Keynote Speaker

Rev. Dr. Jamie Jenkins

Jamie is originally from Mobile, Alabama and has been married to Lena Loper Jenkins for 46 years. They have three children and two grandchildren (he's happy to share pictures). Jamie graduated from Bryan College, received his Masters of Divinity from Candler, and earned his doctorate from McCormick Theological Seminary. He retired in 2013 after 41 years in the ministry, serving the Roopville Circuit, Comer, Bright Star, and Aldersgate then became District Superintendent of the Atlanta–Marietta District followed by a move to the Office of Ministerial Services, Executive Assistant to the Bishop, and Director of Church Development. Jamie now serves part-time at Peachtree Road UMC for visitation. A mission that is near and dear to his heart is Imagine No Malaria for which he is the Field Coordinator. An special offering will be taken for Imagine No Malaria, a major mission of the North Georgia Conference.

Welcome to all adults 55 and up

—clergy and laity!

Those dealing with family member needs as well as professionals!
