lead the church into the future.

My experience as the DS of the AMRY District has taught me some valuable lessons about the importance of inclusion for all of God's children. I have also been reminded of the vitality of encouraging and mentoring younger clergy. I have become a "centrist" in my old age, so I am firmly established in the United Methodist middle. We have been fighting for way too long; the time has come to elect some new leaders who will have a new vision for the church we love. I would appreciate your vote to serve at the Jurisdictional Conference in 2020.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

As the longest tenured pastor/elder still in effective relationship with the annual conference, I offer myself as a delegate with experience, integrity and insight.

Those who voted to support the Traditional Plan at the last General Conference have willfully ignored the facts of human sexuality. Sexual orientation is not a choice and therefore cannot be a sinful choice. Everyone needs and deserves to be allowed to have a life partner to whom they are committed in a covenantal relationship. The Traditional camp has supported their position with Biblical citations which have no application to the issue at question.

The Traditional camp, discovering that they didn’t have either facts or the Bible on their side chose to “pound the table and yell like Hell.” They threatened to take their bats, balls and especially ballparks and go out on their own if they didn’t get their way. Even though they know that the ballparks belong to the league and not the individual teams.

I will stand upon the common-sense facts of human sexuality. I will support reason and experience, but I will not accord misrepresentations of Scripture as an equally valid alternative to truth and justice. I will support an international pedagogical initiative to correct the misrepresentations and misapplications of Scripture to the facts surrounding human sexuality. I will seek unity but I will not sanction prejudice and exclusion of those whom Christ has redeemed from full inclusion in the ordained ministry and access to the ministries of the Church.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Being dedicated to God’s calling to embrace, teach and empower all people and all nations allows me to stay faithful, fired up and stand confident knowing God’s love and grace equips me to serve as a delegate to General Conference. I have been intentional about fighting the good fight of faith for all people, and continue to travel locally and globally speaking, sharing, learning and growing, knowing that my experiences, voice and presence have and will make a difference as I am openly welcomed to the table to discuss what intentional inclusivity, diversity and unity look like and embody in the United Methodist church. Open hearts, Open Doors and Open Minds needs to reflect intentionality in thought, words and actions welcoming all to the table in love. Matthew 22: 34-40, states, “When the Pharisees heard he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and some of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 Jesus said unto him, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.” Being fired up with Godly love, grace, mercy and understanding of the Word affects everything and every action we execute. Stay fired up!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

It has been an honor and humbling experience to represent the clergy of the North Georgia Annual Conference at the 2008, 2012 and 2016 Jurisdictional Conference. Your election for me to serve will always be cherished and remembered. The work was rewarding and enriching to my life and ministry. Moreover, I am aware of this awesome responsibility, the significant expenditures of time, travel, work, study and the financial expectation for representing our Annual Conference. During my three-quadrennial obligation as a delegate, I missed only one preoperational meeting for the sessions of the General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. Likewise, I attended the General Conference sessions and was available when the General Conference delegate left for conference deliberation, legislative group discussions and further dialogue. The comradery among the clergy delegation, as well as the laity delegates, were informative, educational and inspirational. I am a better pastor, colleague and supporter because of the experience.

Therefore, because of my past election to the delegation and my involvement in the meetings, full participation and expectations, I would like to submit my name for consideration as a delegate to represent the North Georgia Annual Conference at the 2020 General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. I bring experience, fairness and integrity to the delegation and your continued affirmation, support and vote will be very much appreciated and cherished. A sense of calling is based on the past affirmation and election to serve as a delegate for three quadrennia.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I feel called to be a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference because as a part of a clergy couple, a mother and a pastor, I feel that I have a unique perspective. I have served under appointment since 2006, first as a student while at Candler, then as an Associate Pastor while a Provisional Elder, and now I serve as the Pastor in Charge at Trinity on the Hill UMC in the LaGrange District. I have served churches in the LaGrange District, the Rome-Carrollton District, and the North West District. None of these appointments have been within the Atlanta area, and as a result, I feel that I can represent those outside Atlanta. Since I was a student, I have had an interest in attending and serving as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional conference and have wanted to serve our Annual Conference in any way that I can. I have served on our Conference Committee on Resolutions for two quadrennium and have served as a Clergy Teller since my ordination in 2013. As a moderate voice, I feel that I would add a perspective that is needed within our delegation. God has brought me this far, preparing me for service in many various ways, and I am seeking to serve the North Georgia Annual conference to the best of my ability. Blessings.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

As an Ordained Elder in The United Methodist Church, I feel a call to work toward conflict transformation within the denomination. As a second career pastor and mom of a blended family, I know the hard work and reward that go into having people get along with each other. I have experience in hearing all sides of an issue and helping to work toward a solution that respects the values of the participants. I also understand that while sometimes complete understanding and cooperation between parties may not be what all people want, I would serve the General Conference by helping to creatively craft legislation to bring the denomination closer to unity on main issues of doctrine. We live in a world where our diversity helps us to understand how uniquely made in God's image we are. I believe that we can celebrate the uniqueness of our being made in the image of God while at the same time embrace the ways in which we are all similar and can cooperate with each other. Certainly being a mother of four sons with whom we lived through 18 straight years of teenagers taught me something about dealing with conflict. As a seasoned member and leader in the church, I feel called and uniquely prepared to fairly represent the North Georgia Annual Conference as the church worldwide gathers to work out our salvation with fear, trembling and much prayer. Thank you for your consideration.

When I envision the UMC, I see a vibrant, global denomination empowered by the Holy Spirit to work in relevant, innovative and contextual ways to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ and the transformative power of love and grace. I envision a global church that celebrates and values God’s beautifully diverse world and welcomes all people to encounter Jesus Christ and to fully participate in the mission and ministry of the church. I envision a global church that is so motivated by the love of Jesus Christ that is known for its ability to love, to seek and stand for justice, to show compassion and to be a source of hope and healing in the world.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I desire to honor our evangelical heritage – an unqualified reverence for and reliance on the good news known in scripture – by supporting any legislation that would overturn prohibitions against conducting same sex marriages or any ordination restrictions based on sexual orientation. I am grieved by the way our discipline encourages a narrow reading of scripture that neglects its context and the influence of patriarchy.

Rather than celebrating when a couple desires to commit their lives to one another before God, our policy encourages comparing these loving and faithful relationships to stories of rape (Gen 19). This policy invites healthy relationships to be described as “abomination” (Lev 18:22, 20:13). We never note the other “abominations” in scripture, such as eating bacon or shrimp (Deut 14:8,10), wearing clothes like those worn by the opposite sex (Deut 22:5), or cotton polyester blends, trimmed sideburns and tattoos (Lev 19).

Claiming that homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching fails to examine scripture in light of tradition, personal experience, and reason.

An Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8:26-40 hears the gospel story and asks what is to prevent him from being baptized. Philip must decide whether to follow the traditional plan or follow the leading of a Holy Spirit determined to welcome even those rejected by the law. I am called to General Conference to proclaim with Christ that scripture is summed up in the law of loving God and loving our neighbor.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I love the Church! I believe the local church is the hope of the world, and our Connection serves to empower our local churches to share the Gospel and transform communities. I want to be a part of helping our denomination get through our current impasse to a brighter future in which we can focus on making disciples for Jesus Christ. I still have great hope for revival and renewal in the United Methodist Church, and it’s time to work on our decades-long decline in worship attendance and professions of faith. That's why figuring out our new future is so important.

It's no secret I’m an evangelical follower of Jesus. I believe in our orthodox and historic teaching on our dividing issues. However, I also affirm we are all of ‘sacred worth.’ I really believe that, and I have compassion and grace for those who think differently than me. I feel called to be a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference because I pray I have a voice of grace, understanding, and hopefully wisdom into our divisiveness. I want to offer that voice - a Gen-X voice with maybe a fresh perspective our tribe needs. I don’t wish to fight. I wish to help us find God’s more elegant solution. The Holy Spirit is still alive and well in the UMC and our great Wesleyan tradition. Moreover, we serve the Most High God. I want to help us find the faith to ask this mountain to move.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

The work of our 2019 called General Conference was difficult. We were all discouraged by the exposure of our obvious fractures along theological lines and were left with a lack of creative solutions for dealing with what are clearly irreconcilable differences. I want to be part of a more hopeful General Conference process, shaping a stronger, more nimble system that gives less emphasis to the legislative process and greater freedom for mission. I want to help cast a vision for a renewed United Methodist Church that places its theological task at the center.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the church looks much like my service history. The church is rural, suburban, inner city, and small town. The church is the intersection of grace and hope in a hurting and struggling community. It is a group of people who seek to share our burdens, form our communities, share our good news, and become the people God created us to be. The church defends the oppressed, feeds the hungry, clothes the naked, sits with the grieving, cares for the children, and loves all. The church teaches our theology that others might understand that we are made in God's image and not in total depravity. The church gives us an ethic that demands we hold ourselves accountable for the plight of the farmer in the midst of damaging industrial farming, the pain of isolation from social media that separates us from real community, the devastation of community lost in gentrification, the factory worker whose job is being lost to robotics, the vet contemplating suicide after PTSD, and the teenager trying to understand their sexuality. We have a mission that is so expansive, that we need everyone working together to bring about the shalom that we all seek.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

My relationship with Christ has flourished in the United Methodist Church over the last 27 years. I have served as a minister for 20 of them. Now, I want to do my part at the conference level to help the UMC draw others closer to Christ. I believe, with all my heart that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. I believe all persons need the ministry of the church and that God’s grace is available to all. I will work tirelessly to ensure the UMC stands firmly upon Scripture as we reach out in love to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with as many as we can in as many ways as we can, all to the glory of God. I believe the best days of the UMC are ahead of us if we stand together upon the truth of God’s love as expressed in His Holy Word. I believe the Holy Spirit is renewing our United Methodist Church and I want to be part of that great work. Many are ready to stop arguing about matters already settled by Scripture and the decisions of our past General Conferences. I believe my voice at General or Jurisdictional Conference can help us put old arguments to rest and concentrate on revitalizing the UMC. It is time to move forward with making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Question/Response:
What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?
   On December 1984 my family and I walked into the front doors of a United Methodist Church. I entered that church that Sunday morning as a sinner, lost soul, and at my worst. That congregation accepted my family and me as we were. We did not have to clean ourselves up, change our clothing, have a certain income, nor come from the right side of the tracks to be accepted. For the next ten years we were shown true; unconditional love by the ministers, and the members of that congregation.

   As a United Methodist minister since 1994, I have been made it my vision and goal to return the same Spiritual Community experience to all that I minister. I had experienced the church at its best, and at times when it was not at its best. It has been my vision to serve, and teach the unconditional love we experienced. Not excluding anyone from the grace, love, and the redemption of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our community, our government, and even worse our congregations struggle to maintain a level of unity. As our communities continue to become a melting pot, our churches have a responsibility to embrace and love all, to create a Spiritual Community, a spirit of unity founded on the unconditional love of our Lord and creator. It is for this vision; I am presenting my name to the General Conference: Clergy Candidate Self-Nomination Process.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

  When I envision the United Methodist Church, I think of my hopes for my five month old daughter.

  I want her to learn about God’s love that knows no bounds, and I want her to love and encourage others. I want her to be loved, affirmed, and empowered for God’s calling on her life. I desire for her to know what it looks like to love even in the midst of disagreements. I want her to learn to listen to God and to others. I pray she will always feel welcomed and be welcoming. I hope she never hears the message of the gospel as exclusive but as fully inclusive: always inviting, challenging, empowering, and sending. I want her to take scripture and its message of love and mercy seriously. I desire for her to experience the beauty of the global church and the ways in which it broadens our understanding of God and the world. I want her to go into the world, making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I pray the United Methodist Church will be the place she learns all of these things and more. These are my hopes for every person who walks through the doors of a United Methodist Church.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

The future of the United Methodist Church is at a crossroads. In addition to the ongoing discussions related to human sexuality, I believe there are issues related to our polity and doctrine - the effectiveness of our current itinerant system, guaranteed appointments, and sacramental authority for deacons - that will need to be examined in order for us to more effectively live into our mission of “making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” To do this, we must have a willingness to listen to those who may think differently from us and maintain our fellowship and communion with each other as we share the gospel with the world. We come from different backgrounds, we interpret scripture differently, and we use a variety of methods and models in our ministries. But I believe it is important for us to maintain our connection as we determine the best way to spread scriptural holiness across the world. I want to see a United Methodist Church that recognizes the authority of scripture and is accepting of all people. I do not have all of the answers, but I believe my style of leadership is conducive to listening to all options and working with different groups of people, creatively thinking about possible solutions, making difficult decisions, and communicating with others to help transition into a new reality. And I believe these skills will be important in shaping the future of the United Methodist Church.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

   I feel called to serve out of a passion for United Methodism as an extraordinary tradition of Christianity. My call to ministry and transforming faith in Jesus Christ happened in the context of vital United Methodism at work. Having served very small churches as well as in the large membership church (and both in Greater Atlanta and town and country) over the last 27 years, I have a broad perspective of the North Georgia Conference and “The People Called Methodist” across the breadth of our episcopal area. I am a UM by choice due to emphasis on grace-based theology, balance between personal and Social Gospel, commitment to vital and Spirit-filled worship, and primacy of scripture—while employing tradition, reason, and experience to interpretation of scripture. I am a passionate believer in the Apostles’ Creed as our central and historic statement of faith and subscribe with full conviction to every classic doctrine of the Christian faith (see the Christian Believer study in the Disciple series). My passion is for the UM connection to continue as an extraordinary means of grace: Facilitating the transforming work of Christ in people through vital worship and ministries of discipleship, evangelism, justice, and mission. I enjoy study and research and engaging in holy conferencing as it serves the larger mission of the UMC to inclusively make and grow disciples of every single person. I bring a level head and calming spirit to the conferencing table, deeply respectful and conscious of the entirety of “The People Called Methodist”.
Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

As a PK, it feels like my entire life has been spent worshipping and serving in the UMC. From my earliest moments as my father baptized me, to the Sundays where I would acolyte in the 3rd grade. It is the place where I met my husband and we had our children baptized. It is the place that nurtured my call to ministry and continues to refresh and renew me. This church has been my home as long as I can remember; she was chosen for me and then I chose her. Even though at times, I have disagreed with her, she always has been a place that welcomed, loved me, nurtured me; a place that formed me, challenged me, and equipped me. I love her dearly.

There are many out there that haven't experienced the church as I have. They have been excluded, hurt, and told that they, even as God created them, are an abomination or that their call to ministry is irrelevant because of whom they are and how they were made. My vision for the church is one where we see each other as God sees us, that we love and accept each other just as God first loved and accepted each of us. My prayer is that this church, whom I love dearly, will strive to be a church that includes all, loves all, and truly welcomes all.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I have been approached – as many have – by colleagues offering encouragement to ‘self-nominate.’ That encouragement from outside myself, coupled with my interest & inclination, has confirmed my sense that I might be able to serve our conference and our delegation as we seek to have better and better conversations with one another about challenging issues. I pursued my theological education at Emory because I wanted conversation partners from perspectives other than my own; both because, in the short-term, I wanted to understand those perspectives, and because, in the long-term, I wanted to be prepared for conversations in the future with people who approach the Christian faith & questions of ultimate meaning differently than I do. I self-describe as a fairly conservative evangelical Wesleyan in the holiness tradition. I hold to an orthodox perspective on many of the issues which threaten to divide our denomination and which are dividing so many of us from one another. And, throughout my adulthood, I have been in ministry with, in conversation with, in partnership with, and in deep friendship with people who disagree with me – most notably my brother. If you know the two of us (or if you know either of us very well), you have a sense of how different we are and how committed to one another we are. In addition to whatever might be explained away by familial bond, we like and respect one another and we take one another seriously. [Coincidentally, my vision for the church.]

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

The General Conference is the law making body of our Church. I believe that we should follow the Discipline in all matters. If we disagree with it, we should petition the General Conference to change that with which we disagree.

It was once said that the sun never sets on the British Empire. It had its foot in every area of the world. This can no longer be said of the British Empire but it can be said of the United Methodist Church. From the lowest hamlet in Africa and other parts of the Third World, the United Methodist Church has a presence in both Word and Action and may it continue to do so.

