

Take The Intervene Challenge

A one-day training in
Suicide Intervention

Coming to Newnan

Tuesday March 26, 2019

9 am to 3:30 pm

In the past 10 years suicide in 4 of the 5 counties in the LaGrange District have experienced suicide rates higher than the national average by as much as 41%. Nearly 13,000 caring individuals have participated in the Intervene Challenge featuring the Listen Learn Lead curriculum. The training is open to all with a desire to turn the tide on suicide in our communities and offers 5 hours of POST credit for Law Enforcement.

- ◇ Increase Personal Awareness
- ◇ Identify risk factors & warning signs
- ◇ Discuss attitudes that help and hurt
- ◇ Gain the skills that save lives

Hosted by Newnan First UMC and the
LaGrange District of the United Methodist Church
There is a $12 charge for lunch payable the day of event.
Doors will open at 8:30am

Register today at InterveneChallenge.com!

Under the events tap scroll to the March 26 event.

Facilitator is Chaplain (LTC) Kenneth Koon, 2016 Trinity Awards Emergency Responder of the Year. Ken has conducted more than 800 successful suicide interventions in both military and civilian communities.

Take The Intervene Challenge

A one-day training in
Suicide Intervention

Coming to Newnan

Tuesday March 26, 2019

9 am to 3:30 pm

In the past 10 years suicide in 4 of the 5 counties in the LaGrange District have experienced suicide rates higher than the national average by as much as 41%. Nearly 13,000 caring individuals have participated in the Intervene Challenge featuring the Listen Learn Lead curriculum. The training is open to all with a desire to turn the tide on suicide in our communities and offers 5 hours of POST credit for Law Enforcement.

- ◇ Increase Personal Awareness
- ◇ Identify risk factors & warning signs
- ◇ Discuss attitudes that help and hurt
- ◇ Gain the skills that save lives

Hosted by Newnan First UMC and the
LaGrange District of the United Methodist Church
There is a $12 charge for lunch payable the day of event.
Doors will open at 8:30am

Register today at InterveneChallenge.com!

Under the events tap scroll to the March 26 event.

Facilitator is Chaplain (LTC) Kenneth Koon, 2016 Trinity Awards Emergency Responder of the Year. Ken has conducted more than 800 successful suicide interventions in both military and civilian communities.