

Basic Class - Scheduled for Feb 11 and Feb18 at Calhoun First UMC.

This course is offered to anyone that would like to become a Local Lay Servant at your church. By becoming a Lay Servant, they will be “recruiting and equipping United Methodists for all facets of ministry.” This course will be held on Saturday Feb 11 and Feb 18 from 9am until 3pm. You must attend both sessions to get credit for the class.

Marty McGee will be the instructor for this class.

This will be an in-person class at Calhoun First UMC, 205 E. Line St., Calhoun, Ga. 30701

The book for this class is titled “Lay Servant Ministries” by Sandy Zeigler Jackson with Brian Jackson. This course covers the three main categories of Lay Servant Ministries including Caring, Leading and Communicating. Lay Servant Ministries encompass a broad range of ministries. It is important to recognize that Lay Servants have various gifts that are generally considered complimentary to the preaching abilities for which Lay Speakers are generally recognized. This course covers those other gifts.

Lay leaders are urged to become certified lay servants. Please encourage the lay leader of your Church to take this required course.