Since God is no respecter of persons and in adherence with the Discipline of our Church, I feel that we should be an inclusive fellowship on the Local Church, District, Annual Conference, and General Conference level.

Starting in 1964 with a student appointment, I have been under the appointment of the Bishop for 55 years; seven of these as a Retired Supply since 2012. These appointments have ranged from rural to county seat to downtown and suburban churches.

I would like to be a delegate to the General Conference because I love our great Church and want to see it continue to go forward in the days ahead. I believe further that my experience and commitment would enable me to represent all ages and groups in our Church objectively and effectively.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I experienced bullying as a child that contributed to a low self-image. Fortunately, Boy Scouts (BSA) introduced me to new skills that resulted in a radical transformation. Personal confidence grew as I learned the importance of service to God and others. When my dad committed suicide, my scouting family welcomed us into their church family. I discovered God’s love which had always been present providing protection and care. The church enabled me to use my scouting gifts of leadership and service in the new experiences of mission and teaching. Each of these gifts continues to grow in my opportunities for ministry. I regularly teach Cub Scouts & Girls Scouts about God’s relationship with them and their families, and I help lead a national Methodist Scouters Conference annually at a BSA national high-adventure base. I instruct clergy and laity on how to train Early Response Teams. I participate in mission activities locally, regionally, and internationally. My leadership service extends to the BSA’s National Religious Relationships Committee, Board of Directors of the General Commission on United Methodist Men, and the NGA Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. I can help transform broken and scared congregations into thriving churches actively sharing God’s love in their communities while addressing the needs of the marginalized and oppressed. You will discover when you combine my sense of humor with God’s gifts a clergy candidate capable of addressing the needs of our denomination with passion, joy, and creativity. Thank you for your consideration!

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I have a vision of the church that is better than what we have witnessed in recent events. In John 17, Jesus prays for the church to have unity – to be One as he and the Father are One. Jesus tells us our unity will show the world that God sent Him. As someone who leans toward the Traditional view, I don’t seek unity in an effort to “get my way” but because the power of God is shown when we are able to be unified despite our differences. May we be a church focused on the least and the lost? May we be a church more concerned with pain and hurt that exists in the world than we are about pensions and health benefits for ourselves? I don’t have all the answers but I commit to listening to everyone rather than speaking against others. I commit to listening to the Holy Spirit in an effort to become the church that Jesus Christ desires us to be. I will be honest – I believe this might require us to make some fundamental changes in our structure but I believe it is worth the effort. Not in order to save an institution but to reach a world desperate for Jesus Christ. The world sees enough division and disputes. Aren’t we supposed to be different than the world? May we unite together to work for a church where the kingdom of God is “on earth as it is in heaven.”
Greetings in Christ!

My name is Cassie Rapko, and I am appointed as the pastor of St. Paul UMC. I was born and raised in the UMC and my vision for the Church focuses on the attributes found in Micah 6:8, “to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with our God.” I believe Micah summarizes our history and provides a roadmap for the future of the UMC as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

I envision a church that continues to do justice that follows the example of Jesus in speaking up and being in ministry with the oppressed and outcast. Doing justice is an important part of Christian discipleship and is especially important as we foster the next generations of leadership within our denomination. I envision a church that loves mercy. Jesus told us “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.” (Matthew 5:7) We live in a world that is constantly telling us we are not enough, and I have always experienced the UMC as a place that would see the image of God in me, despite my sins and shortcomings. We should continue to be that church.

Finally, I envision the church walking humbly with God. We are a people of faith who are moving on toward perfection in love and I pray that we follow both the word of God and the Holy Spirit’s guidance in moving us toward loving God and loving neighbor.
Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

As we face challenges in our everyday lives, we soon realize that we are unable to carry the weight on in our own strength. It is then that we realize that as Christians, we have Jesus who is greater than ourselves with us. It is our Wesleyan understanding of grace gives us hope in the midst of life’s difficulties.

Both as individuals and in our corporate understanding as United Methodists, we are called to transform the world for the sake of Christ. As clergy, one of our primary tasks is to equip others for the work of the ministry. This equipping is not to be self-serving, only caring for the needs within the church buildings. Rather we are to equip in order to serve our neighbors through missional living.

John Wesley’s vision was to bring the holiness of Christ to the world. Through his intentional methodology, he put into place a process to equip and send workers into the world to bring people to repentance through God’s transforming grace. As each church focuses on this primary mission, of bringing people into a personal relationship with Christ, growing them up in faith, and sending them out to serve the world, the United Methodist Church can impact the world from now to eternity.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Some people believe that the UMC’s better days are behind us. But is this true? Certainly not! We are more than we have accomplished.

The United Methodist Church is like a willow planted by the riverbank that sends out its roots by the stream. Feeding growling bellies, and clothing and housing cold bodies, this tree has done so much to nurture others; but it has much more to do. We have been witnesses throughout this planet. Nonetheless, there are cultures, both foreign and domestic, who still need Jesus’ style of love. In 2016, in the United States, UMC received 108,071 new members. But there are lost souls not yet harvested.

New ideas have been cultivated to help congregations to be more diverse and attract more energy. But there are ideas not yet bloomed. The One Way Forward, Connectional Conference, and Traditional Plans are all visions to help the UMC blaze an adventurous new trail. But there are visions not yet cast. We are like a tree planted beneath the moist ground with untapped strength, unused success, and unexposed abilities. What we shall be, it has not yet appeared. Therefore, I want to be a part of the people who water and fertilize this burgeoning tree. My knowledge about its evolutionary history, structure, and system will help us to nourish this tree so that it continues to nurture others, and have a long, fruitful life. I want to help our church mature to its God-given potential.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I represent the vital connection of the North Georgia College with its family of church-related colleges and universities. Because of my work as a college Chaplain, I can represent the essential beliefs and needs of United Methodist young adults, and work to amplify their voices and articulate their desire for change. I want to see full inclusion for the LGBTQ+ community, including the right to marry in the church and the right to pursue ordination. I have served on various boards and committees in the North Georgia Conference, including 8 years on the Board of Ordained Ministry. I am a practical theologian, educator and established leader with a track record of building relationships across boundaries of difference.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

My first commitment to the election of clergy delegates to the 2020 General Conference is to elect younger delegates. The future of the church is one in which they should have a primary and significant voice. The primary reason I offer myself for service concerns the need for coaching those who have never experienced a General Conference. The learning curve is steep, and I believe it is helpful to have those with experience work alongside those who are new to the legislative process. I am happy to serve in such a role from the sidelines or from a position on the delegation. If I am elected, I will give my best in service to the church; and if I am not, I will offer myself as a mentor to those who will attend for the first time.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I prayed for a long, long time before deciding to self-nominate this year. General Conference 2016 was difficult enough; regardless of how you feel about the outcome, 2019 was downright broken. And yet as someone who (God willing) has more than thirty-five years remaining in ministry and thus will be living with the results of this General Conference for a long time, I feel called to contribute to healing that brokenness, however possible. I have learned some tough, important lessons as I have served in this last quadrennium, both as a reserve and seated delegate. Too often, General Conference feels as if it exists for its own sake, rather than for the sake of Christ and the local church. So many of our congregations are strong! And yet we spend millions of dollars on a meeting that often ends up doing harm, rather than empowering our local churches to evangelize, make disciples, and transform the world in Jesus’s name. I have learned the importance of relationships, within the annual conference and across the connection. Having once worked in the Southeastern Jurisdiction office of United Methodist Volunteers in Mission, it has been good to reconnect with others from all over the world as we seek to be faithful to our Christian heritage and our Wesleyan zeal. Mostly, I have learned that God is at work, always, even when it feels otherwise. If my gifts can be helpful in serving God in this work, I want to be faithful.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I feel that I am being called to use the broad set of skills that God has afforded me the opportunity to develop during my lifetime as a GC delegate. I believe that God has positioned me to help the UMC focus on the mission of “Making Disciples for the Transformation of the World.” I have worked faithfully since I was first elected a GC delegate in 2008 to help keep our focus on sharing the Goodnews of God's love for all people. I have been blessed to serve the General Conference for the last two Quadrennium on the Committee on Reference. In 2012 I served as vice-chairperson and in 2016 and 2019 General Conferences as chairperson. I serve on the Wespath audit committee and as chairperson of the UMHEF audit committee. As chairperson of the North Georgia United Methodist Foundation I facilitated the merger with the South Georgia Foundation and served as President of the merged Georgia United Methodist Foundation for 5 years. I have been involved with the ministry of the UMC in Africa and Russia. I am more excited than ever about being a part of the possibilities that our global church will have in sharing God's love at home and across the world. I thank God for you and for your willingness to consider me as a delegate for the 2020 GC. I look forward to serving God, you, and our UMC worldwide in making disciples of Christ who are transforming the world by God's love.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

During my formative years, a friend invited me to join her at Sunday School and drove me every week. Once I got involved in one area, I quickly found my place in worship, youth group, and many other activities. As life got more complicated and there was tension at home, or trouble at school, the church was always a place where I felt safe and accepted just as I was. I could ask difficult questions and was encouraged to grow in my faith. I fell in love not just with Christ, but with the people who surrounded me, the love I experienced, and the message of grace I learned. It offered me hope for the future. Now as clergy, the longer I serve, the more I am in love with the UMC, even when we disagree. It breaks my heart that not everyone has had this experience, has felt this acceptance, or has been welcomed and valued. My vision for the UMC is one where new life is breathed into dry bones, where we reach people in radical new ways, where disciples are not only made, but are welcomed without question, loved as they are, and valued for what they bring to the table. Loving one another is no longer enough. We must do all in our power to make God’s kingdom come, on earth as it is in heaven, fully including all God’s children. And I have hope that the Holy Spirit will lead us into this reality.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My hope for the United Methodist Church going forward is that we recapture our Wesleyan roots as a vibrant, Spirit-led, evangelistic and global movement that transforms peoples’ lives through the redeeming grace and love of Jesus Christ. Our mission is making disciples for Jesus Christ and serving in the Kingdom of God. God gifted me with a number of unusual life-experiences that have taught me valuable lessons in what is necessary for this service as United Methodists. As a Pastor I have learned both the importance of grace as we help people to understand the everlasting love that God has for them and of sanctification as the work of the Holy Spirit to teach, correct and transform persons into holiness. Jesus loves us as we are, but He loves us too much to leave us as we are. As a missionary to Bolivia through the GBOM, I learned the importance of the global connection of the Church. We in the United States need to joyfully serve side-by-side with our brothers and sisters from all over the world; that is why I serve on the Board of World Methodist Evangelism Institute at Candler. As an Attorney, I understand the institutional importance of clarity in our polity and rules with a consistent application of the same. If we arbitrarily enforce rules, this creates anxiety, distrust and division throughout the system and violates fundamental fairness. I agree with John Wesley and our Book of Discipline in the primacy of Scripture as our touchstone.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

Thank you for your confidence in me. You have trusted me to lead in areas across this conference and as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference where I have served on the Discipleship and Conferences Legislative Committees. You have invited me to preach in your local churches, guide your stewardship programs, challenge your churches through long range planning and strengthen your hospitality through mystery worship. I am grateful for the privilege of serving alongside you.

General Conference can be a challenging place to try to get things accomplished. I feel called to continue this service as a delegate because I have been blessed to make connections across the denomination and jurisdiction which have allowed for collaboration to impact legislation. In fact, during the called General Conference, we were working via email with over 100 congregational development leaders across the denomination to perfect legislation. My work has allowed me to have a broad perspective on who our annual conference is and aspires to be as I have worked in all of the districts and consulted with churches of all shapes and sizes.

I am dreaming of a church that creatively connects with its community while calling the people within to deeper discipleship. My ministry was formed by Disciple Bible study which immersed us in the text while connecting us deeply with each other by asking questions that called us to think and grow. Please consider giving me the chance to lead through General and Jurisdictional Conference in 2020.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is that we reflect the beautiful diversity of God’s Kingdom. We, the church, would be examples of Christ’s love: extending grace first and honoring each person as a beloved, image bearing, child of God. Those of us in positions of power and privilege would work to make space for all voices and more importantly, we would pass the mic and listen. We would live out our baptismal vows: we would renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of this world, and repent of our sin. We would accept the freedom and power God gives us to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves. We would work together to bring the hope and new life of resurrection to broken places. We would love as God loves.

I believe God is calling me to represent the marginalized Native Americans of our conference. I was ordained an Elder in North Georgia on June 13, 2006 and served as the Chairperson of the Conference Office of Native American Ministries (CONAM) for 8 years. I also served on the NGUMC Lay Revitalization Team. I received my Bachelor of Science degree from Georgia State University in 1997, my Masters of Divinity degree from Emory University in 2002, and my Doctor of Ministry degree from Erskine Theological Seminary in 2009. I have served from one end of the North Georgia Conference to the other: Burnt Hickory UMC-5 years; Concord-Ruckersville UMCs-3 years; Tunnel Hill UMC-6 years; Harlem UMC-4 years; and New Beginnings UMC-3 years (current appointment). I love Jesus Christ, His Holy Scriptures, and His church—the Body of Christ. I love our polity and our Book of Discipline. I pray that God will make all of us into better disciples who have a heart for all lost sinners. I pray that all of us will confess, repent, die to ourselves, and be recreated daily into the image of Jesus Christ. Praise the Lord for He alone that which we cannot do for ourselves!

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

As a product of the “I Dream A Church...” movement in the late 1990s, I remember when young people around the world were invited to publically dream a church full of a future with hope! Even then, we did not all agree on what that future would look like but we worked together to envision God’s future. I’ve done my best to embody hope in and for our church. I yearn to see our church live into God's hope-filled future. While serving on the Commission on a Way Forward, I learned about and observed several practices that sent me into deep discernment about serving as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. As a result, I now envision a United Methodist Church that is a “via media”/middle way contagious Wesleyan movement, in word and deed, dedicated to life transformation in our communities and around the globe. I love our church and pray for its public identity to be a radically loving and reaching movement that exists to serve God’s people through mission, equipping, worship, community engagement, and the love of Jesus Christ.

I envision a diverse and inclusive church that is a refuge for all; and a place of stretching and growing together. I envision a church where grace abounds; and where justice and kindness are championed. I believe that this will take a balance of tradition and innovation; listening and challenging; tried and true wisdom and inspiring fresh ideas; structure and flexibility. With God, we can do it!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

When I answered my call to ministry and pursued ordination in The United Methodist Church, I chose this denomination because of its rich, Wesleyan theology rooted in grace, holiness, mission & service. Over the past ten years, I’ve witnessed our church move from its emphasis on "Making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World" to an emphasis on social justice based on an ethnocentric view of sexuality. In the process we've wasted time, resources, energy and given more to issues than people!

I feel called to be a delegate to General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference to help lead OR select the leadership for our denomination through the turmoil that has been the past four years and into a new season refocused on mission and ministry, recommitted to our orthodox, Wesleyan, and evangelical faith tradition, and with a renewed spirit of unity as “the people called Methodists.”

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I believe Jesus showed us that in our hearts and in the church we should have a really big table with many people around it with a lot of love between them. Big table. All kinds of people. A whole lot of love.

My spiritual journey has helped me with that. It began on my family’s farm in LaGrange and has taken me in a variety of directions. I’ve been a pastor in rural, suburban, metro, and county-seat settings. I’ve served in Campus Ministry at Emory University and in churches with as few as 50 members and as many as 1800. My experiences have helped me develop my interpersonal skills and ability to work with people with a variety of backgrounds and perspectives. I am down-to-earth and believe everyone can teach me something about what it means to love Christ and serve his church.

I’ve served on two district committees on Ordained Ministry and as Secretary of the Conference Board. I am a Trustee of the conference and will be a district superintendent beginning in June. I understand the beauty and complexity of our connectional system. I know the decisions we make now will affect the church for years to come and I would like to help make them.

If you elect me to serve as a delegate I promise to keep my table, heart, and mind open to the laity and clergy of the NGA Conference, and to the love of God and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

My first encounter with Methodism began when I started attending a United Methodist church for worship with my family. It was there that I had my “heart strangely warmed” experience and my life changed. Since that moment I have enjoyed participating, learning, growing, witnessing, and eventually accepting my call to ministry in the United Methodist Church. The process of becoming an Elder in Full Connection was challenging, encouraging, and edifying experience.

