

BASIC LAY SERVANT COURSE TRAINING

Saturdays ~ 9:00 – 4:00 PM
September 11, 2021 (1st Session) and
September 18, 2021 (2nd Session)

Both sessions must be taken to be certified.

Young Memorial UMC

1711 Washington Road, Thomson, GA 30824
706-595-3375

Instructors: Augusta District Lay Servant Ministry Team

Who should attend?

Anyone who feels called to serve more fully in the ministries of their church.

What will I learn?

Specific training to increase skills in witnessing to the Christian faith through leading worship, teaching, written communications, church & community leadership, and care-giving.

What will I be able to do after this training?

Local church/charge lay servants do more than lead worship. They also recognize and respond to the many and varied needs of the local church. There is no limit to opportunities to witness to others in helping them to deepen their faith in Jesus Christ. Local lay servants are servant leaders.
