We Remember

A four day Annual Conference remembrance of the 9-11 tragedies began at Simpsonwood on Sunday afternoon, September 8. While many of our churches will hold worship services and other expressions on Wednesday, the Conference Information Office staff is visiting forty fire and police stations across the area. "Thank you to our local heroes and heroines" is the message which is being conveyed on behalf of the almost one thousand churches and 320,000 United Methodists in North Georgia.

Five dozen cookies, baked and provided by Simpsonwood Conference and Retreat Center and placed in baskets decorated by Lena Jenkins and Leigh Ann Sanders, are being presented at stations in each District. An attached card to our civic servants reads as follows:

The United Methodists of North Georgia

Show this community through your continual commitment to our safety and well-being.

Please accept this gift basket of cookies as a token of our Gratitude, and as a reminder of the tremendous regard In which we hold you.

May God Bless You All!

On September 11, a service of remembrance is scheduled for the Elizabeth Jane Sanders Simpson Chapel at Simpsonwood at 11 a.m. The worship will be led by the staff of Simpsonwood and the Conference Information Office and you are invited.

for more information.

Together we recall those persons who lost their lives and the many unselfish, heroic acts of 9-11.