One of the greatest elements of being in ministry in our United Methodist Church is Annual Conference. Some may not agree, but I enjoy my few days in Athens in the summer with my colleagues. It is a joy to hear all of the different ways our church impacts North Georgia and the many of other places around the globe. Our time together of Holy Conferencing builds relationships, restores hope, and increases our faith.

Operating in ministry within the connectional nature of the United Methodist Church is such a blessing to me. As a delegate, representing the North Georgia Annual Conference, I will work hard to help our church continue its vision of “making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” I will work closely with other delegates to bring about unity and to seek ways to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all people. It would be an honor to represent our Annual Conference as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

   My vision for the United Methodist Church is that we will be the body of Christ having the missional focus of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. My prayer is that this will not simply be a mantra we state but a mission by which we live. I am of the belief that in order to do so it will require us to trust God, prioritize the mission God gave to God’s church, and equip ourselves with the experiential knowledge that comes when we have first become disciples ourselves (not simply church members). I envision a church where we not only know scripture, but, most importantly, we are willing to submit ourselves to the God of the scriptures who is presently at work in our world. Not only do I believe that this will lead to the creation of a more authentic and genuine communion, but that it will also lead to the kind of community spoken of in Acts 2:47. One in which “. . . the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.” My vision is that clarity of and commitment to the mission of the church will engender a deep sense of commitment to justice, a willingness to engage in spiritual warfare, the offering of a boundless grace, and where the character of our relationships are such that, in the words of the songwriter, “They will know that we are Christians by our love!”
What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the UMC is that it would work to be relevant to the communities in which the churches are located. This does not mean that the church tests the temperature of the community like a thermometer, but rather that the church would set the temperature based on what the community needs like a thermostat. Doing this requires relationships inside and outside of the church. This requires racial inclusivity as a pivotal benchmark that must be intentional. The church must take seriously the call to feed, clothe, visit, include, and embrace people; all people. Exclusion is incompatible with Christian teaching. The future of the United Methodist Church is bright if it commits to justice and righteousness, grace and mercy, love and service. These things inform my ministry, how I pastor, and the work I do as the chair of the Commission on Religion and Race.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

The work of a delegate includes having vision and even dreaming for the future of the church. My ministry context affords me a unique and invaluable perspective concerning the very future of The United Methodist Church. Serving and working alongside college students and young adults as a Chaplain and campus minister allows me to be in constant connection to the next generation of clergy and lay leaders. These young adults push me to imagine a church that is more focused on outreach and missions and more concerned about community building than building buildings. These young adults care about authentic and genuine leadership. These young adults are centering their lives and vocation with the core values of generosity, diversity, and innovation. Most of all, this generation of young adults believes the church is more than institution. The church must be a creative body of believers who are generating more and new ministries and outposts of grace and love so we may be the Kingdom of God here and now. It is through and because of their energy and honesty and generosity that I am called to be a delegate.

I have been a lifelong United Methodist! I received salvation in the United Methodist Church at 11 years of age. I received my calling to vocational ministry in the United Methodist Church at 13 years of age. I have been serving alongside the United Methodist Church in ministry since that time. I received my M.Div. from Candler Theological Seminary, my D.Min. from Asbury Theological Seminary, have been ordained for 25 years to pastor and plant churches for our great conference. My commitment if elected as a delegate will be:
~ a vow to represent North Georgia with excellence
~ a vote in alignment with God’s Word and an understanding of Church history ~ promote best practices of leadership and apostolic church growth
~ work for deeper connections/partnerships with the global body and members of the General Conference from all over the world. It would be my great honor to serve and represent the North Georgia Annual Conference!

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

The United Methodist Church is one of the most diverse and beautiful connections that strengthen the global impact of Christ’s mission in the world today. As an ordained deacon in our connection serving Global Ministries, I have had the distinct privilege of witnessing this connection at its best and its worst. When we are living at our best, we work together to eradicate poverty in some of the most remote, war-torn, desolate places in the world. When we are at our best, we offer people hope by reaching out and connecting to people who have never experienced Christ's love and grace. When we are at our best, we tell stories of a church community who focuses on the “whole person,” ensuring that the body is fed and nourished and the soul is covered through our connection to Christ and the mind is enriched by the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Over and over again, wherever I travel in the world, these are the stories of hope I hear from the people who have come to know Jesus through The United Methodist Church.

My vision for The UMC is to strengthen, sustain and grow the power of our connection. Our connection to Christ will be the foundation for our connection to each other and the world. I want to continue to be a steward of that connection for God's mission in the world today. I believe I can represent North Georgia well in this connection at General Conference 2020.

I have had the opportunity to serve on the General Council of Ministry (2000-2004) and on the National Hispanic Plan (2002-2004) and on several committees at the Annual Conference level. I am a lifelong Methodist and have served in the North Georgia Conference for over 22 years. I am committed to the future of our church and have a heart for Latino ministry and children's ministries. I am currently on my last year of my Doctor of Ministry at Asbury Seminary on preaching and leadership and would love the opportunity to represent our conference and churches at the General Conference level. I am very familiar with our book of discipline, our polity and our history and feel called to help shape the future of our church.

I am only 45 years old, yet have a wealth of experience serving in the North Georgia Conference, working with churches of all sizes and with a diversity of ministries. I think I would be a good addition to our delegation and would consider it a blessing to serve in this capacity. I nominate myself after prayer and discernment and feel that this is something God wants me to do.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

I believe our Wesleyan theology of grace is the message that is greatly needed today. Reaching out with God's redeeming love for all and growing in our awareness of God's love for us through the means of grace are central to our mission of making disciples of Jesus for the transformation of the world. Many will receive this invitation and growth in grace through the ministry of local congregations. Others reached initially through the ministry of our boards, agencies, missionaries, or campus ministries will hopefully be connected with a local community of faith. Our network of conferences should strengthen the ministry of the local church, offering ways to connect to God's work in the wider world.

Because of God's grace at work in us, we are compelled to reach out to others in love and service. Much of this outreach may occur at the local level, but we may feel compelled to enter God's work in the wider world through a mission experience or a lifetime of mission service. Our connections should make such work easier for us. We should not see our connections as a burden but as a way to strengthen the work of each local congregation to reach out to all in their community with God's love and welcome all who want to join God's ministry of bringing healing to the world. General Conference should work to increase the ability of the local church to contextualize how this grace is offered in each community.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I was raised in a United Methodist ‘Part-time Local’ Pastor’s Home. I have served churches in size from AWA of 36 to AWA of 1500. I know the rural, suburban and town contexts. My present position as District Superintendent has taught me new lessons about the larger Connectional church. It is an honor to lend my years of local church experience to this new role of DS. I served as a Jurisdictional Delegate for the North Georgia Conference in 1992, 1996, 2000, and 2004. My background in the conference has been various, from Vocational and Career Planning, Chair of our Conference Vision 2000 effort, Chair Committee on Resolutions, Working with Physically Challenged through the Aldersgate Homes Board. Presently I am the Cabinet Representative to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. All of this to say that I believe there needs to be some with experience on our General and Jurisdictional Clergy Delegation. Someone who understands the broad spectrum of our diverse conference. I believe our UM Church can have a broad and relevant witness of God's love to ALL people in the world. At this juncture in my ministry I simply desire to be helpful to this work of God’s Kingdom on earth. I love our Lord. I love the United Methodist Church (warts and all). If I can help in some way, then I’m thankful for the opportunity. I will work hard and faithfully for our Lord and His Church. May God’s Peace reign among us. Ephesians 4:4. Amen.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?
For many years, I have advocated—with compassion, love, and integrity—for the authority and complete truthfulness of scripture. I strive to be, along with Wesley, "homo unius libri," a man of one book. Yet, too often, in our arguments over the "presenting issue" that divides our denomination, we speak as if the Bible's witness on sex and marriage no longer matters, or that it's unclear, or that we can't discern what God is trying to tell us. I disagree. My disagreement is based solely on this conviction: once we've done careful exegetical and hermeneutical work—availing ourselves of the best scholarship to determine what scripture says and how it applies to our lives today—we must let scripture alone have its way. Indeed, to do otherwise would be a serious sin: to defy God himself, to contradict his revealed will. This, I fear, is what's at stake in the crisis in which our denomination finds itself: will we be faithful to what God is telling us in the "God-breathed" words that he guided the Bible's authors to write down? As a Candler graduate (2007) who at one time stood on the other side of this issue, I think I've heard all the arguments from scripture for full inclusion of the LGBTQ. I'm now convinced that these arguments are either deceptive, disingenuous, or, at best, poorly reasoned. If elected to GC2020, I will vote with these convictions. Thank you for your consideration.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

    My vision for the United Methodist Church is that we be a people who continue to receive God’s grace humbly, be transformed entirely, and be the body of Christ universally. We live in an ever changing and ever revealing, fallen world. I believe that the U.M.C. is being called to live out a practical divinity while continuing to offer the world the love of God, the power of the Cross, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

    As the United Methodist connection seeks to adapt to an ever-shrinking globe, we should place a robust emphasis on the teachings and applications of Scripture from a Wesleyan perspective. We must be about the business of making new disciples of Jesus Christ and sending them out to proclaim God. I believe the U.M.C.’s future will be one of continued robust prayer, discipleship, transformation and service to the world when we seek God and remain rooted scripturally. This vision for the U.M.C. is a counter-cultural vision. Yet, this vision is the vision of those whom we follow across the arc of Methodist history.

    If the U.M.C. and the North Georgia Annual Conference are to play vital roles in the lives of others to come, the key to our fruitful work will be due to a scriptural rootedness and meaningful, contextual service. Leading our denomination with humility and gratitude in these ways will allow God to receive the glory!

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I feel called by God to be a delegate to do all I can to help us focus on our mission: Making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World. This is our mission and priority. I have worked faithfully since 2008 when I was first elected as a GC delegate to serve in such a way as to keep us focused on our mission as we follow Christ together through the power of the Holy Spirit by loving God and loving all people. God has blessed me with great opportunity to serve in answering this call. I have been afforded leadership positions by being elected by General Conference delegates to serve as the Chairperson of the GAEM Committee of the UMC General Council on Finance and Administration. I understand that the vision required to live in that mission going forward requires a new model to engage and value emerging generations and diverse people groups. Sharing God’s love with them through the ministry of the UMC is my call. Having personally engaged in Cambodia, Russia, Congo, Philippines, and Europe, I am more inspired than ever to be a part of the global move of God that is unfolding and progressing with passion in the UMC. I thank God for the opportunity and for your willingness to consider me one more time to serve God, you, and our UMC brothers and sisters worldwide in making disciples of Jesus who are transforming the world by God’s love.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I do feel called to be a delegate to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences because I believe in the mission of the United Methodist Church (UMC): “to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” I look forward to being an enabler in the continued achievement of this mission. I support the rationale of the mission of the UMC, “…by proclaiming the good news of God’s grace and by exemplifying Jesus’ command to love God and neighbor, thus seeking the fulfillment of God’s reign and realm in the world.” I want to be a facilitator in the UMC in the continued achievement of these goals.

My experience in the worldwide UMC through 25 years of service to the World Methodist Evangelism Institute is an asset. I have visited hundreds of congregations and led training seminars in the United States and in Central Conferences, and I have a heart for the UMC. My 22 years of involvement in World Methodist Conferences, facilitating groups, leading seminars, attending sub-committees, relating well with world leaders in our Wesleyan movement, will help me make significant contributions to the General Conference.

My experiences visiting previous General/Jurisdictional Conferences are assets. I pray for a unified outcome of the specially-called 2019 General Conference and offer to help our denomination achieve further unity. It would be a privilege to represent the North Georgia Conference, participate in key decision-making at the 2020 General/Jurisdictional Conferences and return to my conference to make a difference in my denomination.

Question/Response: Why do you feel called to be a delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conferences?

I would be honored to serve as a delegate to the 2020 General and/or Jurisdictional Conferences. I gladly lend my experience, gifts, and the perspectives I’ve gained from relationships across our conference and global connection in hopes of creating a church with integrity. We need fierce advocates. We also need listeners. Moderators. Peacemakers. This is me. To the delegation, I would bring the gift of empathy in hopes of restoring our humanity.

I have clear vision for our church. I wish to see all legal marriages recognized, consecrated and resourced by the church to ensure health, sanctity and fidelity. I wish to celebrate the ordination of gifted, Spirit-anointed clergy persons, and in my role, help equip them and their congregations for effective ministry; pastors whose age, race, first language, ability, gender identity, or sexual orientation are considered Galatians-like non-issues, or better still considered assets to authentic outreach in their ministry context. I wish to see new disciples growing in Scriptural literacy and imagination. I wish to see healthy clergy in love with ministry, and congregations relentless in bringing people into relationship with Christ.

I savor these words from our communion liturgy: “Lord make us One with Christ, One with Each Other, and One in Ministry to all the world.” This is my prayer for our Church. And it drives my work. My vision is to see true collaboration between congregants, between congregations, and between congregations and their communities. I feel like this is how true Oneness in Christ would manifest.

Question/Response: What is your vision for the United Methodist Church?

My vision for the United Methodist Church is one of full inclusion of our LGBTQ community in all facets of ministry and marriage. This vision flows out of my experience of the expansive and inclusive heart of Jesus. I attended the called session of General Conference and witnessed the damage done towards our LGBTQ community. It’s time for the centrist of our denomination to quit playing referee and get onto the field of this great struggle over human sexuality. God needs us to be advocates for our LGBTQ community. I feel like I could help bring unity, trust and character in doing so. Over the last 5 years, with some struggle, God has changed my heart and mind about how to feel towards marriage and ordination for our LGBTQ members of our church.

I believe General Conference 2020 can be a time to change our denomination’s current trajectory and head in a positive direction. I believed that the One Church Plan was the most hopeful model for GC 2019 and believe we can develop a new model that ensures full inclusion for our LGBTQ members while making room for traditionalists. Lastly, our church needs to become more innovative in our evangelical efforts. We have the best news in the world to share about Christ our Lord and Savior, but our attendance numbers tell us we're missing the mark. I have developed innovative strategies for reaching new people at the local church level that can help our larger connection.
Candidates for Election as Lay Delegates to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences

North Georgia Conference of The United Methodist Church
Dear Lay Members of the 2019 North Georgia Annual Conference,

The laity election process is governed by principles stated in the Laity Election Task Force Recommendation document that was agreed upon by the members of the Laity Election Task Force, presented to and adopted by unanimous vote of the lay members at the Laity Session of the 2009 North Georgia Annual Conference. This document, published in the 2009 North Georgia Annual Conference Journal as a part of the Conference Board of Laity Report, is provided for reference and information:

Serving as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences is an awesome responsibility. Not only must one be mentally and physically fit to endure long days and nights, as well as be committed to extensive preparatory reading, but the delegate must also be prepared to devote financial resources to cover expenses over and above those for which one is compensated. Those who desire to be elected (candidates) must meet The Book of Discipline requirements as described in ¶36, Article V. The Annual Conference responsibility for the election process is covered in The Book of Discipline ¶34, Article III and ¶36, Article V and by Judicial Council decisions 1083, 592 and 435.

The following principles are part of the lay election process:

1. Candidates may participate in the Candidate Handbook which the conference will provide for delegates. This booklet will provide picture, biographical sketch and the option of presenting 300 words to be used as the candidate sees fit but not necessarily for stating the candidate’s position on issues.

2. Candidates should refrain from engaging in criticism of other candidates.

3. We affirm the freedom of each annual conference delegate to support and elect delegates to General and Jurisdictional conference based on the gifts and graces of the individual candidates and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

4. Candidates should refrain from coercing others to support specific candidates.

5. Before the morning sessions, begin on days following the first laity election ballot, the Conference Board of Laity is requested, authorized and encouraged to distribute a Laity Election Summary Report. This summary shall report the election results through the last reported ballot read by the Bishop on the previous day by listing the candidates and the number of votes received in the order of the last ballot.
reported. No other lists of results should be distributed to the laity during the election process after the first ballot.

2019 LAY ELECTION ~ GENERAL INFORMATION

At the 2019 North Georgia Annual Conference in Athens the lay members to annual conference will elect eleven (11) lay delegates to the 2020 General Conference. Members to annual conference will also elect an additional eleven (11) lay delegates to the 2020 Southeast Jurisdictional Conference. Reserve lay delegates to General Conference will be those elected delegates and reserves to Jurisdictional Conference in order of election. Any person meeting the qualifications as provided in the 2016 Book of Discipline, Paragraph 36 is eligible for election.

