Rick Schatz

A highly sought after speaker, Rick is President and CEO of the National Coalition for the Protection of Children and Families, a Christian nonprofit that believes that the sexualized messages of our culture undermine biblical morality and destroy lives. Rick has led Coalition efforts to counteract these forces through initiatives aimed at protecting children, strengthening marriages, restoring the broken, and engaging the culture. Rick holds an MBA from the Harvard Business School and is an elder and founding member of Evangelical Community Church in Cincinnati, where he served as interim lead preacher for more than a year.

Claire Underwood Hertzler

Claire Hertzler is Regional Director of The National Coalition’s Office in Atlanta, presenting to churches and community groups on a variety of topics. She has been a leader in the anti-human trafficking movement in Atlanta since 2000. She has planned sexual addiction conferences for 350 therapists and worked with parents to develop “The 18-Year Sex Talk.” Previously, Claire served churches as a Youth Director and as a Director of Christian Education. Hertzler holds a B.A. Degree in English from Mercer University; a Masters Degree in Christian Education from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; and an Ed. S. Degree in Community Counseling from Georgia State University.

Al Cole

Al is Executive Director of the Atlanta office of the National Coalition for the Protection of Children and Families and author of “The Shadow Christian.” Prior to joining the Coalition Al was a writer and editor for more than 25 years and holds a master’s degree in public affairs journalism from The American University in Washington, D.C. During his 15 years in the nation’s capital, he covered everything from public policy to pop culture, working as a reporter in the Washington Bureau of the Houston Post and later as senior editor for Modern Maturity magazine.

Topics include:
- Raising kids in a XXX culture
- Wireless Devices and Mobile Entertainment
- Pornography Addiction and its Effect on the Family
- The 18 Year Sex Talk (or how to talk with your kids about sex and sexualized messages)

Dunwoody UMC is located at 1548 Mt. Vernon Rd. Dunwoody, GA 30338, near the intersection of Mt. Vernon and Ashford Dunwoody Rd. Visit our website at www.dunwoodyumc.org.

This conference is designed for parents of teens and children. Sorry, childcare will NOT be provided. TEENS are strongly encouraged to attend as well.
