

"What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God?" Micah 6:8

NORTH GEORGIA YOUNG ADULTS!

YOU are invited to participate in a United Methodist seminar in NEW YORK CITY this fall: September 10-13, 2009. It will be educational, interactive, thought-provoking, and fun! We will receive training on how to work at home on issues of social justice, including global health initiatives and human trafficking--an issue particularly important to the state of Georgia. The seminar is designed to answer questions, challenge assumptions, and open up the group to reflection. And it's in NEW YORK CITY! Be challenged to learn, to reflect, and to be inspired with those working for justice locally, nationally, and globally. The group will fly to NYC on Air Tran, and stay at the Alma Matthews House. The cost is $350 per person, plus meals (plan on about $40 per day) and metro card ($25). Registration requires a $50 non-refundable deposit and is limited to only 16 people.

- To register on a first come, first serve basis – contact Margaret Freeman at mfreeman@ngumc.org.
- Questions about the trip? – contact Susan Allen-Grady at susan@stpaulgrantpark.org.
- For more information on the seminar program, go to www.umc-gbcs.org/site; on the Alma Matthews House, go to www.gbqm-umc.org/umw/amh.