The names of the 2019 registered lay candidates are listed on the North Georgia Conference website (www.ngumc.org). Each candidate has successfully submitted the required information for registration as a candidate. The Lay Candidates’ maximum 300-word informational statement and photograph were provided by the individual candidate. The 2019 Lay Candidate Handbook will be published and distributed at the district Pre-Conference Briefing.

VOTING/ELECTION OF LAY DELEGATES

The first ballot for election of lay delegates will be taken at the Opening Business Session on Tuesday afternoon, June 11, 2019, following the Opening Worship Service. Subsequent ballots will be taken throughout all business sessions.

Voting at the 2019 Annual Conference will be conducted on electronic devices. There will be training on the use of these devices prior to the first ballot. Each Lay Candidate has been assigned a four (4) digit number and that is the number that will be used to vote your preference for that candidate.

Prior to the opening of each ballot, the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, will lead the conference in a time of silent meditation and prayer.

The Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, will announce before each ballot, the number of candidates to be elected. Voters must cast a vote for the full total number of candidates to be elected on a given ballot in order for their ballot to be valid. Voting for more or less than the number of candidates indicated by the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, will cause your ballot to be invalid and it will not be counted.

When the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, announces the results of election ballots, the names and ballot numbers of persons receiving votes will be projected on the screens in preparation for the next ballot.
If you desire to vote for a qualified person that has not registered as a candidate, you may enter the person’s name in the device during the voting time. Anyone who receives 10 or more write in votes during any ballot will be automatically assigned a number and included on all subsequent ballots.

To expedite the election process, all names receiving 25 or more votes will be read after the ballot by the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop.

REVIEW OF CANDIDATES’ INFORMATION

The posting of lay candidates’ information on the website is for your advance information by the Lay Election Committee of the Conference Board of Laity. In preparation for voting, lay members to annual conference are encouraged to review each candidate’s page to have an understanding of the candidate and the qualifications of each to best represent you and your congregation at General and Jurisdictional Conference.

CANDIDATE-VOTER FORUMS

To assist lay voters in becoming better informed and to allow candidates to speak with the 2019 voters, the Lay Election committee planned two forums. The first forum was held April 13.

The second forum will be held in the Classic Center Grand Hall, Athens, Georgia during Annual Conference on Tuesday, June 11 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. The Committee has provided the web site, the handbook and the forums to encourage voters to be informed before the first ballot.

The Lay Election Committee encourages members to annual conference to take advantage of these opportunities to get to know the candidates prior to election. Registered candidates will be scheduled on the agenda of each forum.

DATES OF GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

General Conference will be held in Minneapolis, MN, May 5-15, 2020. Southeast Jurisdictional Conference will be held in Lake Junaluska, NC, July 15-18, 2020.

Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ,

My name in Nathaniel Abrams, III and I write to submit myself for your consideration as a Lay Delegate to General Conference 2020 for the North Georgia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

I am a member of Decatur First UMC where my wife is the associate pastor. I have been a member of the United Methodist Church for 17 years. I was raised in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, so I am a lifelong Methodist.

I am active in my local church and in our Conference. I have been a Trustee in my local church and currently lead a team developing a process to improve how we make disciples of Jesus Christ. I am a 2015 graduate of Leadership UMC and a Certified Lay Servant. I also serve as the Secretary for the Board of Connectional Ministries. I have served as a Lay Delegate to Annual Conference for several years as well.

The United Methodist Church is my spiritual home. I harbor a deep love for Methodist theology and take seriously our theology’s grounding in scripture. Scripture, reason, experience, and tradition undergird my understanding of God’s universal love and God’s everlasting grace.

I seek to serve as a lay delegate to General Conference because I believe that our church is at a turning point. The United Methodist Church faces serious questions about how it will witness to the love of Jesus Christ in a world that seems ever more complicated and ever more in need of the salvation that Christ offers. I believe that we, the people called Methodists, will need to seek new ways to reach new people in the coming years. With God’s help we can continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
| Candidate 1002 | Candidate Withdrew |
Since 2014, I have attended North Decatur UMC, Atlanta Decatur Oxford District, along with my husband and two young sons. We became members of the church in 2015. I found North Decatur through my position at the Foundation of Wesley Woods, a conference ministry, where I worked in fundraising and church engagement. My role at Wesley Woods allowed me to travel to many churches within the North Georgia Conference to share more about the ministry of Wesley Woods. I represented Wesley Woods at Annual Conference in 2015, my first visit to Annual Conference. Prior to North Decatur UMC, I was an active member at my home church, Bascomb United Methodist Church in Woodstock.

My position within the church has grown gradually over time. I started volunteering in both youth and children’s ministries. I continued to engage in committees within the church, including the Nominating Committee and eventually took the role of Treasurer of Church Council. In 2017, I represented NDUMC as lay delegate to Annual Conference. Most recently in 2019, I took on the role of Chairperson.

As a lifelong United Methodist and Christ follower, I would like to help lead the Conference forward as an inclusive body of Christ. I believe that all people are children of God. While we are not always of the same mind on issues, we have a beautiful connection that makes us stronger as a Church if we remain together. I have seen my church model this through boldly welcoming all people, including those with vastly different viewpoints. Everyone is valued and everyone is loved. Our commitment to one another, to God, and to the United Methodist Church allows us to stand in the gap as we make disciples of Christ with unrelenting love and grace.
I was born and raised in Puerto Rico, the granddaughter of one of the first native Puerto Rican Methodist pastors. My parents and family were Methodist leaders. Since 1987, I have lived in Atlanta, with my husband Walt, and our daughters. I serve in practically many committees and capacities at St. Mark UMC, represented it at NG’s Annual Conference and most recently have been delegate to SEJ.

My journey as a Methodist has been marked by unique experiences. For one, I first worshiped in Spanish and learned to navigate the waters of Christian diversity quickly for as a Methodist, I was a minority in a mainly Roman Catholic country. The words “Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors” carry significant meaning for me as I experienced them from that perspective. With God’s love in our hearts and minds we need to focus on the faith that unites us, the commission to continue evangelizing and not the issues that divide us.

Within that context, I feel it is critical that we remain a church of relevance. Specifically, we must find the best ways to engage several groups: The younger generations—children, youth, and young adults. They value transparency, diversity and the genuine expression of God’s unconditional love for all. Also the marginalized, those living at the edges of our society. Finally, we must build on our multicultural strengths in the U.S. and internationally. My interest is to serve as an instrument that bridges gaps and reinforces ties, while respecting differences. Being an inclusive church that makes love, justice, equality, and peace the grounds for ministry and church polity is essential to advancing the kingdom of God. And to do that we must simultaneously reach internationally, bring the marginalized home, attract and keep our youth and by opening leadership to them.
My name is Richard and I would be humbled to serve as a delegate to general conference 2020. I am a 32 year old graduate of Asbury University class of 2008 where I studied Bible and Theology. I have devoted my life to listening to the Holy Spirit and because of that I have found myself in some incredible places.

Throughout my ministry, I have served as a youth delegate to the north Georgia annual conference, a youth pastor in Lancaster, Kentucky, a camp counselor in Starke, Florida, a campaign director for an evangelical mission to Webuye, Kenya, a middle school small group leader and substitute teacher in Prescott, Arizona, a camp instructor on Catalina Island, California, a youth partner (essentially a dorm parent) in a home for troubled teens in Santa Ana, California, and a soccer coach in Los Angeles, California. In each of these positions I worked to bring the gospel to our young people whether through direct evangelism or through modeling Christ’s love for them.

My heart is evangelism and missions. I love to learn and work within cultures different from our own. Each of these locations I have served are vastly different from one another and I had to learn how to be effective within that cultural context. Essentially I had to learn how to compromise without compromising who I am, or what I believe, or what scripture says. That is the type of delegate I will be. I assure you I will let the Holy Spirit guide me using his historical method of communication, scripture. However I will also listen to tradition, reason, and experience while using the lens of scripture to discern the Holy Spirit’s will on all issues facing our church. May God bless you as you seek his will in this process.

Thank You for electing me as a 2016 general conference delegate. I am honored to have served the North Georgia conference, and is willing to serve in 2020.

The United Methodist Church is the foundation of my faith. I believe that the Church is the only movement in the world that exists for those not yet disciples. When we live out our mission of spreading scriptural holiness, we transform communities for the sake of Christ.

In the community, I support the local schools and outreach programs. In my work profession, I advise, counsel, and assist veterans and family members. As a member of the Conference community, I participated in the Bridges Mission trips to Uganda and Venezuela. These experiences helped me live into John Wesley’s understanding of the “world is our parish.”

For our United Methodist Church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, I would support:

• Our commitment as faithful witnesses of the gospel and the Holy Bible as rule and guide for all decisions
• Maintaining, strengthening and preserving the Wesleyan traditions and the Book of Discipline as our way of living together as United Methodists
• Developing effective leadership that is doing the evangelistic work of Christ
• Empowering laity and clergy who are enlisted and equipped to serve

If elected, I pledge to give my time, talent, gifts, service and witness to the General and/or Jurisdictional Conferences and represent the interests of North Georgia.

My name is Katie Bruner and I am presently a delegate at-large to Annual Conference and member of Gainesville First UMC. As a lifelong United Methodist, I have a deep love and respect for the church.

I have been given the opportunity to serve the church as an acolyte, a volunteer with Appalachian Service Project, a delegate to Youth Annual Conference, a counselor at Camp Glisson and an assistant coordinator for Family Promise of Hall County. I am actively involved in Bible study and have participated in various women’s retreats. I am the current chair of the domestic violence task force in Hall County and also volunteer with Rape Response. My faith in God informs my work.

My professional education is in the field of social work. I have worked with CASA in Rockdale County and DFCS in both Cherokee and Hall Counties. I am presently program coordinator for the DUI accountability court in Hall County. My husband, an Elder in the UMC, and I live in Gainesville and have two daughters who are 13 and 11. They are both active in the local church and inspire me with their ability to make connections between the Gospel and the world around them.

The issues I feel most passionate about include racial injustice and ministry with the poor and disenfranchised. I continually strive to grow in my understanding of the Bible, Wesleyan theology and how we as United Methodists are called to engage the world.

As a relatively young member of the UMC, I feel I have skills and insights which will benefit our church as a North Georgia delegate to General Conference. I value the wisdom of those who have been my mothers and fathers in faith but I am also eager to bring a new perspective to our 2020 delegation.

I am a native of Baltimore, Maryland, residing in Augusta for the past 7 years, following a career move. I was raised with the teachings of both Baptist and Pentecostal doctrines. In high school, I had a profound experience with the United Methodist Church; deciding that when I became an adult, I would actively learn more about the denomination. It was the understanding of GOD’s unmerited GRACE that intrigued me. I have been an active member of the United Methodist Church since 1996, when I joined Loch Raven church in Baltimore; a multi-cultural community of faith. There I served as Lay Member to Annual conference and Sunday School Superintendent, which lead to me accepting Staff positions of Program Ministries Coordinator, and Youth director. Upon moving to Augusta, I actively searched for a similar multicultural congregational experience.

I found Marvin where I have been an active member since joining in 2012. I am a certified Lay Servant and currently serve as Lay Leader and Lay Member to Annual Conference. I am passionate about serving while also possessing a natural ability to lead. During my time at Marvin, I have also served in the following capacities; Children/Youth and Adult Sunday School; Finance and Stewardship Ministries, Vacation Bible School Leader and Hospitality Ministry.

There are many issues before the church and the world today that make it difficult to remain focused on our over all mission. “To make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.” I would be honored to accept the opportunity to show that I can be the change that I’d like to see in the world.

My testimony: Say YES to GOD, and all things are possible!
I have been a lifelong Methodist. I have held practically every position of leadership in the local church as well as District Lay Leader for the Athens Elberton District and a member of the Conference Finance and Administration team.

I am married with two adult children and retired as a hospital CFO. I have held many jobs of leadership in the business world as well as in the church. As a corporate Data Processing Manager and hospital Controller and CFO, I have had in depth training and experience in problem identification and resolution. This required sincere and courteous communication to be effective.

I love the rich history of the Methodist Church and believe that the connectional system is meaningful and effective for understanding and participating in the Church of Jesus Christ that is larger than any one of our churches. I also believe in the John Wesley concept of small groups to hold each of us accountable to a life that is holy and obedient to God and His expectations for our life and ministry. I also believe that the Holy Scripture is inspired by God and is true and relevant for all aspects of our life.

I am a graduate of 2012 Leadership UMC and learned invaluable information of the structure and polity of the United Methodist Church. It was also good training for team efforts for shared ministries. I have participated in many local, district and conference training sessions for various ministry, mission and relational matters.

I pledge to study and prayerfully deliberate on all matters presented at General Conference and my voice will be your voice to uphold the teachings and principles of Jesus Christ as we believe in the North Georgia Conference.
I am an Accounting Professor at Perimeter College at Georgia State University. I have one daughter who is 28 years old. I am member in good standing of Glen Haven United Methodist Church in Decatur, GA, which I have attended for 19 years. Prior to Glen Haven, I was a member at Central UMC and Allgood Road UMC. I am a native of Panama, Republic of Panama where I was an Episcopalian. I became a United Methodist in 1994.

Currently I am the Director of Lay Servant Ministries of the Atlanta Decatur Oxford District. I am the President of Glen Haven’s United Methodist Women. I am the Lay Delegate to Annual Conference and Lay Leader. In addition, I am Treasurer and Director of Glen Haven’s Vacation Bible School. For the past 8 years our church has hosted, under my direction, a Back to School donation drive where we collect school bags and supplies for Canby Lane Elementary School. I am a graduate of Leadership UMC and currently enrolled in Leadership UMC Advanced. I have held numerous positions such as Administrative Council Secretary, Choir member, and Sunday school Director.

As stated in the UM Book of Discipline “Our forebears in the faith reaffirmed the ancient Christian message as found in the apostolic witness even as they applied it anew in their own circumstances”. In 2019 we must remember our heritage and seek to reach others and apply the Gospel of Jesus Christ anew in our own circumstances. We must be inclusive and accept that God loves us all. We may not agree with each other but it is not for us to judge or exclude others because they are not like us. Jesus met people who were different showed them love. We must do the like Jesus did.
Elizabeth Corrie is associate professor in the practice of youth education and peacebuilding and director of the Youth Theological Initiative at Candler School of Theology, Emory University. She works directly with students who become clergy in the UMC and other denominations. She speaks regularly in churches and schools on topics related to youth, contemporary culture, and the role people of faith can play in building peace. She received her B.A. from The College of William & Mary in 1993, M.Div. from Candler School of Theology in 1996, and Ph.D from Emory University in 2002. Corrie served as General Editor of the CEB Student Bible, and contributed devotionals to the CEB Women’s Bible.

Growing up in The United Methodist Church, Corrie has been a lay member to the North Georgia Annual Conference since 2009, representing Druid Hills UMC and Neighborhood Church UMC. Corrie has served as reserve delegate with the North Georgia Delegation to the 2012, 2016 and 2019 General Conferences and as delegate to the 2012 and 2016 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. She is a director on the General Board of Global Ministries for 2016-2020. She was the 2014 North Georgia Annual Conference Laity Luncheon keynote speaker.

As a member of a new church start in North Georgia, Corrie has witnessed the healing power of the Holy Spirit move in places where people who have been deeply hurt by other churches can find a fully inclusive community that affirms that each person is made in the image of God. She is committed to making the church relevant to the lives of young adults and youth, working for racial justice inside and outside the church, and sharing with the world a Gospel message that heals and empowers.

Candidate 1013

Anthony (Tony) Crowe

Address: 4275 Patrick Trace, Peachtree Corners, GA 30092
Home: 770-441-3862 Mobile: 770-235-7790
Email: ajcrowe@bellsouth.net
Occupation: Retired
Church: Simpsonwood UMC
District: Atlanta-Roswell Gender: Male
Ethnic Heritage: Caucasian
Age Group: Adult (over 40)

For over 24-years, I have been a member of Simpsonwood United Methodist Church (SUMC) in Peachtree Corners, GA. I have been married for 46-years and have three adult children and four grandchildren. My wife Deborah worked for over 21-years as a preschool teacher at Winters Chapel UMC and currently serves as the nursery coordinator at SUMC. I have served as an adult leader with Boy Scout troops chartered at two different United Methodist Churches.

In my time at SUMC I have served on the Board of Trustees, Evangelism Committee, Career Ministry, as a regular Usher, and on the leadership team for the SUMC United Methodist Men. I have participated in mission trips to El Salvador and around the Southeast US.

In my professional career, I was a senior executive in the healthcare field. Throughout my career, I have been recognized as a creative executive with strong communications, negotiation, sales, and marketing skills. Prior experience includes management positions with a regional managed care organization, a national behavioral health care system, the world’s largest fully integrated dialysis provider, the industry leader in the treatment of chronic non-healing wounds, and a non-profit pharmacy serving hemophilia patients. All the organizations were heavily involved in disease management programs and/or the provision of health plan services or benefits. For the last several years prior to retirement in 2017, I was the CEO, Managing Partner & Co-Owner of a healthcare consultant firm providing services to healthcare organizations and the managed care industry around the US.

In my opinion, the biggest challenge facing the United Methodist Church is the need to refocus on making disciples of Jesus Christ and reversing the trend of declining membership and attendance since its founding.
My name is Katherine Reece Cullom. I have been happily married for 32 years to Richie Cullom. We have 3 grown children. Our daughter Spencer graduates from Duke Divinity school this year, daughter Sarah is married and lives with her husband Stephen in Atlanta, and son Will graduated from college last year and now works in Denver, CO. All were active in the children and youth programs at St. Andrew. Richie and I live in Cobb County and have been members of St. Andrew UMC (in the Atlanta Marietta District) for 20 years. During our time at St. Andrew I have been a Stephen Minister, Co-chair of the Missions Committee, C0-chair of Family Promise (a Homeless ministry that 4 weeks out of the year provides meals and overnight accommodations for up to 3 families at our church), an active member of the UMW, and a member of the following committees: Staff-Parish Relations, Stewardship, Administrative Council and Finance. Along with my husband, we taught Senior High Sunday School for 10 years and I participated as an adult leader on the Appalachia Service Project weeklong Mission Trip for 10 years. We will join with Sixes UMC on a mission trip to Haiti in September.

Prior to that, we were members of Myers Park UMC in Charlotte, NC where I was born, baptized, confirmed & married. I chaired VBS, served on various committees, and we served as youth volunteers.

As a lifelong Methodist, my position on issues can be summed up by saying that I truly believe in an inclusive and united Methodist Church; one with “open hearts, open minds, open doors.”

I have an MBA from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and currently work as a Family Controller for Gleneagles Group, an extended family office for ultra-high net worth families.
My name is Richard Cullom and I am a Methodist. I always have been, I always will be. I was confirmed in the Methodist Church in Hot Springs Arkansas many, many years ago, was raised Methodist, and married a life-long Methodist at Meyers Park UMC in Charlotte, North Carolina. Together my wife and I raised 3 children in the Methodist church in Charlotte NC and in Kennesaw GA. I have taught and been taught great lessons in adult Sunday School classes on and off for the past 30 years. My wife and I taught youth Sunday school classes for a decade at St Andrew UMC after moving to Kennesaw in 2000. I have co-chaired missions and co-chaired our church’s outreach with Family Promise of Cobb County. To continue my spiritual journey, I have taken Disciple 1, 2 and 3 (currently taking Disciple 4).

To go back even farther, my family has a Methodist circuit rider, the Reverend Jeremiah W. Cullom, whose journal was published under the title Warm Hearts and Saddlebags. With my family’s rich tradition in the Methodist church, I am truly invested in making sure Methodism has a future.

My collegiate training is in industrial engineering. Professionally, I use my engineering background daily in software application design, development and maintenance. While I am not a theologian, I apply the same rigor to the study of God’s word and God’s creation. I have humbly learned the following: God continues to teach us through the Holy Spirit. The survival of the church requires we start with scripture, search our hearts through our experiences (with the help of the Holy Spirit), use our God-given intellect, and search through Christian tradition to discern truth. We cannot fear change for tradition’s sake alone, especially when change is supported by scripture.
I am a retiree of BellSouth Corp. with two adult children and five grandchildren.

LOCAL CHURCH: My service includes BHTI Chair, NLD Vice Chair, Associate Lay leader; member of Executive Leadership Team, Communion Steward, Legacy Endowment and Giving Secretary, Marks of Discipleship Curriculum Writer, PLACE Coach. I have completed Disciple 1-6, taught Disciple 6, and currently facilitate various Bible studies.

DISTRICT: Connectional Ministries and District Board of Laity; ACPK Associate Lay Leader, LSM committee member and facilitator, and Lay delegate to the Annual Conference for five years.

It would be my honor to serve as a delegate to the 2020 General Conference.

Major issues I see impacting the church and our future are:

- Losing focus on our mission to make disciples for Christ.
- Gaining and sustaining youth involvement, and the decline of membership.
- We do well in providing information and education, but only by seeking and submitting to the Spirit of God, can we experience revelation and transformation to carry out our mission.

As one who subscribes to Wesleyan tradition, I believe that the “heart of the matter is a matter of the heart”. Wesley focused on ongoing transformation of the heart, which enables us to become agents of God’s transforming love in the world. If we will surrender, God’s saving love will become a tangible reality in this world through us.

I ask for your vote to join my voice with other delegates in defining our future within the UMC. I believe I add value because I believe in the power of prayer, I am open to the views of others, and I have a genuine enthusiasm for kingdom work.
My name is Anna Diaz-Caballero. I grew up in the United Methodist Church – specifically, Haygood Memorial United Methodist Church. My mother sang in the church choir when she was pregnant with me, and I now sing side by side with her almost every Sunday. Growing up attending Haygood’s preschool, Sunday school, and youth programs was a fantastic experience. I always feel loved by my Sunday school teachers, pastors, and other fellow members. And I love them all dearly.

Haygood is my home, and I have worked to help all people feel at home at Haygood. This includes our LGBTQ+ members and friends. I believe in inclusivity in the church, because we are all deserving of love.

After attending undergraduate at the University of Georgia and law school at Mercer University School of Law, I came home to Haygood. I have joined the Missions committee and participated in the Altar Guild. From unloading Christmas trees in the rain (the proceeds of which go to fund a Habitat for Humanity build), to hammering nails into the frame of a house at a Habitat build, and hanging greens in preparation for the Advent/Christmas season, I felt joy and fulfillment.

This past year was especially meaningful for me at Haygood. I got married to my husband at Haygood. I took on the role of Secretary at the Administrative Council meetings. I am mentoring two great confirmands, and I was to be nominated to be the lay delegate for this year’s Annual Conference.

In running for lay delegate to the 2020 General Conference, I want to continue to give back to the church who gave me so much growing up. I want to show that the love everyone showed me and the time they devoted was impactful and so very appreciated.
I was born a Methodist in Savannah, baptized as an infant by my uncle, Rev. Olin C. Cooper an ordained Elder South Georgia Conference and confirmed at Sylvester United Methodist Church. I grew up at the Belvedere United Methodist Church in Decatur, Georgia and was active in MYF as an officer, lay witness missions, etc.

As an adult I joined Decatur First United Methodist Church. There I was very active in UMW, Young Adult Council, Council on Ministries. I was a delegate to the Women’s Quadrennial in 1982.

I am married to a retired Ordained Methodist Deacon. We raised five children and now have eight grandchildren. I taught several ages of Sunday School and went an Appalachian Service Project with the Youth Group.

Currently my husband and I are members of Dunwoody United Methodist Church. I am involved with the UMW, am responsible for Lenton Lunches, and am on the Pryme Tymers Council. I am the Coordinator of Spiritual Growth for the Roswell District officer. I serve as the Coordinator of Spiritual Growth.

Because I am a lifelong Methodist I know how the Methodist Church is organized and how it operates. My husband was elected as a Lay Delegate to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference in 1988 and elected as a Lay Delegate to Jurisdictional Conference in 1992 and I attended both as an observer.

My daddy was a delegate to the North Georgia Annual Conference and have been attending for as long as I can remember. I have continued to attend with my husband.

My basic philosophy is a Methodist. I believe in the teachings of our leader, John Wesley and the Quadrilateral. I believe that John Wesley’s teachings are a good model for my life and have formed my moral compass.
My name is Maxine Pinson Easom. I am a member of Oconee Street United Methodist Church in Athens. I was baptized as an infant at Oconee Street where six generations of my family have worshipped. Through my life I have continued to learn in that place about God’s love, the prevenient grace of Jesus, and being in mission. The saints of my church taught me to serve because of the gifts God had bestowed on me.

At Oconee Street I have served as the music director since college. I have chaired church council; trustees; worship, education, finance committees; United Methodist Women. In 2013 when our church burned, I chaired the rebuild committee. Over three million dollars later, we emerged with no debt and have continued to grow.

Beyond the local church, I have chaired district trustees, the committee on district superintendency, and served on the district committee on ordained ministry, where I assisted the district superintendent with the Pathways to Ministry program. In 2012, I attended one week of General Conference as an observer at my own expense.

My work for over thirty years as an elementary, middle school, and high school principal, was my response to God’s call. Always serving in an urban setting, I learned the worth of those who are often ignored, the gifts of those who are considered “less than,” and how much we can learn from young people.

In Ephesians 4:11-13, God calls us to bring all into the unity of the faith and the knowledge of Jesus. I believe in the worth of each person God created and that we have no authority to decide who is superior, who God loves most, or who is unworthy. I am committed to the full inclusion of all people in the life of the United Methodist Church.

My story began at a United Methodist church planted in Greenville, SC, where my parents were charter members. I was the first infant baptized, and we were at church more nights than not with parents who said yes to every service and leadership opportunity they were offered.

In high school and college, I served as a youth representative on church council, a counselor at Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp, and a student leader at Furman University Wesley. After graduating, I worked at Epworth United Methodist Children’s Home in Columbia, SC.

I moved to Athens, GA in 2010 where I became an affiliate member of Tuckston UMC. I dove in as a youth leader, missions committee chair, and worship team member. After living in Athens for five years, earning a Masters of Social Work then working at a local homeless shelter, I moved to Atlanta to pursue Candler’s newest degree program: a Masters of Religion and Public Life.

At Candler I focused on the intersect between churches and nonprofits.

After completing my MRPL I began working at Action Ministries, where I am now the Director of Faith Relations. At Action, I work to connect faith communities to our work supporting housing, hunger relief, and education programs.

In 2016 I married my husband in the church where I was raised. We joined Eastside Church in Atlanta. Eastside reminds me so much of my childhood congregation. I am helping our congregation start a youth group and, as my parents taught me, saying yes however I can.

That ingrained call to say yes now leads me to serve as a Lay Delegate to General Conference 2020. I hope to represent my community, my family, and my generation as we continue the work of our denomination, which I love so deeply.

THANK YOU for electing me to General and Jurisdictional Conferences and 2008-12 Conference Lay Leader. Through these valuable opportunities, you equipped me to represent you with knowledge, insight and experience.

I SUPPORT:
* Orthodox theology and Christian teachings of Wesley; compliance and accountability to uphold current Book of Discipline by clergy and laity;
* Evangelism as the main focus of UMC; laity and clergy in ministry of prayer and mission to proclaim scripture as primary and Jesus Christ as Lord;
* Mentoring lay leadership through developmental programs such as Leadership UMC and Lay Servant Ministry;
* Encouraging youth/young adults to make disciples, seeking innovative ways to attract the unchurched through mission, community involvement and the church as a place of refuge for all of God’s people;
* Seek opportunities for youth to explore God’s call to ministry and service, encouraging the planting of new worship places;
* Ecumenical partnerships fostering God’s love and grace throughout the world;
* Operating within our financial means at the general church level; reducing local church apportionments hereby encouraging local missions and ministry to the least, last, lost and lonely.

I PLEDGE: My time and energy to prayerfully represent laity and clergy, if elected.

SERVICE:
GENERAL CHURCH: Delegate to General & Jurisdictional Conference CONFERENCE: Director, Leadership UMC & LUMC ADVANCED; Chair, Journal/Handbook Committee; Member: Board of Laity, Trustees, Lay Servant Ministries.
DISTRICT: Member: Board of Laity, Board of Ordained Ministry, Lay Leadership Committee, Church Development; Connectional Group Coordinator.
LOCAL CHURCH: Lay Leadership; Stephens Minister; Disciple Bible Study.
OTHER: GA NARFE Federation Editor/PR Chair; President, NARFE Chapter 1818; Leadership Development Seminar Facilitator.

Holy Spirit, help me to be a living example of your Word, a disciple of your teachings and a humble, willing servant, treating everyone with love, dignity and respect!
As the son of two United Methodist music ministers, I was born and raised in the United Methodist Church. My dad has been the senior music director, and my mom the youth and children’s music director at local UMCs in every town we have resided. In my youth I was most active at Peachtree Road UMC in Atlanta where my mother, Kathy Fletcher, is employed. I sang in the youth choir, ventured on many choir tours across the country, and served on three mission trips to Nicaragua.

After graduating high school, I attended the University of Georgia and pursued a degree in Agricultural Engineering. Throughout the academic semesters I was heavily involved as a freshman small group leader at the UGA Wesley Foundation, and during the summers I was an adventure counselor at Camp Glisson. In my post-graduate life, I have worked in the engineering industry as a building envelope consultant for a small, private firm in Sandy Springs. Meanwhile, I also continued my involvement in the church by returning to PRUMC and helping lead the Young Adult Sunday School.

In 2018 I decided to answer my lifelong call to ministry by quitting my engineering job and enrolling full-time at the Candler School of Theology to pursue my Master of Divinity. I hope to use my mDiv to become an ordained elder in the UMC. Though technically a layperson, I am currently a certified candidate for ordination and reside among the Atlanta College Park District.

I want to serve as a delegate at the 2020 General Conference because I have been a lifelong United Methodist, and I care about the future of our church. Furthermore, I hope to represent the younger body of the UMC on issues that will greatly impact the UMC’s relevance and flourishing among future generations.
I consider it a great privilege and an honor to have served our UMC as an elected delegate to the past three General and Jurisdictional Conferences and the 2019 called conference. Throughout my time of service, I have worked to maintain a unified UMC with a commitment to the fulfillment of our mission to make “Disciples of Christ for the Transformation of the World”.

I support:
• teaching and practice of traditional biblical principles on matters relating to personal holiness, social justice and the sanctity of the marriage covenant;
• aggressive evangelistic activities involving youth and young adults;
• our commitment to racial reconciliation and revitalization of small churches;
• teaching the Bible as the inspired and authoritative Word of God that is relevant today and maintaining our distinctive Wesleyan emphases;
• faithfulness to our United Methodist heritage, upholding scriptural Christianity as stated in our current Book of Discipline;
• cost-effective governance with fiscal responsibility and accountability from boards and agencies to reduce local church apportionments.

As President & CEO of Woolworth Overseas Corporation I managed a global business operation and have extensive experience negotiating contracts with foreign governments and building bridges between people groups in different cultures. I believe my business background and my experience as a delegate uniquely qualifies me to serve.

If you elect me, my pledge is to use my management and leadership skills to be a voice that represents North Georgia values during the debates that take place on proposed resolutions and amendments to our Book of Discipline.

We can make a difference!

Conference: Board of Laity; Conference Finance & Administration; LUMC Graduate; Advanced LUMC Graduate; NGUM Foundation Board
AROS District: Lay Leader; Superintendency; Finance; Certified Lay Speaker
Kingswood: former Lay Leader; SPR, Council, SS, Disciple Bible Teacher; UMM; Emmaus.
Christ calls us to Do One Thing, Make Disciples of All Nations. John Wesley preached, “Do all the good you can to all the people you can”. Someone being a Disciple and doing good to one person, led to me, Jeffery Fuller, becoming a Disciple of Christ.

My upbringing by fore-parents Oscar and Marie Fuller encompassed extended family, culturing me and instilling worthiness from God. This Culturing taught me to see humanity beyond what looks like me.

My exposure to United Methodism 10 years ago has grown me to desire to be nothing but a United Methodist. The Unity of God’s Children Methodically following Christ is where my Heart Holds.

Prior to becoming a part of Central United Methodist Church, I was exposed to Discipleship during my Matriculation at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Studies to become a Physician’s Assistant with Master studies in Public Relations led me to Atlanta thru employment at Emory Hospital.

Since becoming an active member of the United Methodist Church, I have been Blessed and Honored to serve as: Local church Trustee, Chair of Trustees, Member of ADHOCC committee, Member of Finance, Elder Care, Transportation, United Methodist Men, Worship Committee, Parrish Project Group, Pastor Lay Assistant, Next Faithful Steps, and Local Lay Servant. My Passion is Lay Servant ministry, which has lead to me becoming a Certified Lay Speaker in the North Georgia Conference. Additionally, I serve on the Conference Healthy Church Initiative Team, Atlanta College Park Lay Servant Ministry Committee, and Hapeville UMC Advisory participant. I am a Graduate of LUMC & Advanced LUMC. Also Small Group Leader at my Local Church.

God’s shinning and speaking in my Spiritual Growth allowed me to serve as a Delegate for the NGUMC 2018 Annual Conference as well as a Teller. My Hearts Desire and Goal is for My Church – My Denomination to Do, Be & Reflect what God Wants – Centered on Christ.
I am Rachel Fullerton and I am offering to serve as a delegate to General Conference 2020. I was a delegate to both General Conference 2016 and the Special Conference 2019. I am a child of the church. My dad, Lee Fullerton, is retired clergy and continues to serve as interim pastor in the North Georgia Conference. My mom, Karen Fullerton, is the North Georgia Conference Benefits Officer.

As a child, I heard Jesus say, “Feed my children” while I worked alongside church members in the Tenth Street UMC food pantry; I grew into leadership in the Allen Memorial UMYF. As a young adult, I discovered the joys of our “life together” in the Wesleyan tradition while going on mission projects to Honduras, New Orleans, Jacksonville, Mountain Top, and Hinton Rural Life Center.

At Wesleyan College, Chaplain Bill Hurdle’s emphasis on community building, worship, study, and service were integral to my education. His advice, “Love for the sheer joy of loving” prepared me well to be a delegate to General Conference during our denomination’s troubled times. Bill remains an inspiration for my work as chair of the Georgia Tech Wesley Foundation Board of Directors since 2017.

I am currently Lay Leader and youth counselor at Embry Hills UMC. I also serve on the church’s UMW Executive Board. I am the NGC young adult lay representative. I am employed at Oak Grove UMC in Decatur where I am Executive Assistant to the Senior Pastor.

I would like the opportunity to add my voice to the chorus of people from across the connection who seek to follow Christ’s leading and loving us to be “one in the Spirit and one in the Lord.” Only then can we continue to make disciples of Christ for the transformation of the world.
My name is Kathryn Garvin, I am 31, & the youngest of three. I was baptized & Confirmed at Cannon UMC in Snellville, Georgia. I was active in the youth group, youth choir, & volunteered in church activities throughout middle & high school. My love for the United Methodist Church has only grown during my time as a member, & has been instrumental in shaping me into the leader I am today.

I have a degree in History from the University of Georgia, where as a student, I was involved in the Wesley Foundation in their leadership track. I then spent three years as an intern. One year was spent in Youth Ministry at St. James UMC in Athens as a youth intern. The other two years, I served in the Women’s ministry. I spent time being discipled & discipling others. Each week, we hosted a worship service for an average of 800 students. I regard my time at Wesley as some of the most precious & spiritually formative years of my life.

Three years ago, I began to volunteer with the youth ministry at First United Methodist Church of Lawrenceville, where I lead the 11th grade girls small group. I currently attend FUMCLV on Sundays, & am active in the young adult ministry.

I have been a United Methodist my entire life. I love the liturgy, the history, & the community. I have a vested interest in the future of the denomination that has raised & nurtured me. I want to continue to see the church grow & thrive in a way that serves everyone. I want to see a church where the clergy is representative of all people. It is my hope that the church will continue to be globally united, as one church. It would be a privilege to represent the North Georgia Conference at General Conference 2020.
Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I would be honored to represent the North Georgia Laity at the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences. I believe my work with the North Georgia Annual Conference over the past 11 years has uniquely prepared me to serve effectively with both Lay and Clergy toward our core mission to “make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by proclaiming the good news of God’s grace and by exemplifying Jesus’ command to love God and neighbor ...”

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

I’ve heard the call to serve, and, with joy and gracious help from others, I’ve heeded that call in North Georgia. Now, with your help, I’d like to answer that call in our larger United Methodist Church. As a delegate, I will value every viewpoint and understand that sometimes we will agree and sometimes we will agree to disagree. Through it all we must never forget to love and pray for each other. We are all God’s beloved children.

My varied experiences at the church, district, and conference levels will serve me well in holy conferencing. Please know I will carry your prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness with me into every interaction I have along this journey.

And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, life-long United Methodist, husband, father, software consultant, mentor -- I passionately love the Church and earnestly seek to see her come into full maturity as the Bride of Christ through the growth and development of the body of believers both current and future.

I support:
- Teaching orthodox theology in the Wesleyan Christian tradition.
- The authority of Scripture and the current Book of Discipline with compliance and accountability by all United Methodists.
- Developing and promoting Bible based programs that will attract and retain youth and young adults in the church.
- The Great Commission -- making disciples following Jesus’ example with small groups and life-on-life discipleship training.
- Conference sponsored programs on evangelism, missions, stewardship, and leadership assisting local churches in congregational development.
- Faithful and accountable relationships between laity and clergy in the work of the church.
- Fair conference representation on all General Church boards and agencies.
- Continued restructuring of boards and agencies, with an eye to efficiently stewarding conference budgets and reducing local church apportionments.

Current Service:
- Annual Conference: Lay Member, Leadership UMC
- Local Church: Church Council, Choir Section Leader, Praise Team Member, Covenant Group Leader, Walk to Emmaus/Chrysalis, Men’s Discipleship Ministry
- Experience in the local church on finance and stewardship committees, as a Church Lay Leader, as an international mission team leader, and as a youth leader and young adult leader, in the District with Lay Speaking Ministries, as well as, corporate experience negotiating agreements with large multinational enterprise clients will serve as a foundation for addressing issues coming before our global General Conference.

As a humble servant of Christ, desiring to represent you, I welcome your continuing feedback. If elected for the 2020 Conferences, I will serve to the best of my ability while continually seeking guidance from the Holy Spirit.
I was baptized as in infant in the United Methodist Church.

I was confirmed at 12 years old Wilmington Island United Methodist Church and spent many days at Epworth by the Sea. I transferred membership From Wilmington Island United Methodist Church to Asbury United Methodist Church and upon moving to Atlanta from Savannah, I am a member if Saint Mark United Methodist Church.

I went into the Special Called General Conference with hopes that our UMC family would come together on a plan forward offering hope, reconciliation, and unity – unfortunately that is not the case. Our new reality is a plan that sets us back generations. While my heart hurts and my soul is injured, I have confidence that the realization of our truth is not far in the distance. Through the pain of watching the delegates debate my worth as a human being, God has renewed my call to ministry. The call to end oppression, honor freedom, uplift humanity, heal trauma, rejoice in purpose, and celebrate diversity.

I commit myself to live and lead in the name of God’s love, a liberating love that transforms hate to love and division to unity. I commit myself to ensure that when our brothers and sisters, young and old pray at night, that their prayers are not prayers of despair and longing for acceptance, but prayers of gratitude for being whole persons celebrating their humanity.

Lastly – my resolve is to not allow words to be used as weapons, to educate the value in exegesis of the scripture as opposed to the eisegesis we see all too often. I graciously ask that you vote for me as a delegate to represent the true essence and flavor of our North Georgia community.

After growing up in the Christian Church, I had lost interest and stopped attending when friends invited me to East Point First UMC. The United Methodist Church captured my interest with the promise of open hearts, minds and doors. That, along with John Wesley’s emphasis on God’s grace, social justice and mission work soon convinced me that I had found the church in which I was meant to worship and serve with joy and enthusiasm.

Since then, my husband and I have joined Fayetteville 1st where we have attended for 24 years. I have served as Sunday school teacher, on the missions committee, church council, circle chair, United Methodist Women president, district UMW officer and lay leader. Currently I am in my 3rd year serving as LaGrange district president for United Methodist Women and I am a member of the district Board of Laity. I have taken several Disciple courses as well as the Covenant study and am currently taking the Fast Track Disciple course.

One of my favorite jobs at FFUMC is ushering. After a 30 year career as a flight attendant, I am a born greeter. It is important to me that visitors are noticed, spoken to and introduced to others. I think of it like welcoming guests into my home. And the United Methodist church is truly my home.

I have a BS degree in English from Georgia Southern and taught high school for three years. My husband and I have three “mostly” grown sons, a darling brindle Boxer and two black cats.

It is my hope that when people seeking Christ, and all those in need of Him, see the cross and flame, they will know they have found a church where they will be welcomed and loved as a valued child of God.

As the daughter of a pastor, I was raised a Methodist, have seen and lived in many areas of the country and have served in various types and sizes of Methodist churches. I am a core member of Hope Church in Dallas, a 22-year-old church plant launched in partnership with McEachern UMC.

My career was as a corporate trainer. I have been able to use that experience by teaching in the church, from 3rd grade to adult Sunday School classes, special classes on Fruit of the Spirit, Relationship with Teens, and studies on specific books of the Bible. I have served on our Executive Council, SPR, and been a Small Group leader. On the conference level, I have participated in Lay Servant Ministries classes, graduated from LUMC, and have joyfully been a lay member to Annual Conference for Hope Church. As a member of the Walk to Emmaus Community since 1998, I have participated and served on their Board and have been a Lay Director for both Walk to Emmaus and Chrysalis. I enjoy studying, learning and sharing through witnessing to others.

I am committed to be a faithful witness to God’s calling on my life. I trust the Bible is the true word of God. I support and believe the Wesleyan theology and Book of Discipline are key to the Methodist tradition.
I will assist in promoting and developing Bible based training and programs that will enhance our churches.
I believe in being good stewards of our time, resources and finances. I will participate in making disciples, building bridges between clergy and laity, and equipping members to become leaders in ministry and missions.

I would appreciate your consideration to elect me as a delegate to 2020 General & Jurisdictional Conferences.

I want to be a lay delegate in order to further serve the United Methodist Church. As a member of Birmingham UMC in Milton, GA and as a staff member of The Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church I understand the call to serve the Church, serve the community, and make disciples of Jesus Christ. I have prayerfully considered this endeavor and feel the call to be a lay delegate.

My love of the UMC is deep and enduring. My earliest memories of church include my Sunday School teacher who sharing Jesus loved me no matter what. She set the foundation which my dad built upon and now my own children are beneficiaries. Even my career choice has been influenced by my faith and the UMC. I am a moderate and believe the Bible is the Word of God. I believe the theology of the UMC and also that we are called to make disciples of all nations.

I am married to Mike Heinz, who is studying to become a chaplain. We have two children: Amelia who is 11 and Riley, who is 8 years old. Both children have grown up in the UMC and love Jesus. Amelia looks forward to the day when she can serve as a missionary.

As the UMC celebrates 200 years of mission work please grant my prayerful call to serve as a lay delegate for the 2019 Annual Conference. I am stepping forward as a member who truly loves God and has always done her best to discern what God is calling her to do. I would dutifully serve as a lay delegate and dedicate myself to serving the Church. I know it won’t be easy, but I am called to this and will not disappoint the Lord - or His Church.
My wife and I were led to FUMC Allen, Texas in 2009. We both had been reared in different religions. My wife was Roman Catholic; I was Church of Christ. But as adults, we hadn’t been back, anywhere. At age 33, we decided we needed to find a church home.

After visiting multiple churches, our search brought us to FUMC Allen. We both knew nothing about the Methodists, beyond that their building sat between the Catholic church and the newly built Church of Christ. As I sat in the pews, deciding whether I even liked this church or not, Rev. Todd Harris stood behind the alter and said the most amazing thing: “I simply want to remind us, this is not our table; rather it is God’s table. This is not a United Methodist’s table; it is God’s table. And all of you, Children of God, are invited to come and taste the sweetness of God’s love and God’s good news.” At that moment I knew we had found our home. I looked over and saw the tears welling up in my eyes also forming in my wife’s.

After joining FUMC, we also joined a Sunday morning class called Cornerstone. Little did we know they would become our extended family and such an amazing support group in a short period of time. Our Cornerstone class pushed us and helped us grow within the church. We started teaching a youth class Sunday mornings, and I was asked to Chair the Adult Ministries Council.

Three years ago, we moved to Atlanta and were led to Eastside Church. Since joining, we’ve led a small group and just recently starting to teach the youth again. I’m excited to find out what the Lord has in store for us next.

My family’s history with the North Georgia Conference goes back nearly a hundred years. My great-grandfather, H.A. McNeil, served the North Georgia conference from the 1920s through the 1960s, my grandfather, J.B. McNeil, served from the 1950s until the early 2000s, and my mother, Nanci Hicks, was ordained in 1997 and still serves today. I currently serve as the Director of Modern Worship at Oak Grove UMC. I led worship at Annual Conference in 2016 and 2017 and helped organize worship in 2018 and my son was baptized by the bishop and my mother at annual conference in 2017. This Church has raised me, formed me, and sustained me and my hope is that I would live out the example given by such a great cloud of witnesses.

I was baptized by my grandfather at Grace UMC in 1986, and in 1988 at two years old I preached my first sermon from his pulpit. Inspired by both his emotion and his message, I demanded that he pick me up and let me share a word. He obliged and so, imitating what I had seen so often before, I grabbed the pulpit with both hands slamming my hand down on the bible as I spoke. It turned out the microphone had been left on, so the entire congregation heard the message that was at the core of my faith formation and the message my grandfather preached until the day he died, “JESUS! LOVES! YOU!”

I have made it my life’s work to share this message as often and as loudly as I can through my words and my actions. My family history aside, I am passionate about the future of our great Church and, while I share the same fears and uncertainties as many United Methodists as we near the end of this quadrennium, I stand firm in my belief that through the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit we, as the Church, will be a place where all of God’s children may hear just how much Jesus loves them.

Unity, not Uniformity.

My father was a minister in the North Georgia Conference so I was raised in a variety of churches, each different, but each welcoming.

Camp Glisson nurtured my faith; as a camper, a counselor and a board member. There I witnessed the power of radical hospitality to show God’s love. As one camper shared, “At Camp Glisson it’s ok to wear stripes with plaids”.

I dream of United Methodist churches with “Open Hearts, Open Hands, Open Doors”.

When I was a child, women were welcomed to serve in the kitchen or the nursery at church, but not in the pulpit. Today my life is blessed by amazing female clergy.

When I was a child, my father welcomed the first African-American member at Glenn Memorial. At the 2016 SE Jurisdictional Conference I voted for the first African-American woman from Georgia to be elected a bishop.

I have witnessed the United Methodist Church change.

The world needs churches that welcomes progressives and traditionalists. John Wesley said, “Though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, though we are not of one opinion? Without all doubt, we may.”

What is the future?

We are “to plant trees under whose shade we will never sit”. Our youth and young adults are not the future. They are the church now. Let’s be the church with them. Let’s open leadership opportunities to them.

Let’s plant.

I have worked for more than a decade to protect vulnerable populations in foster care, Food Stamps, Medicaid and Social Security Disability. Accordingly, I have worked with a diverse group of people to provide services to the least of these. My professional experience also includes defending cases in administrative hearings.

I currently give leadership to the YoungER Men’s Ministry of the United Methodist Men (UMM). We are working on developing Best Practices to reach YoungER men for Jesus Christ and for sustainable growth of the United Methodist Church (UMC) in the present. Additionally, I serve as a Lay Servant at Impact UMC; where I have provided leadership to the new member’s classes, small groups and adult discipleship ministries.

While completing a master’s degree in African American Studies, I went to seminary and obtained a graduate certificate in Biblical Studies. Consequently, I hold membership in the Society of Biblical Literature – which is an academic association for biblical scholarship. Furthermore, I will be pursuing a Doctor of Theology degree in the fall of 2019.

COMMITMENTS:
• Teachings of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit as recorded in the Gospels and Acts.
• Theology and ethics rooted in the devout Wesleyan understanding of redemption, holiness, renewal, grace and truth.
• Making disciples of YoungER Men – in accordance with the goal of the 2016 General Conference (1 million new disciples before 2020).
• Representing the values of the global diversity of the UMC – the Social Principles of the UMC are based on the Mainline Protestant Church of the 20th century and are not reflective of the values of the African, Asian and minority American Churches.
• Reconciliation that is grounded in calling people into a relationship based on the unconditional love of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for the opportunity to represent you at General or Jurisdictional Conference.
Jay Horton is a 23-year-young, Colorado-born, Virginia-raised, and Georgia-grown, public relations professional, passionate people-lover, and life-long United Methodist. A 2017 alumnus of the University of Georgia Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, Jay has a heart for the spiritual and enjoys helping churches curate a unique voice in an overstimulated world.

Jay is a member of Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church where he sings in the choir and serves on their Communication Committee. He is also the Director of Communication at East Cobb United Methodist Church and is a Communication Specialist with the Conference Office. Previously, he has worked in Student Affairs at the University of Georgia, as a ministry coordinator at Roswell United Methodist Church, and in youth ministry at Lake Junaluska in North Carolina. He is a member of the Annual Conference Journal and Handbook Committee, has been a delegate to the past four North Georgia Annual Conferences, and previously served on the Conference Council on Youth Ministry.

Jay was a page to General Conference 2016 in Portland and General Conference 2019 in St. Louis. Jay will begin studies at Candler School of Theology at Emory University in the fall and hopes to be a certified candidate for ministry on the ordained-Elder track by the year’s end. He has a passion for proclaiming the true Gospel of Jesus Christ and understands enough of the intricacies of United Methodist polity to be a true asset to the lay delegation of North Georgia in Minneapolis, General Conference 2020. He vows to always vote on the side of peace, justice, hope, unity, and love for all God’s beautiful children.

“Let’s work for the good of all whenever we have an opportunity” (Galatians 6:10a).
My full name is Henry Morrison Huckaby named by my father after Henry Clay Morrison, a fifteen-year president of Asbury College. So, my spiritual and theological roots are grounded in Wesleyan Methodism.

Sadly, today after 77 years as a John Wesley Methodist I am grieved by the division, acrimony and leadership failure in our denomination. We have lost our guiding focus which is the life and teaching of Jesus Christ. We are no longer inspired and led by that timeless hymn “The Church’s One Foundation.”

I am heartbroken by the work and the tenor of debate during the 2019 General Conference. It’s time for plain talk: we are a divided church in fact if not in structure. Healing cannot take place until the bleeding stops.

Therefore, delegates elected to the 2020 General Conference must be committed to guiding the UMC out of chaos to a firm foundation and vision for its future even in division.

For example, I strongly believe that those congregations that feel led to leave the UMC as currently constituted should be allowed to do so with dignity and without undue restraint and penalty.

Perhaps my leadership experiences both within and without the Church could be of value in that effort. My activities in the Church have been and continue to be varied: teacher, finance committee, SPR, Conference Council on Finance and Administration, and organizing chair of the Conference Homeless Council, and delegate to Annual and General Conferences.

My 50 years in state government and higher education included Chancellor of University System of Georgia, State Budget Director, and Senior VP of Finance and Administration at UGA. Currently I am a Trustee of Young Harris College, and Board Member Athens Community Foundation and St. Mary’s Hospital Foundation.
I believe God has uniquely positioned the United Methodist Church to make an impact for the Kingdom. Thank you for electing me to the past four General Conferences. It would be an honor to represent you again in 2020.

My Beliefs:
• We should strategically invest in ministries that make a difference. As NGC Missions/Global Ministries team leader, I saw the renewal that comes when churches are externally focused. That is why I am passionate about helping churches move from an internal focus to an external/missional focus.

• The primary work of the church is making disciples. As lay leader I spearheaded a transformation of our local church structure to move people from committees to ministry and focus resources on mission and evangelism.

• We should build bridges across cultural and racial lines, and among lay and clergy. I was very excited to help in bringing together GBGM, The Mission Society, and World Methodist Evangelism to become co-sponsors of multiple Beyond These Walls Mission Conferences.

• We are called to be good stewards. As a businessman who has to make payroll every week, I will work to reduce the bureaucracy of our church, thus returning resources to the local church for ministry and mission.

• We are called to be faithful. I will defend our traditional church doctrines.

Areas of Service:
General & Jurisdictional Conference Delegate, GBGM In Mission Together Advocate NGC

Conference: Chair Missions/Global Ministries, Leadership UMC I & II, Nominations, Resolutions

District: AMAR Lay Leader, District Union

Local: Chair Church Council, Lay Leader, President UMM, SS Teacher, Youth Counselor

Other: Wesley Community Center Board, International Leadership Institute Nigeria and Eastern Europe National Conference Faculty, Tom Atkins Evangelical Ministries Board, Glencastle UM Children’s Home rebuild, Beyond These Walls Leadership Team
Thank you for electing me as a General Conference delegate in 2011 and Jurisdictional Conference delegate in 2007, 2011 and 2015. The knowledge I acquired at General and Jurisdictional Conferences, along with my past experience, has broadened my understanding of the denomination and the many challenges we face in the future.

I have served the Annual Conference as Treasurer of NGUMM, as Athens Elberton District Lay Leader, and as Chair-Revitalization Lay Leader. The Lay Revitalization Ministry developed a cadre of experienced laity to work with local churches and help them improve their programs that build disciples and help grow their churches.

IF ELECTED:
I will faithfully serve with dignity and honor by upholding Wesleyan tradition, Orthodox theology and Biblical teachings.
- Work with fellow delegates to adopt a responsible budget, strengthening UMC financial status and accountability.
- Establish quantitative means to measure effectiveness of clergy.
- Support programs to transition ineffective clergy into another career.
- Diligently work toward mending disagreements within the denomination while remaining faithful to the high standards we represent.
- Uphold and defend the current Discipline.
- Work to increase laity’s leadership role within general church.
- Work to consolidate general church agencies and align work and resources with the priorities of the church.
- Encourage clergy and laity partnerships “to make disciples”.
- Support fair representation in the organizations of the church.

MY SERVICE:
CONFERENCE: Chair Lay Revitalization Ministry for eight years; Member Conference Board of Laity for eight years; and Member Committee on Episcopacy for eight years, Treasurer of NGUMM for three years.
DISTRICT: District Lay Leader, District President UMM; District Lay Representative Racial Reconciliation, Annual Conference Host Committee for 17 years and Co-Chair for 7 years.
LOCAL CHURCH: Chair Administrative Board, Lay Leader, Chair Council on Ministries, President UMM, Adult Sunday School teacher, Certified Lay Speaker/Servant, Choir member.
At the 2019 General Conference I actively supported the Church’s 2000-year position on sexual ethics. My votes in the Episcopal elections at SEJ are faithful to this tradition. Love and unity require expression in obedience to the Son; Jesus expressed love in obedience to the Father.

Elected Conference President several times by UMMen, I supported missions, Scouting and youth outreach. One son is a Silver Beaver; one grandson is a national youth leader.

I see terrible gender inequality in Africa. I propose consistent, informed biblical preaching, helping both genders develop the mind of Christ, growing in deep respect for each other as persons made in God’s image.

As a trustee of Asbury Theological Seminary, the 5th largest in the USA, I see a great inequality in African theological education. I lobby successfully for more UMC funding for pastoral education in Africa and Philippines. Still, I see theology students, with their families, in Africa living in cramped “housing” without electricity and running water. With donors like you, I founded Bikes and Bibles that blesses about 250 poor African pastors annually.

My daughter-in-law’s stillbirths sensitized me even more to the needs I see in underequipped, outdated maternity wards in UMC hospitals and clinics in the Congo. I successfully lobby UMCOR and private donors to send equipment and supplies. Six 40’ containers recently shipped. My African relationships, built over time, facilitate legislative effectiveness, winning votes for UMC positions honoring unborn human life.

Let’s spend multi-millions from the huge reserves held by Agencies and Conference to support growing African areas where clergy and members are the poorest and where so many youth and children die young.

Together, united in obedience, we build a loving, glorious Church, the living body of Christ, rejoicing when Jesus returns and finds us producing good fruit for God’s Kingdom.

As a lifelong Christian committed to the growth and unity of the United Methodist Church, were I to be selected as a Delegate to General conference, I believe and would support the following:
• That everyone, without exception, is loved by God and deserving of full participation in the life and body of the Church.
• That the Church is strengthened through the work of a diverse, engaged laity in all facets of the Church.
• That creating a culture that allows for the participation of laity of all ages, races, genders, nationalities, and backgrounds, including more convenient meeting times, child care, and a modified Annual Conference schedule, is one of the keys to church revitalization.
• That we are called to be good stewards of all things entrusted to us, from finances to the environment, and that this stewardship is an act of worship.
• That this stewardship includes passing budgets that reflect the financial constraints of the local churches.
I have stood on the sidelines serving in the local church, but my love for the UMC will no longer allow me to remain a bystander, but to respond to the Holy Spirit’s nudging and seek election in the 2020 election.

I support:
- Wesleyan Orthodox teachings, The Lordship of Jesus Christ and Scripture to be the inspired word of God.
- Accountability to the current Book of Discipline by clergy and laity.
- Evangelism in the church and the community that brings Jesus love to a hurting world. My passion is evangelism sharing my faith and encouraging others as we seek to make new disciples.
- Ministries with youth and children, student ministries with an emphasis on confirmation.
- Building pathways for service and leadership in the local church.
- Developing ministry partners through a Holy Spirit movement in our lives that connects families, churches and communities to God’s saving grace.

I ask for your vote and support. It would be my honor to represent you and be your voice.

LUKE 9:23
“If you want to come with me, you must forget yourself, take up your cross every day, and follow me.”
I am a life-long member of Trinity on the Hill UMC in Augusta, Georgia. I have been happily married to Bill, an internist at the VA Hospital, for 31 years and we have four grown children.

At Trinity, I was an active member and leader of United Methodist Women for many years. I also helped establish Women of the Vine, a multi-faceted women’s ministry and served as its leader. During my tenure I led a diverse, interdenominational group woman in bringing about a successful community event attended by over 800 women.

I served as lay delegate to the North Georgia Annual Conference from 2003 to 2012.

I have been a long-time member of the RENEW Network, an organization for evangelical women within the United Methodist Church, serving as President from 2009-2012. RENEW is affiliated with Good News, the leading evangelical voice for renewal and reform within the UMC and I was a member of their Coalition at three General Conferences.

I support the Traditional Plan passed at the Special General Conference. I believe it represents the historical tenets of the Christian faith and the majority voice of our global denomination. Decades have been spent immersed in battle and I know the pain and divisiveness it has produced. The unity we have tried so hard to forge has reached an irreconcilable place. We are a connectional worldwide church and the body has spoken. The time has come for acceptance, healing, and moving forward as disciples of Jesus Christ. Obstruction and resistance will only prolong the suffering and taint our witness to the world.

I believe my experience as a women’s ministry leader, lay delegate and evangelical advocate equips me to serve as your delegate to General Conference. I would be honored to represent North Georgia with integrity, boldness, and grace.
I am a member of Cannon UMC, where I sing in the choir and serve as chair of the trustees. In a previous church I served as chair of SPR and the ad council. In my professional life and church life I have spent a great deal of time working with others on difficult issues. Micah 6:8 says we are to do what is right, and that is not always the easy road.

I am a litigation lawyer and spend a great deal of time determining what the laws mean. I am familiar with both the Bible and the Book of Discipline and I believe the modified traditional plan is firmly grounded in scripture.

My wife of 42 years and I raised two great kids and now are very close to our three young grandchildren. We have seen the cultural changes that have occurred; some are good, but others are clearly not. I believe the church is to change the culture, not let the changes in cultural beliefs alter Biblical doctrine. We need to be the light of truth in all things; our faith should never take a step back just to be politically correct.

As a lawyer handling mostly family law cases, I have seen how sin can destroy an individual and a family. Our culture and technology constantly put temptation at our fingertips and our young people need to hear the gospel. We are called as Christians to be witnesses for Jesus, and sometimes that means we will face persecution. I am a sinner saved by grace and I want to share what I have been given.

If chosen as a delegate, I pledge to act in love and with kindness, but stand firmly on the teachings of Holy Scripture. I humbly ask for your vote.
I humbly offer myself as a candidate for lay delegate to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences. For the past 16 years, I have been privileged to serve at Covenant UMC. As your representative, I promise to faithfully listen and honestly and prayerfully consider all concerns and opinions brought before me. These conversations may be difficult, perhaps even painful, but we must have open and honest dialogue.

I Believe:
• Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior.
• There is room for all at His table.
• All believers are called to a mission field that is as varied and unique as His creation. We must not neglect or belittle our service to building the kingdom of God through our vocations and daily interactions with our family, friends, customers, neighbors, clients, and strangers.
• The most beautiful noise in the church is that made by our children. Children are loud, messy, curious, compassionate, and vital members of our congregation. Not only should we encourage their participation, but create opportunities for service in worship and mission so that they may grow in fullness and love.
• With Jesus as our example, we must find new ways to minister to those on the fringes of our society.
• I believe there is still room for unity within our denomination through the example of John Wesley who said, “Though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, though we are not of one opinion? Without all doubt, we may. Herein all the children of God may unite, notwithstanding these smaller differences.”

It has been one of my greatest honors to serve as your Conference Lay Leader these last three years. We have worked together to expand the opportunities for laity to learn more about their faith and church throughout the connection. There has never been a time in history such as this, when the strong and faithful witness of the laity is required in our church and society.

I consider myself orthodox when it comes to the Christian faith. I believe in the Virgin birth, the divinity of Christ, His miracles, the redemptive work of Christ on the cross, and in the literal resurrection of Jesus from the grave. With your support, I would be honored to be elected as a delegate to the 2020 General and Jurisdictional Conferences as we all seek to move the church forward to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

I will support:

1) Wesleyan renewal of the church through emphasis on scripture, intentional faith development and holy conferencing.

2) Strengthening and expanding the concept of shared ministry between laity and clergy.

3) Practices that will develop better lines of communication and eliminate the disconnect that currently exists between our policy makers and the people in the pews.

4) Continued emphasis on holding our boards and agencies accountable to operate efficiently and to be fiscally responsible.

Greetings from Philadelphia! I am a Global Mission Fellow US2 (a young adult missionary serving in the United States) already representing North Georgia outside of the conference as I engage in ministry in Pennsylvania. I was raised in United Methodist churches in North Georgia, primarily Hickory Flat UMC in Canton where I still hold my membership. During college, I discerned a call to ministry at the Wesley Foundation at Georgia Tech and followed in the path of many North GA engineers who went on to seminary. I graduated from Candler School of Theology in 2018 and am a certified candidate for Deacon orders in the Atlanta College Park district.

You blessed me in Athens at Annual Conference last year as I prepared to leave for missionary training and I was commissioned in Atlanta two months later to engage with local communities, connect the church in mission, and grow in personal and social holiness. I was sent to Arch Street UMC in Philadelphia where I participate in worship leadership and work with the community to address issues related to poverty, hunger, and homelessness. I am passionate about finding creative ways to do both mission and ministry with communities that encourages them to cross boundaries, build new relationships, and lift up the voices of those who have been ignored and oppressed.

I am grateful for the support I have received from the North Georgia Conference, especially now as a missionary, and I am blessed to have this opportunity to represent you at General and Jurisdictional Conference as we all learn to live into the Beloved Community.
I am hopeful for the future of the United Methodist Church. Congregations at Princeton UMC (Athens), Gainesville FUMC, Toccoa FUMC, Duluth FUMC, and now Dahlonega UMC have discipled and loved me for 54 years.

I SUPPORT
-The authority of the Bible as the source, rule, and guide for the living out of our faith.
-Orthodox theology and the current Book of Discipline (BOD) as consistent with scripture, tradition, reason, and Christian experience.
-Promoting our BOD in a loving and inclusive manner while remaining faithful to our orthodox biblical and theological foundations.
-A fair and transparent legislative process which promotes the global church.
-The efficacy of the local church to evangelize, disciple, and serve.
-Measures of transparency and accountability to reduce the General Church Budget.
-Reduction of apportionments to promote the potency of ministry for the local church in the community and globally.
-UMC resources primarily supporting local churches.
-Sound stewardship promoting local and international mission, including UMCOR and our Board of Global Ministries.

PROFESSIONAL
-Practicing litigation attorney for 28 years.
-Ability to analyze complex statutory language and comprehend the practical impact of these provisions.
-Ability to draft, organize, and communicate effectively.
-Proficiency in Robert’s Rules of Order.
-These skills equip me to serve as your voice in preparation for and at General Conference.

CHURCH POSITIONS
I have served in local churches as: SPR Chair, Administrative Council Chair, UMM President, Sunday School Superintendent, Stewardship Committee Member, Sunday School teacher, youth volunteer, choir member, and currently Delegate at Large to Annual Conference.

Through teaching High School and college Sunday School classes and chaperoning numerous mission trips over the years I have learned that our youth are hungry to put their faith into action.

PERSONAL
Married for 31 years.
Two adult sons.
Grandparent.
My name is Lynn Noell Peek, and I am a retired teacher. I was raised as a member of Cleveland United Methodist Church in the Gainesville District and have been a member of Decatur First United Methodist Church in the Atlanta/Decatur/Oxford District since 1973.

As a youth I participated in Methodist Youth Fellowship at the local, sub-district, district, conference, and national levels, holding offices at the local, sub-district, and district levels. Since then I have not felt the need to hold major church offices. I was Secretary of the Administrative Board for four years and Chair of the Worship Committee for two years at DFUMC. Other than that I have been extremely active serving on committees, teaching, working in or coordinating VBS, coordinating children’s music camp, assisting with or directing children’s choirs, singing in choirs, leading adult study groups, volunteering for local mission projects, leading the annual Christmas toy drive, and participating in UMW. That was where my time and talents were needed. Currently I teach toddlers in DFUMC’s Childrens’ Morning Out program. When I served as Alternate District Lay Delegate to Annual Conference in 2016 and as District Lay Delegate 2017-2019 I became aware of the importance of the message of the United Methodist Church.

I want to be a delegate to General Conference because I have realized the critical nature of its decisions. How we present ourselves to our communities, our nation, and our world is vital. I believe the basic components of Christianity are “love God” and “love your neighbor”. Who is my neighbor? Everyone.

I have strong convictions; but I am fair, open-minded, and willing to listen. Since I am semi-retired, I have the time and ability to study, pray, and attend meetings in preparation. I feel God is calling me here.
Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ! I am Chris Rapko, a member at St. Paul UMC in Atlanta in the ADOX district, where my wife serves as Pastor-In-Charge. I submit myself for your consideration as a lay delegate to the 2020 General Conference of The United Methodist Church. I am a graduate of Candler School of Theology (11T), and I have been involved in the UMC for 10 years, first at Druid Hills UMC in Atlanta, and then at Mt. Zion UMC in Marietta, GA. Currently, I serve on the Conference Commission On Religion and Race (CCORR) and am a member of the Board of Directors for Aldersgate/Camp Collinswood. I am also a Certified Candidate for ordained ministry in the North Georgia Conference on the Elder track.

I bring to the table a commitment to Scripture as the primary source of theological reflection. My interests in my undergraduate and graduate studies emphasized Scripture and its interpretation. I’m well-learned in biblical Greek and Hebrew, and am especially interested in Biblical Theology. Scripture drives my theological commitments. I am committed to spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ to everyone, because Christ came for every human being from every nation in every culture.

Finally, I am seeking your consideration as a lay delegate because of my passion for The United Methodist Church. As a Disc Jockey for a local radio station, I have a professional commitment to cultural relevancy that drives me to look for ways to make the church as applicable as possible to the world. From my experience serving as a pastoral presence in the DJ booth, I believe that the church must find new ways to evangelize new people in new ways. I look forward to furthering the Kingdom of God wherever the Spirit might take me.

Hello North Georgia! My name is Elijah Shoaf and I am interested in representing you as a delegate to General Conference 2020! I live in Gwinnett County with my wonderful family where I attend Brookwood High School and Cannon UMC. One of the most diverse schools in the country, I have been able to experience firsthand both the benefits of having a wide variety of opinions and life experiences along with the problems faced by many groups who are often generalized by society.

Using these experiences and my knowledge of our denomination I have gained through positions at both the local and conference levels such as my time on the Conference Council on Youth Ministries I hope to help create an aura of inclusiveness and safety in the modern church. And while doing this, I will emphasize a “No One Left Behind” policy.

Oftentimes when society advances we often forget or even marginalize the beliefs of older or more conservative factions in our church. I believe this is detrimental to us and I will work tirelessly to find a balance between both progress and understanding. The church I have grown to know and love deserves to stay united.

“Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.”
-Ephesians 4:3 (NIV)

I will strive to be a voice of unity in these troubled times. Let this church be a rock and refuge for all people! I know that it is possible to build a United Methodist Church that is united in faith to bring the love of God to all people. At the end of the day, remember to put away the sword and find the love in your hearts for one another. I look forward to introducing myself to you all!
Thank you for electing me three times to the delegation. It is an honor. I have gained unique insights, built strong relationships nationally, internationally and in our conference.

I was honored to be elected a reserve delegate to the 2012 and 2016 General Conferences. While attending committee meetings and sessions, it was apparent no single issue will resolve the challenges of the United Methodist Church. Prayer and study of multiple subjects will be required to truly address the 2020 Conference.

I believe in John Wesley’s theology. I believe by scripture, tradition, reason, and experience we can find answers to today’s problems. Even as we face challenges as a denomination, I am filled with hope for the future of United Methodism.

I believe clergy and laity alike, should uphold the authority of the Book of Discipline.

I believe laity is called by God to be in ministry for specific service in addition to their vocation. I believe clergy and laity should work hand in hand. Our diversity is our strength. We can and should depend on each other for help and support as we expand ministry in the world.

I believe we should strengthen our evangelism efforts. We need to offer the love and good news of Jesus Christ to the world. We are distracted by the world and by the enormity of social issues that face us. As simple as it sounds, Jesus is the answer.

I believe the church should lead the way to instill moral values in children and youth. We must not ignore our responsibility while expanding our resources to reach children and youth.

After prayerful consideration I feel called to offer myself as a 2020 General Conference Delegate Candidate. I was raised in the Methodist Church and still believe strongly in our Articles of Religion. John Wesley considered the Bible the heart of his faith. I consider the Bible the heart of my faith and the Bible remains the heart of our United Methodist beliefs. I have extensive leadership and financial experience as a Bank Division President. These qualities will enable me to effectively negotiate with diverse groups and to promote means of returning more financial resources to the local church. My numerous leadership positions in the local church have enhanced my abilities to represent you. I am also a Sunday School leader; small group leader; youth mentor; and teach Disciples Bible Studies. I continually work on my spiritual growth and being Christ like.

I have a working knowledge of and support our current Book of Discipline and am very familiar with the operations of the Methodist Church. I have lead classes and discussions on our Discipline and Legislative, Executive and Judicial processes. I believe anyone who has taken the oath to uphold our Discipline should do so with accountability. I am in favor of evaluating limited terms for Bishops.

I will respect all delegates and opposing views. I commit to prayerfully consider all General Conference issues and remain faithful by voting to uphold Scripture. To paraphrase Lillian Hellman - I cannot and will not cut my conscience to fit this year’s fashion. 1 John 2: 15 reminds us that “the love of the Father is not in those who love the world”. The United Methodist Church is at a crucial point in our history. I pray God has a miracle to keep us united.
I believe that God has richly blessed the United Methodist Church. He has given us a mandate to demonstrate Christian conduct to a troubled world. We have the opportunity to display what it means to love one another while revealing that God breathed Scripture is needed to teach, correct and train ourselves so that we may be equipped to go and make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

To do what the Body of Christ has been called to do, we must be obedient to the Word of God with a loving spirit of humility and recognize that though we will not always agree with one another, we can still treat others as we would like others to treat us. Both individually and collectively, we must be Christ-centered and Spirit-led in our words, thoughts and actions.

All people matter to Jesus and they must matter to us as well. I believe that we must endeavor to prayerfully transform lives through Christ by the Word of God as we seek to serve Him.

In addition to my service leadership experiences as a middle and high school teacher, athletic director, past president of the Professional Association of Georgia Educators, and current member of the Columbia County Board of Education, I have also been blessed to serve in various roles in the Methodist Church. This includes the conference, district and local church levels in these capacities: Leadership UMC and Leadership UMC Advanced; Housing and Homeless Council; Annual Conference as an At-Large Delegate and Teller; Lay Servant; Worship Committee Chair, Administrative Council Chair and Projection Tech. And, it would be my honor to represent you in Minneapolis in 2020.
I am the wife of Reverend Paul Thibodeaux and mother of six boys ages, 5 – 25! I bless God daily that he helps me to connect to my three different generations of children. God gives me the grace and wisdom to meet each where they are and to maintain an influence to train them up in the way they should go. I am old enough in spirit to be wise and young enough in heart to relate and connect to them. I love being in ministry with Paul to the world. It is who we are, what we do, how we love and live!

I have served as Chair/Co-Chair of Children’s Ministry, Worship, Prayer Circles, New Members, CE Teacher, Care Team, Visioning Lead Christian Education, Secretary for the ACPK Strategic Growth Team and a current participate in the Leadership UMC class and leader for my group. With Paul, I host small groups and counsel couples / families. I am temporarily working at The Orchard Church to help them build systems and processes to grow ministries.

As a young adult I was fearful of the Book of Disciple. How I saw people use it at church conferences did not represent the love and compassion I knew they held for God and one another. Then I read it and discovered the love and concern that it must have taken to write it; in hopes that it would glorify God and edify the body. It affirmed for me that at the core of Methodists, despite our actions at time, is a fundamental love of God and all his people. I feel James 1:2-8 is where the United Methodist Church finds itself now. I believe we should find comfort in 1 John 3:2 as we keep doing the greatest commandments in practice and belief.
I was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, was baptized as an infant in a Presbyterian congregation, and attended a Brethren Sunday School until age eleven. From age 6 to 45 I was part of an “Eschatological Sect” that expected the imminent premillennial return of Christ.

The great thing about having had such a diverse church background is that I am much more accepting of other people’s theological differences.

I married Rita in 1976. We joined Roswell United Methodist Church in 1998.

At RUMC: I was a member of the Adult Education Committee for eight years, chairing it for two. I chaired the GROW Council for three years under two different associate pastors. (GROW relates to growing the congregation spiritually.)

I have taught eighth grade, high school and adult Sunday school and have facilitated adult courses such as Disciple III, and Wesley Ministry Network’s In God’s Time, A Life Worthy of the Gospel, and Serious Answers to Hard Questions.

I have been a Stephen Minister since 2009. I pray with job seekers in the chapel at Job Networking, and, with Rita, serve as overnight host for Family Promise several times a year. I have served on three Emmaus walks.

I was on two mission trips to Mississippi in the aftermath of hurricane Katrina. Internationally I have gone, together with Rita, on mission trips to Brazil, Peru (twice) and Guatemala.

My church focus is on unity as prayed for by Jesus and desired by Paul.

Key verses are Philippians 2:5, 1:6 & Micah 6:8

Mathew. 25:31-46 is a favorite passage. The separating of the sheep from the goats in the judgment speaks to the fact that Christianity is not a theological puzzle to solve. Feed the hungry, give water to the thirsty, invite in the stranger, and clothe those who need clothes.
As a young delegate, I am committed to the future of the United Methodist Church because it is the future of my church. In spite of the challenges we face, I am optimistic about our future. As the daughter and granddaughter of United Methodist clergy, my life is deeply rooted in this denomination.

I grew up attending a variety of local churches, worshiping and serving alongside Christians from all walks of life with a range of beliefs, opinions, and views. The diversity of my experiences within this denomination have given me a broad understanding of and deep appreciation for the rich tapestry of perspectives from which United Methodists approach our unifying call to love God and other people with open hearts, open minds, and open doors.

Though I respect and admire God’s unique call on clergy to serve, I believe that the Church is at its best when laity are empowered to lead, charged with carrying out the ministries and missions of the body and inspiring growth and change from within.

To this end, I currently serve as a lay delegate to annual conference for Eastside Church, where I am a member. I am also a small group leader, and in the past have volunteered in a variety of ways in youth ministries.

I am on staff at Northside Church, where I get to enact my passion of relational evangelism, particularly among my age demographic.

I am an observant, humble, and determined United Methodist who respects the traditions and experiences of the generations that came before me, while also recognizing our need for constant growth and renewal in order to continually align ourselves with the will of God. I love this Church and will fearlessly and tirelessly work to ensure that our special community thrives.
My name is Ann Warren. I have been a Methodist since my baptism in 1962. My family have been Methodists for several generations. My parents have been loyal members of Tennille Methodist all my life. I watched their service and have tried to do the same. As a young person, I served at Tennille Methodist as a Sunday School teacher and as a member of the choir. My husband Ben and I married at Tennille UMC and baptized our first child, Benjamin there.

When Ben accepted a job as a physician in Cartersville in 1992, we moved and began our search for a home church. After an invitation to visit Sam Jones Memorial UMC, we realized we had found a home. Our next two children, Will and Julia, were baptized there. We have continued our membership there to this date.

I have served at Sam Jones in several capacities. I have been a member of the SPRC. I have served as a staff member as director of children and adult ministries. I have taught Sunday School for both adults and middle schoolers. I have taught bible studies for several years. I have been a member of the celebration worship team almost since its inception at Sam Jones and currently serve as the worship leader for this service.

I love the Methodist Church but have not done my part for the church as a whole. I wish to be a part of keeping my church vital and thriving in today’s world. I am active in Prison Ministry and realize that God has room for all in His church. It is my desire to be sure that all persons know of His love for them and that they can find a home and a place of inclusion at any United Methodist Church.
My name is Amy Whittall. I have been a United Methodist church member since about 1997. My husband and I made a conscious choice to join the United Methodist church even though neither of us was raised in the Methodist church. We found comfort in the Wesleyan commitment to Scripture, tradition, reason and Christian experience. We have two children. Our oldest is a currently a senior in high school and will attend college in the fall of 2019 (maybe the University of Georgia-go Dawgs!). Our youngest is a fifteen year old freshman in high school.

We are currently members at the Alpharetta First United Methodist Church in Alpharetta, Georgia. Our church is part of the Alpharetta-Roswell district in the North Georgia Conference.

I have decided to nominate myself as a lay candidate for the General Conference in 2020. I spoke with a church elder because I was not sure what to say about myself that could sum it up succinctly. To quote her -- “I love Jesus Christ and I want my church to reflect that love”. I believe that the UMC must continue to share the love of Christ with everyone that we can.

I realize the time and effort that will go into the next General Conference. My greatest desire is for all participants to come out of it having felt the presence of the Holy Spirit and the love of Jesus Christ. I believe that I can assist in these efforts while also discussing topics of wide opinions. I appreciate your consideration of my service.
My name is Rick Yates. I am currently Lay Leader at Inman Park UMC where my wife, Lisa, and I have attended for seven years. I have been a United Methodist for 43 years. During that time, I have served as Administrative Board chairperson, Staff-Parish Relations chairperson, Worship Committee chairperson, Finance Committee chairperson, Treasurer, youth counselor, Sunday school teacher, etc. I started my faith journey as a Methodist youth. I graduated from a Methodist college. I married the daughter of Methodist minister. We live out our faith journey in the Methodist church community.

This is the church that has shaped and molded me. I now seek the opportunity to shape and mold our future. To help move us beyond the current impasse that is holding us back from being all that we can be for the Kingdom of God. To work with other delegates to find the best possible solutions that do the greatest good to create an inclusive church that serves the oppressed, excluded and marginalized.

Throughout my career and church leadership roles, I have been a bridge builder and a problem solver; bringing diverse groups together with strongly held beliefs and competing interests to find solutions to challenging issues.

As a delegate, I will bring deep experience as a collaborator and problem-solver to work with fellow delegates in achieving the greatest good for our church and the Kingdom of God.

I am a 1982 graduate of Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Alabama (B.A., Finance). In 1987, I earned an M.B.A. from Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. In 2009, the Huntingdon College Alumni Association recognized me as Alumni of the Year.

I am married to Lisa Sells Yates (daughter of Rev. Dr. Edwin Sells). We have two grown children, Kathryn Yates Williams and Connor Alan Yates.
